

MERRILL SERVICE CLUB HAS LUNCHEON

MERRILL—The Merrill Service club which for many weeks has met at the library club room where luncheon has been served by a few members of the library club this week resumed luncheon meetings at the Palm cafe opened recently by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson.

Terry Edwards, former vice president of the club, assumed the responsibilities of president succeeding Uel Dillard whose resignation was accepted prior to his leaving for the Henley district. William Poe, manager of the Merrill Safeway store was appointed to fill Terry's unexpired term as vice president.

Paul Lewis was appointed to ask use of the city truck for clean-up day. The date will be announced later to hinge on the time that the truck will be available. Residents of Merrill are asked to have refuse ready so that the program may be carried out with a minimum loss of time. There will be no cartage charge as the Service club is responsible for financing the project.

George Thoma will check on the condition of the city park and playground equipment which may be in need of repair.

E. C. Robinson Buys Leo Wells' Farm

TULELAKE—E. C. Robinson, for many years employed by the J. T. Negley Implement company and later by the Floyd A. Boyd company, has purchased the Leo Wells' farm, one of the first homesteads in the Tulelake district, and with Mrs. Robinson is moving immediately to the new location. Mr. and Mrs. Wells have lived for some time at Hanford, Calif., and the place was cared for by Wells' brother, William F. Wells, who expects to leave this week for Chicago for a temporary stop. No consideration was given on the transaction.
