

Lakeview Women Plan AAUW Tea

Easter Monday Bridge Tea Given by Members Of St. Luke's Guild in Neighboring Town

LAKEVIEW—Mrs. B. K. Snyder and Mrs. C. J. Clause were the principal speakers at the April meeting of the American Association of University Women held at the home of Mrs. Richard Corbett Saturday, April twenty-fourth. Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. Gordon Smith were hostesses for the day. Mrs. Robert Adams Sr. and Mrs. Snyder presided at a beautifully appointed tea table.

Mrs. Snyder talked informally on "The Oregon Legislature from a Woman's Point of View." Mrs. Clause, a member of Soroptimist, chairman of the women's committee of the war savings staff and a leader in the organization of civilian defense, explained the "Block Plan" as it will be set up in Lakeview.

EAGLES AUXILIARY NOMINATES

Mrs. Corbett, president of the AAUW, appointed the following committees to take charge of the annual AAUW tea for the senior high school girls: Arrangements, Mrs. J. H. Dalen, chairman, Mrs. Milton Fisher, Mrs. W. H. Buell; kitchen, Miss Jane Reith, chairman, Mrs. John Blair; serving, Mrs. Edward McKay, chairman, Mrs. Edward Cliff, Mrs. Walter Sandquist, Mrs. Jay Hughes; reception, Miss Laura Waterman, Mrs. Walter Dykeman, Miss Barbara Ketchum, Mrs. Richard Corbett.

The wives of the school board members, Mrs. Larry Fitzgerald, Mrs. Frank Cotter and Mrs. Clifton Howard, have been invited to preside at the tea table.

The traditional formal tea for the girl graduates will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward McKay on Saturday afternoon, May twenty-second from three to four o'clock.

Mrs. Corbett announced that the new and outstanding honor in the field of scholarship, the $2500 Achievement Award of the AAUW, was conferred upon Dr. Florence Seibert, associate professor of the Phipps institute in Philadelphia, distinguished biochemist, internationally famous in tuberculosis research. Guests for the day were Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Clause, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Ralph Buell, and Mrs. John Kucera.

Monday afternoon, April twenty-sixth, against a background of blue, yellow and white, the St. Luke's guild gave their annual Easter Monday bridge tea at St. Luke's parish hall.

The hostesses were Mrs. J. Orin Nichols, Mrs. E. G. Favell, Mrs. Archie Anderson and Mrs. Phil Shulte. Mrs. John Buell and Mrs. H. W. Buhman also assisted. Bouquets of daffodils and calla lilies decorated the room. Mrs. Favell and Mrs. Shulte poured tea. A table centerpiece of yellow daffodils and blue and yellow candelabras completed the table decorations.

During the tea hour Mrs. Herbert Sanderson played piano selections. Prizes for the afternoon were received by Mrs. Art Herring, Mrs. Charles Arzner and Mrs. Larry Fitzgerald.

Pearson-Caldwell
Married quietly on Tuesday evening at the home of the officiating minister, Arthur Charles Bates, 538 Lincoln street, were Mr. Alfred Sidney Pearson and Miss Clara Marie Caldwell, both of Klamath Falls. They were attended by Mr. James A. Jackson and Miss Loraine M. Bratton. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wissenback, David Wissenback and Oscar Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Olsen of North Ninth street have as their guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Shirley of Livermore, Calif., and their two granddaughters, Alice Ann and Laura Lee.

MARRIED RECENTLY

A bride of January seventeenth was Grace Louise Taylor whose marriage to James Elliott Griggs of the United States coast guard, occurred in this city. Mrs. Griggs is the daughter of Mrs. May Norton Taylor of Klamath Falls and Mr. George P. Taylor of Portland.

Reports Slated At League Meet

Women Voters Plan Session for Monday Afternoon in Library Club Rooms

Reports of standing committees will be heard Monday afternoon, when the Klamath County League of Women Voters will hold its regular meeting in the small club room of the city library.

Mrs. M. J. Young, who was scheduled to present a paper on "Women's Suffrage Throughout the World," has postponed this program until a later date, according to Mrs. Everett R. Dennis, league president.

Short discussions will be given Monday afternoon by Mrs. Paul Buck, wartime chairman, and Mrs. E. A. Geary, head of the foreign policy study group. Mrs. Buck will discuss the Reciprocal Trades Agreement, and Mrs. Geary will talk on the Lend-Lease program.

Election of officers for the coming year will be held at the meeting, and plans for the convention of the State League of Women Voters will be discussed. The convention is to be held in Portland May 18 and 19. Mrs. Dennis will represent the local league, and several other members of the Klamath group hope to attend some of the sessions.

Dues for the ensuing year are now payable, according to Mrs. E. Laton Stephens, league treasurer, and members are urged to make payments as soon as possible in order that books may be brought up to date. The board of directors of the local group has decided on a plan for graduated dues instead of the former donation system. By this method, members may pay a minimum of one dollar, or as much more as they may desire. Dues were formerly payable in the fall, but the state league changed this time to spring at its last convention.

A meeting of the board of directors will be held at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon preceding the regular session, according to Mrs. Dennis.

Mrs. A. LeNaeres of Roseway drive is in San Francisco to attend the christening of her new granddaughter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hamm. She will also bid farewell to her son-in-law as Mr. Hamm expects to leave soon for army service. Mrs. LeNaeres' son, William, is now located with an engineering division at Camp Claiborne, Louisiana.

Mrs. Frank Evans of Wall street has been spending this week in Portland visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gove were expected home the last of this week from Portland where they have been visiting.

WE SAW THE BUNNY!

Wanda and Wilma, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Clark of Malin, seem perfectly delighted over something—Comart.

Valley Women Sew

Red Cross Work Done By Women's Club Membership

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Bessie Campbell entertained the Langell Valley Women's club at her home on Thursday at an all-day meeting. A paper sack lunch was enjoyed at noon with Mrs. Campbell serving dessert and coffee.

The Ladies Aid Red Cross sewing preceded and followed the business meeting. A letter was read from Mrs. Alice Peatross from San Francisco, whose health is much improved. Mrs. Grace Revell was awarded the guest prize.

The next club meeting will be on May twenty-seventh when the club will meet for dessert at one thirty o'clock. Hostesses will be Virginia Thomas and Bessie Frazier.

Members and guests present at Mrs. Campbell's were Mary Dearborn, Mildred Campbell, Margaret Burnett, Theresa Teare, Myrtle Johnson, Nettie Davis, Mary Leidy, Grace Revell, Norma Campbell, Rebecca House and Nonie Pepple.

Mrs. Bill Stewart entertained with a delightful party at her home on Saturday evening in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Merle Brewster and Bill Stewart. The evening was spent playing cards, followed by a buffet supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Potucek, Mrs. Claude Murray, Bob Pepple and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Wesley Dearborn entertained a group of children in honor of the birthday of her son Bill, who was five years old on that day. Games and an Easter egg hunt were enjoyed followed by refreshments. Invited guests were Ruth Thomas, Marilyn Dearborn, Helen Dearborn, Mary Ann Leavitt, Richard Burnett, David Thomas, Catherine Dearborn and Bill Dearborn.

The Catholic Daughters of America held a social meeting on Monday evening in the parish hall. Out-of-town members attending this meeting were Mamie Giacomini of Merrill and Mildred Patrick of Malin. Various guessing games were played, with prizes awarded to Agnes Londe, Louise Vaughn and Mamie Giacomini. The committee for April was composed of assisted Mahoney, chairman, assisted by Theresa Doveri, Hazel Landry, Azilia Kennedy and Mary Parks.

JOHN AND MYRA

John Wayne, just four, and Myra Lorena, not quite two years old, are children of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Fabianey Jr., of 4944 Homedale road. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Fabianey Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. James Addleman of Malin. —Kennell-Elills.

IT'S EASTER!

Richard Ralph is the seven-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Groseclose of Pelican district. This is his first Easter. —Kennell-Elills.

CLUB PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS AT LEGION PARLORS

Members of the Happy Hour club were entertained by the club president, Mrs. R. G. Motschenbacher, on Tuesday afternoon in the American Legion auxiliary parlors.

Mrs. Dave Robinson was a guest of the club and members attending included Mrs. George Biehn, Mrs. J. J. Keller, Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, Mrs. H. J. Savige, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Maud Hosley, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. Anna Funk, Mrs. H. E. Jones, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz and the hostess.

Place of the club's next meeting will be announced later.

MVB CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. McPHERSON

Members of the MVB club met at the home of Mrs. Olive McPherson on Wednesday, April the fourteenth, at Midland. The early part of the afternoon was spent in cutting garments from materials purchased by the club. This was the third "bundle" made for the Victory Baby.

The latter part of the day members enjoyed games, with honors going to Mrs. Jean Wilson and Mrs. Hazel Mistler. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Hazel Mistler, Mrs. Jacob Houck, Mrs. Elizabeth Casebier, Mrs. Thelma Houck, Mrs. Vada Schmeck, Mrs. Edna Travers, Mrs. Ethel Padock and the hostess, Mrs. McPherson.

Mrs. Stanley Pieser is spending this weekend in Eugene attending the Catholic Daughters of America meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stewart of Merrill were Easter Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hendrickson at their home on Applegate street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley are again at home on Roseway drive after being away for the past month, visiting in various California points.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Beals of South Sixth street have been spending this week in Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip.

When in Medford Stay at HOTEL HOLLAND Thoroughly Modern Joe and Anne Earley Proprietors

Tulelake

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Duggan from their daughter, Mrs. Jerry Ferrier, Portland, that her husband, training in the army air corps, is stationed at Logan, Utah. Mrs. Ferrier and baby daughter hope to pay Mr. and Mrs. Duggan a visit early in June before going to Utah to visit Mr. Ferrier, who was formerly associated with the Merrill branch, First National Bank of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Terry, now living at Casa Grande, Ariz., have been here for several days on business, in connection with their homestead in the Tulelake district.

Several college and university students, home for the Easter holiday, have returned to their classes. Virginia Hooper from Oregon State visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hooper, and Angeline Galloway, studying at Chico State college, was with her mother, Mrs. Harry Galloway.

Albert Burleigh, formerly of Tulelake and now serving as a navy gunner, visited here Wednesday. Burleigh has just returned from duty in foreign waters where he served on a troop transport.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dillard and children, Marguerite and Lee of Eagle Point, visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Uel Dillard and family. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barks and family, Tulelake, and other residents in this area. The Dillards are former Merrill residents, Dillard having been manager of the Merrill telephone district for some time.

Jack Alsop, eighth grade student, is reported to have submitted to an appendectomy Tuesday at Hillside hospital, Klamath Falls. The boy, an honor student and scheduled to graduate early in May, is reported to be seriously ill.

Charles K. Weise was in Medford Wednesday on business. The personnel of the military guard at Newell were entertained at a pre-Easter party Saturday night by the Winema Welfare club under the USO program that has made possible over a period of months entertainment for the young men in camp.

Music for the dance was furnished by W. H. Anderson and his orchestra and a few square dances added zest to the affair. A number of civilian guests were numbered among the 150 who enjoyed the evening and refreshments at midnight.

Mrs. French E. Johnson, chairman of the local USO branch, was in receipt of a letter of appreciation early this week from Captain Maples, commanding officer at Newell.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Reiben, San Francisco will arrive about May 1 for a visit in the homes of the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reiben and Mrs. French Johnson. Dr. Reiben has been called to Salt Lake for officer's training and will report here for the duration.

Florence Dunlap and Frances Yost engineered a successful plant sale for the auxiliary of Tulelake Legion post Tuesday. Members of the auxiliary and Mr. and Mrs. Almo Newton of Winema gardens donated generously and the flowers and vegetables sold added a neat sum to the treasury.

Mrs. Frank Zlabek will serve the Tulelake branch of the Par-

Spring Lake

Among those who have moved their cattle to summer pasture are Ward Dolan, Everett Moun, Bob Hunt and Otto Balin. Summer pasture is reported to be very good.

The heavy rains have slowed up farming in this district. Most farmers are running their tractors day and night.

Laurence Gray bought a Caterpillar tractor last week. Laurence is farming the home place this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Casebeer and two sons, Lewis and Donald, and little daughter, Evelyn, called on Mrs. Helen Karger Sunday.

Mrs. A. C. Karger and two children, Jack and Janyce, went to Portland Sunday evening to join Mr. Karger who is working in the shipyards.

Mrs. June Albert sustained a painful injury Monday when she stepped onto a nail.

Kenneth Low is staying out of school this week with the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Coe of this district have sold their farm and bought a place in Ashland. They have lived here many years and friends regret their leaving but wish them the best of success in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Jackson motored to Portland last week, returning with a new automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway have returned to their home after being gone all winter. Mrs. Hathaway was doing war work in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Huffman and daughter, Oma, were Klamath Falls visitors Wednesday.

Milton Mays from Rogue River was visiting friends in Spring Lake Sunday.

Bill Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tomb, has been promoted to sergeant. Bill has been stationed at Fort Stevens for a long time. He was a student from Henley high school and enlisted in the army in 1941. His brother Bob, also a student from Henley school, has been over in North Africa for several months. His folks have not heard from him for some time.

Courthouse Records

Complaints Filed
Wilma E. Gemmer versus George Charles Gemmer. Suit for divorce, charge cruel and inhuman treatment. Couple married in Goodland, Kansas, October, 1932. Plaintiff asks custody and support of three minor children. J. C. O'Neill attorney for plaintiff.

Justice Court
Wilma Schonchin. Failure to procure operator's license. Fined $5.50.

Robert Eldon Rodgers. Failure to procure operator's license. Fined $7.

Edwin Merritt Kersey. Failure to procure operator's license. Fined $5.50.

ent and Teachers congress as president during the coming year. Her co-officers include Mrs. Leonard Meshke, vice president; Mrs. L. Olsen, secretary and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, treasurer. The new officers will be installed on May 7. The meeting in the evening will be a social affair complimenting the cast of the play given recently by the PTA and the director, Mrs. Ray Alken.

Always read the classified ads.

NOW ONLY HALF PRICE!
TUSSY
DEODORANT CREAM

REG. #1 SIZE

50¢

Limited Time

AMAZING half-price special. Keep sweet and dainty all spring and summer. Stops underarm perspiration odor and perspiration itself 1 to 3 days. Safe. Pure. Not at all sticky or greasy. Creamy, smooths on, disappears. No need to rinse off. Buy today... save 50¢ on every dollar jar!

CURRIN'S for DRUGS
Klamath's Cosmetic Center
9th and Main Phone 4514

The Fifteenth Anniversary of the Community Congregational Church

Sunday, May 2
9:30 A. M.—Moving Pictures by Rev. T. D. Preston.
11:00 A. M.—Dr. Perry F. Schrock, speaking.
8:00 P. M.—Evening Vespers, Rev. N. F. Cole.

Monday, May 3
2-4 P. M.—A Tea Honoring Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Preston.
6:30 P. M.—Potluck Dinner — Rev. T. D. Preston