PROSPERITY REBEKAH LODGE MEETS

Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in IOOF hall on Thursday, May the sixth. Blanche Baker, noble grand, called the meeting to order at half past eight o'clock, with all officers present. A Mother's Day program followed, Mrs. Alice Goeller, a charter member, being chosen as official Rebekah mother. She was presented with a plant by Jeanne Williamson in behalf of the entertainment committee. A reading by Lucille Helfer, a solo by Alyce Wells accompanied by Anita Gwyn, a saxophone number by Darlene McDaniels and Jerry Einarsson, accompanied by Anita Gwyn, a solo by Jewell Cantrall, accompanied by Vera Howard, and a piano solo by Yvette Sweet completed this part of the program.

Under the good of the order a play, "Rebekah Friendship Road" was given by the officers and sponsored by the social club, during which a vocal solo was given by Mrs. Sullivan accompanied by Alma Cofer. Alice Gowland in the role of a stranger seeking friendship gave a flower to all present, and refreshments were served by Stella Dryden, Cora Kennedy, Effie Garcelon, and Louise Humphrey. The next meeting will be May the twentieth.

Mrs. Kate Hall was hostess to the Jolly Neighbors club on Wednesday afternoon, May the fifth, at 3244 Boardman street, with Mrs. Gertrude Weiss and Mrs. Florence Winters the assisting hostesses. Games were played following the business meeting and members held an exchange of plants and slips. Those attending were Mrs. B. H. Hull, Mrs. Lee Kennedy, Mrs. Emma O'Neill, Mrs. R. J. Hall, Mrs. Jessie Kaylor, Mrs. M. D. Peterson, Mrs. J. J. Winters, Mrs. R. G. Weiss, Mrs. J. Abner and Mrs. H. O. Lohr, and two guests, Mrs. A. R. Millard and Mrs. Pete Newman. Mrs. Syd Evans will entertain the club at its next meeting, and will be assisted by Mrs. Emma O'Neill.

Mrs. Glenn Kent entertained the Sew and Study club on Wednesday afternoon, May the fifth, at her home on Pacific Terrace. There was no study period at this meeting and the members spent the afternoon in sewing, knitting and chatting. Mrs. E. C. Sluckey gave a resume of her recent trip and of her visit to New Orleans, and several letters were read from absent members. The hostess served refreshments to Phyllis Hogan, Mrs. Arthur Skinner, Mrs. Victor Anderson, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. L. N. Haines and Mrs. George Casper.

Mrs. G. W. Gierist was hostess to the Thimble club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft on Wednesday evening.

Our Home Town

Mother's Day

By EARL WHITLOCK

I suppose the originator of Mother's Day had in mind the worthy thought of doing reverence to the quiet, old-fashioned, embroidery-making mother of yesterday—a sort of Whistler's Mother personage, living an aloof and protected life.

But Mother, right now, is not at all that type. Mother is at war! She is taking good care of husband and family. And, in addition, she is up to her small ears in important war work of a dozen kinds. She has meetings to attend. She has a Red Cross job to do. Maybe she is hard at it in a factory, helping to make the weapons with which our fighting men will destroy America's enemies.

Her hands are not as soft and smooth as they were a couple of years ago. But her eyes are brighter, her chin is set more firmly and her energy is seemingly endless.

The American mother, on this, her day, of 1943, is, if such a thing were possible, more than ever worthy of our deepest love and our most enthusiastic admiration.

Next week Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral home will comment on "Civilian Defense Workers."

May the fifth, at eight o'clock, Ida Mochattex being co-hostess. Two tables of pinocle and one of whist were in play during the evening, with high score in pinocle going to Frances Gilchrist and low to Willian Floetke; at whist, Mrs. Bock was high and Richard Gilchrist low.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dewing moved this week to their new home on Upham street.

BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED AT TULELAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brown of Tulelake entertained with a birthday party in honor of the anniversaries of their son, Arthur, and grandson, Laddie Tofell, on Sunday, May the second. A cake decorated with yellow roses, centered the table.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Brown and Betty Benight, Mr. and Mrs. John Tofell and sons, Bobbie, Eddie and Laddie, and Arthur, Paul, Ellis, Shirley, Norma and Jimmy Brown and the hosts.

A Fellowship meeting of the young married group of the Zion Lutheran church was held on Sunday evening, May the second, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eberlein, 2959

Summers Lane. An interesting feature of the entertainment was a "True or False" quiz program conducted by Rev. Schulze on the Bible. Later in the evening dessert was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Walter Zetzman.

Mr. George Gillard, resident of Klamath Falls while he was stationed here with the Great Northern, is spending a short time in the city from his home at Whitefish, Montana, visiting with numerous friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hart Jones are spending this weekend in Eugene with Mr. Jones' parents.

The auxiliary and chevaliers of Canton Crater are invited to meet for a potluck dinner at half past six o'clock Thursday evening at the IOOF hall, preceding the regular monthly meeting of the Canton.

Officers of Riverside PTA will be installed Tuesday afternoon of this coming week.

The Degree of Honor will meet Monday evening at eight o'clock in the KC hall with Cressa Grubb, Edna Long, Elsie Cox and Leota Dodson as hostesses. Mothers of men in service will be honored on this occasion.

Visiting Here—Corp. Jack I. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Robinson of 423 Upham street, has arrived for a week's visit with family and friends. He is stationed at Camp Campbell, Ky., and has recently been graduated from the 12th armored division radio school as a qualified army radio operator after an intensive 16 weeks' course.

LOST -- A Flying Fortress! MISSING -- A Klamath Boy!

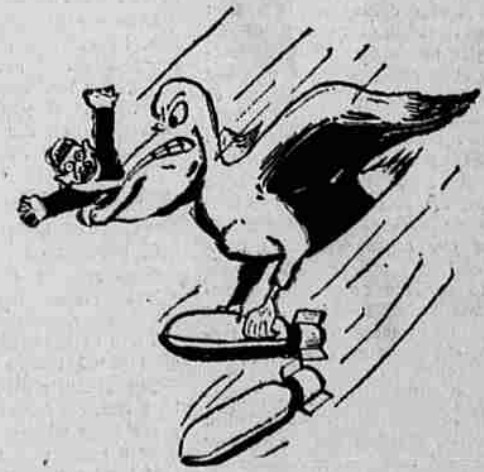

This is the picture that appeared on the front page of the Herald and News on February 1, showing some of the crew with their Flying Fortress the "Jerry Jinx" just before taking off on a bombing raid. Four days later we learned that the bomber had been missing since January 23. Capt. Ehle Reber of Malin, the pilot, is at the left of the picture. With him are Lieutenants J. J. Byron and Durant, Okla.; R. J. Swindle of Walnut Ridge, Ark.; and A. D. Mitchell of Rogers, Neb.

The "Jerry Jinx" has been missing since a bombing raid on January 23, with all of its crew . . . including the pilot, Capt. Ehle Reber, son of County Commissioner and Mrs. John Reber of Malin.

With all our hearts we hope news will come soon that these fine young men are safe as prisoners of war . . . or, better still, that the long silence concerning them means they are making their way, secretly and slowly, out of enemy territory.

But the Fortress "Jerry Jinx" will never fly again. And we Americans at home must provide more and more bombers until victory is ours.
