Earl of Athlone Sees Ship Building PORTLAND, Ore., May 7 (AP) — The Earl of Athlone, Canada's governor-general, and Princess Alice saw today how Henry J. Kaiser sets records for ship construction. The earl, particularly interested in American industrial methods, and his wife visited Kaiser's three yards in Portland and Vancouver, Wash., and participated in the launching of the tanker S. S. Fort Dearborn.
PANEL FAILS MEDIATION OF RAIL DISPUTE CHICAGO, May 7 (AP) — An emergency fact-finding panel announced today it had failed to settle the dispute between 900,000 railroad non-operating workers and the nation's principal railroads over union demands for higher wages. I. L. Sharfman of the University of Michigan, chairman of the panel of three members who have been hearing the case since March 1, said it had "made every reasonable effort" to settle the controversy. The panel now will retire in to executive session, the chairman said, and prepare its report for submission to President Roosevelt. Seven thousand pages of testimony have been taken at the hearing and Sharfman said he was unable to estimate when the report would be ready. In past disputes the parties have abided by the findings of the emergency fact-finding panel appointed by the president.
Prison Sentences Loom for Mankind United Members LOS ANGELES, May 7 (AP) — Possible sentences of 20 years in prison and $10,000 fine face each of 10 men and two women convicted of conspiracy to violate the wartime sedition act through activities of Mankind United. Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich ordered the 12, at liberty on bail, to appear for sentence Monday at 2:30 p. m. Four other reputed members of the group, described by government officials as a secret, semi-religious organization, were acquitted by a 12-man jury which rendered its verdicts last night after 14 hours' deliberation. Trial of the 18, all California residents, required five weeks.
Recess Request Made in Kaiser Labor Hearing PORTLAND, Ore., May 7 (AP) — Another recess request was before Robert N. Denham, national labor relations board trial examiner, at the Kaiser shipyard labor hearing today. Kaiser Attorney Harry Morton asked 60 days in which to assemble financial and membership records of 19 Portland-Vancouver AFL unions requested by NLRB attorneys. The hearing is into CIO charges that Kaiser's three yards in this area signed illegal closed shop agreements with the AFL.
Cascade The weather at Cascade Summit this spring has been cold and rainy with snowstorms interspersing. There are approximately four feet of snow back in the woods while in the open where the sun can shine the ground is bare. The road from Willamette highway to Cascade Summit was opened by a tractor hired by the Southern Pacific company. Among Cascade Summit residents who have been away recently are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lavoy and daughters who spent several days in Oakridge and Eugene. Mrs. Lavoy's mother lives in Oakridge. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ugstad spent the weekend at Portland visiting Mrs. Ugstad's parents. Mrs. Abraham Gallegos and daughter, Elaine, went to Eugene to shop Monday. Sergeant Russell Hills left for Portland after visiting his brother and sister-in-law here. Sergeant Benjamin E. Willis writes that he is now in New York. He expects to be sent into the combat zone shortly. He is an airplane mechanic. While here he was assistant signal maintenance man. Mr. and Mrs. Ugstad who have lived here for a year are thinking of moving to Grants Pass where Ugstad will work as water service man for the Southern Pacific company. Ike Gallegos is visiting his parents here.
