Because of rationing, not as many light shoes are being sold to women. Some other discomfort will be found to take their place, however.

BEEF KILLING QUOTAS OFF DURING MAY

CORVALLIS, May 4 (P) - The federal department of agriculture board for Oregon suspended all temporary beef slaughter quotas for May today in an attempt to obtain more meat for the armed forces.

Officials said consumer preference for beef under rationing had reduced the supply to a point where military demands could not be met under present quotas.

They said lifting of the quotas was ordered from Washington, D. C. It will permit Oregon slaughterers to kill as many beef animals as were butchered in the 1941 period ending May 10. Those without a 1941 base will be allowed to kill half the amount of the October, 1942-March, 1943, period.

Farm slaughterers were not affected, except for those with temporary quotas in excess of 10,000 pounds.

WHEAT CHICAGO, May 4 (P) - A strong undertone prevailed in wheat today despite a paucity of offerings. Some observers believed the strength was in sympathy with the stock market.

Rye trade was broader than wheat in volume, but prices in general reflected those of wheat. Corn was at ceilings and oats were somewhat weaker, especially in the May contract.

Wheat closed firm near the day's highest levels and unchanged to 1/4 cent higher than yesterday's finish, May 14.57, July 14.44 1/2, corn unchanged at ceilings, May 11.05, oats unchanged to 1/4 cent lower, and rye unchanged to 1/4 cent higher.
