MRS. JOE M. KENNEDY of Weyerhaeuser was among the mothers who witnessed the graduation ceremonies at Mather Field, Sacramento, California, where her son, now Lieutenant Joe W. Kennedy, received his silver wings in the service of the United States army air corps. Joe is now receiving special training at the Central Instruction school at Randolph Field, Texas, but has orders to return to the west coast as an instructor.

MRS. D. V. KUYKENDALL, of 646 California avenue, is the mother of two sons in the service of the United States army. Major John Kuykendall, former Eugene physician, is with the US army medical corps, somewhere in the South Pacific. Vernon Kuykendall, a former Klamath Union high school instructor, and youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall, is stationed near San Francisco with the United States navy with a rating of radio technician, second class.

TWIN SONS OF MRS. GEORGE C. ULRICH of 636 Conger avenue, are miles from home this Mother's Day Sunday. Lieutenant John Armond Ulrich is with the United States army engineers at one of Uncle Sam's important bases in the South Pacific. Ensign Rowland L. Ulrich is now stationed at the Naval Communications school at Casco Bay, Maine.

OVERSEAS ARE THE TWO SONS of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers of 851 Pacific Terrace. Interesting letters come from the boys. Lieutenant James E. Rogers of the United States Marine corps, is stationed in the South Pacific with the fighting Leathernecks. Corporal Donald L. Rogers is somewhere in England with a bomber squadron of the United States army air corps. Both have been in foreign service for quite some time.

PICTURED WITH HER SON, Lieutenant Robert Veatch of the United States army air corps, is Mrs. Elbert S. Veatch of 1956 Earle street. "Bob" received his wings at Lubbock Field, Texas, on April the twenty-second and his parents were present for the thrilling ceremony. "Bob" returned here for a brief stay and left Saturday morning for Del Valle, near Austin, Texas, where he will receive additional training.
