

OSC Invasion Sees Victory Over Idaho

Beavers, Vandals Battle Again at Moscow; Oregon Men Move On Huskies

NORTHERN DIVISION

Oregon State's northern invasion rolled placidly along yesterday as the Beavers coasted to a 9 to 0 northern division Pacific Coast conference baseball victory over Idaho.

The teams play again today at Moscow, after which the Beavers move on to take on Washington Thursday at Seattle. The University of Oregon, barely out in front, opens its northern road trip tomorrow and Thursday against Washington State at Pullman.

The heavy-hitting Beavers clouted Pitcher Jack Newell for six runs in the opening two innings yesterday and experienced clear sailing from then on. Bob Churchill, third sacker, led the Beaver bombardment with three hits in three official times at bat. Charles Plastino relieved Newell for Idaho in the third and held OSC to four hits the rest of the way. Larson of the winners gave five hits.

BOWLING

"Hello Girls"—Who was that? Why none other than our old friend and critic "Junior," now of the armed forces. While home on a furlough he dropped in at the alleys Thursday night to see what the girls were doing in bowling.

The first thing he said was "I have missed being with you on Thursday nights, but glad I will be home long enough to see the City Tournament on May 6 and 7. I hope this war will be over so I can be with you all next season."

Junior, sitting in his usual place beside the headpin, was chased out of the pit by the consistent good bowling of Poppy for high series of the evening, scoring 205-177-190 to total 572, tying Flo Ann Eaton for fifth high series of the season.

Lucille Norling rolled 144-157-218 to total 519 for second and Mary Williams 176-168-164 to total 508 for third place. Lucille Norling bounced Junior around for high single game of 218. Isabel Milne 213 for second and Poppy 205 for third place.

Before Junior was chased completely out of the pit he saw Flo Ann Eaton pick the 2-7 split. Junior, a little shaky from seeing such good bowling, came out from behind the pit to say "Good night, Girls, see you at the tournament."

Jim Bivins Wins 10-Round Decision Over Valentino

Coast Guardsman Pat Valentino, San Francisco heavyweight favorite, lost a 10-round decision to dusky Jimmy Bivins, of Cleveland, after Valentino fought on the defensive most of the bout. Valentino, left, shown delivering a left to Bivins' jaw, went down for a nine count in the tenth but rallied to finish the round. They battled in San Francisco.

The 12-piece obstacle course has been finished at the high school and Joe Peak is putting his physical education classes through their paces. This is a good thing for the boys as it develops them physically, and prepares them for future military life.

The greatest thing that could and should happen to this city is the return of Junior American Legion baseball. Kids seventeen and under in the city are begging for its return, and only need the go-ahead signal from the Legion itself to begin play. The Legion meets Tuesday night and the baseball question will be discussed at that time.

Cardinal Pitcher Suffers Minor Arm Strain; Not Serious

CHICAGO, May 4 (AP)—Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals was elated with the news today that Mort Cooper, his ace pitcher, is suffering only from a minor arm strain and the club's physician did not consider the trouble serious.

"I thought possibly Mort might have had a recurrence of the trouble which necessitated an elbow operation in 1941," Southworth said. "It's still doubtful, however, as to his ability to immediately take his turn on the mound."

Coast Loop Opens Third Week's Play

Seattle, Portland Begin First Home Series When They Play California Men

The third week of the Pacific Coast league season finds the northern teams, Seattle and Portland opening first home series on Wednesday against the California entries from San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Sacramento will open play at Oakland today and the surprising San Diego Padres, clinging closely to the coat tails of the leading Angels, will attempt to improve their position on the home field of the Hollywood Stars.

The Seattle Rainiers went back north far down in the standings after five straight seasons in the upper crust. Manager Bill Skiff was reported undecided as to his pitching choice against the Seals. It lay, apparently, between Hal Turpin, veteran ace of the pitching staff, and Joe Demoran, the surprising newcomer who looked impressive in the south even though he lost his three games by narrow margins.

Portland will attempt to sustain itself in the first division against the powerful Angels and may also succeed in helping the second place Padres toward the top.

Stanford to Row Pacific Coast Race

SEATTLE, May 4 (AP)—For the first time in more than 20 years the annual Pacific coast rowing regatta this year probably will feature a three-boat varsity race.

Coach Al Ulbricksen announced yesterday that the University of Washington had approved Stanford's entry in the 1943 race.

He said that Stanford undoubtedly had obtained California's consent before directing its request to Washington. The regattas have been Washington-California affairs since 1919, Stanford's last year of competition.

This year's races will be held May 15 on the Oakland estuary. Washington is planning to send only varsity and freshmen crews south, dropping the usual junior varsity entry.

California's varsity and fresh crews defeated Stanford's crews Saturday in a dual regatta.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4 (AP) The bell cheated Billy McCoy, 159, San Francisco over Red Shannon, 161, Los Angeles last night.

Shannon was floored six times during the first five rounds. He stayed on his feet the last three. The Irish gamely took a terrific beating. Heavy body blows floored him for the count of 9 just as the bell sounded at the end of both the second and fourth rounds.

Player Shortages Make Baseball Men Versatile

Phillies, With Small Roster, Do Most Shifting; Infielders Play Outfield

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The most valuable player competition in the major leagues this year could very well be styled the most versatile player awards.

Wartime manpower shortages are causing managers to transplant their players from one position to another faster than most people can get the onion sets started in their Victory gardens.

The Phillies, with a pathetically small roster, are doing the most shifting of jobs, and doubling up at two or more positions. Last week they brought Jim Wadswell from Pittsburgh and made his regular first baseman, moving Babe Dahlgren from that spot to shortstop. They have Schoolboy Rowe pinch-hitting in almost every game in which he isn't pitching and they frequently have had three or four players swap positions during the course of a ball game.

But one of the prize swaps of the season was made yesterday by that indefatigable inventor, Frank Edison Frisch, who installed Catcher Al Lopez at third base for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Lopez has been one of the best backstops in the National league for many years, but his previous experience at the hot corner was limited to about five games in an emergency with the Dodgers a decade ago. A few fans still remember him stopping balls with his chest, a la Pepper Martin.

By putting Lopez on third Frisch was able to give a try at shortstop to Bob Elliott, who only year before last was an outfielder. The result of the newest experiment was that both Lopez and Elliott made an error yesterday and Cincinnati copped the major leagues' first morning game 7-5.

Having inaugurated morning games the Reds are now ready to lift the lid on night baseball for the season, too, with a floodlighted fray carded against the Pirates tomorrow night. Only one other game was

Survival of Sports Seen Despite War

Small Colleges Can Still Play Despite Difficulties If They "Stick Together"

By ROBERT MOORE
HAMPDEN - SYDNEY, Va., May 4 (AP)—Hampden-Sydney's Athletic Director, Frank Summers said today that football in the smaller colleges of America could survive the war by going back to the "old custom of doubling up—playing each rival two games in one season on the home-and-home basis."

The Dean of Virginia college coaches declared that football in the nation's "little schools" can continue "in spite of curbed transportation, limited material and other handicaps—if they stick together."

Summers said that the small colleges have "more or less always played for the fun and sport of it," and added that they have never been greatly dependent on gate receipts for financing their football programs.

"Teams next fall undoubtedly will be inferior in quality, but we can keep them going nevertheless," Summers asserted. "Continuation of football in colleges needs no justification. Statements from high-ranking service officials and the splendid service records of our athletes have justified it already."

"We will have football at Hampden-Sydney as long as the school continues to operate."

One of the first sure signs of summer is "keep off the grass."

How to attend your own 'Funeral'

...and like it!

Yes, sir... about a week after Pearl Harbor we had more people wringing our hand and consoling us than we ever dreamed we knew.

We were "dead." Out of business. The sheriff was on the way.

Well, it may seem strange to you, but we've done okay here. By just staying in the tire business. No porch furniture, or fly swatters, or garden tools. Just tires. Our first love and our last. The business we know. The business we built up originally by earning a reputation as tire experts.

Maybe that's why hundreds of new customers have come to us during the last 17 months, along with our old friends. For advice from a tire "doctor." To bring us their certificates for new Generals or to get their tires recapped by our skilled mechanics (right in our own shop).

Maybe that's why so many large truck fleet operators, too, have given us the whole responsibility for keeping them on rubber... so they can meet the terrific demands of wartime hauling.

And, maybe handling The General Tire had something to do with it. If there ever was a time when people want Top-Quality it is now.

We appreciate deeply your confidence. We hope to continue to merit it and we are looking forward to that great day when you can drive out of here on the Tire of The Future... The Top-Quality General to come!
