

REV. PHILLIPS TALKS BEFORE MALIN GRADS

MALIN — Eulogizing man's God given mind, Rev. Victor Phillips, pastor of the Methodist church, Klamath Falls, delivered an instructive address to members of the graduating class of the Malin high school Thursday evening, May 6.

Preceding the address A. V. Street, principal of the high school, presented scholastic and other awards to the graduates. Honor awards for the highest scholastic standing during the school year just terminated went to Della Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, who was class valedictorian, and to Lee Petrasek, son of Anton Petrasek. This is the second year that this high commendation has been won by these two students.

Barbara Nyhart took honors for being the most valuable girl athlete for the entire four years of high school. Jimmy Ottoman's name was engraved on the Victory plaque in recognition of his value over a period of four years as an athlete. This honor goes only to senior boys.

Helen Smith's record for excellent work on the school annual and paper, as an officer of school organizations and other extra curricular activities, won honors. Jimmy Ottoman was announced as the best school citizen.

Norman Jacobs, president of the senior class, presented the class gift, 10 large damask table cloths and a $50 war bond. The acceptance speech was made by Vincent Kruml, president of the student body.

The school service flag with 61 stars was honored. Of this number 41 are graduates of the high school and two, Doris McCord and Pauline Suty are girls. Miss Suty is now in Africa. Names of the boys and girls in service were read by Jimmy Ottoman.

Fred Peterson, Klamath county school superintendent, presented the diplomas.

The graduates and students of other classes and many of those present for the commencement program adjourned to the high school gymnasium following the exercises for a farewell dance for the seniors.

CATTLE SENT TO CHILOQUIN FOR PASTURE

FORT KLAMATH — Shipments of cattle came by rail from various points, consigned to Chilouquin for pasturing during the season at Wood river and Klamath marsh ranches. R. S. Dixon received 22 carloads on May 3, from Red Bluff, Calif., and in addition had already received a consignment of cattle in April which were put on pasture on the upper marsh. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon returned here May 2, from a trip to California.

Frank Denton is again pasturing several hundred head of cattle belonging to Buck Williams, owner of the Bar Y ranch on the Klamath marsh. The cattle arrived here the latter part of last week.

Loren Miller, stockman of Rogue River valley and Fort Klamath, is bringing in his cattle for pasture on his local ranches for the season. Some of his cattle will also be placed on the Jerry Sismore ranch. Sismore is assisting in the work of bringing in the cattle.

Local pasture conditions are ideal this season, the heavy spring rains promoting growth of the natural grass in the meadows.

The annual spring influx of cattle is continuing as other cattlemen are daily bringing in stock from different points where they have been fed and pastured during the winter months.

Lakeview Man Killed in Air Battle Over China

LAKEVIEW — Col. Donald Lyons, 36, nephew of Dr. J. L. Lyons of Lakeview and a visitor here on several occasions, was killed last Thursday while flying with Major General Claire L. Chennault's new 14th air force in China. Col. Lyons was Maj. Chennault's operations chief and was not supposed to be in air action. However, the shortage of men drew Col. Lyons into the scrap when American fighters intercepted a flight of 25 enemy aircraft near an advance air base in Hunan province.

Five days before he was killed, Col. Lyons said regarding an aerial battle: "The Japs sent out a fighter formation, apparently looking for a scrap. They were intercepted at 17,000 feet and it turned into a series of dogfights." The same squadron involved in action April 1 shot down seven of nine Japanese planes attempting to raid an allies airdrome. Col. Lyons survived these dogfights, only to be brought down Thursday in a fierce battle. He was flying an American P-40.

Lyons was one of the Americans who President Roosevelt sent on the good-will tour to Argentina not so long ago. His home was in Hollywood. He is a graduate of University of California, and is survived by his wife and two children.

Lakeview

Jim Howard, Lakeview's champion distance runner, walked off with first place in the half-mile in the district track meet at Medford Friday afternoon. Running under heavy track conditions, he took an early lead and although pressed closely by McKnight of Medford, went on to win the race.

Thomas H. King, Lake county public welfare administrator for the past year, will leave soon for Hood River, where he has accepted the position of administrator.

First case of Rocky mountain spotted fever reported in Lake county this year, was that of Pat McCarthy, who was admitted to Lakeview public hospital Sunday.

The quota set for Lake county for the purchase of Series E war bonds during the month of May is $52,250.

The Lakeview city council, at its meeting Monday evening passed ordinance No. 324, which sets the hours of between 10 o'clock p. m. and 4 o'clock a. m., as being unlawful for minors under the age of 17 years to be allowed on the streets of Lakeview, unless such minor is in the custody or accompanied by a parent or guardian or a suitable adult person selected by such parent or guardian.

Lake county Pomona grange will meet with the Fort Rock grange on Saturday, May 15, at 11 a. m. Potluck dinner will be served at noon, and all members who can attend are asked to be present. All resolutions from the subordinate granges are to be presented at this meeting for consideration before the state convention in June, according to F. S. Fisher, secretary of the Lake county Pomona grange.

Frank Wire, supervisor of the Oregon state game and fish commission, spent Saturday in the Summer Lake vicinity securing options on lakeshore property to be used in the game preserve which will be developed after the war.

The second war loan drive for Lake county reached a very successful climax last Saturday. It was announced by C. F. Snider and R. E. Harlan, co-chairmen of the Lake county war finance committee, exceeding the allotted quota for resident individuals and firms by $146,007.41 or 64 per cent plus, and over all quota including bank and non-resident investors, was exceeded by $96,609.88 or 14 per cent plus.

E. P. Cliff was named president of the Rotary club for the coming year, at a meeting of the board of directors last night. He succeeds Dave DeArmond, who has held the post the past year. Also elected were Stuart Dempsey, first vice president; Lou Ohlson, second vice president; E. G. Favell, treasurer, and Rev. J. M. B. Gill, secretary.

Fort Klamath

DID YOU EVER SEE A PELICAN LAYING EGGS ON A MONKEY?

No--you never did, but you CAN! Here's how... $350,000 in War Bonds will buy one of those big, hard-hitting Flying Fortresses. If we here in Klamath County can reach that $350,000 goal this month, a Flying Fortress will be christened "The KLAMATH PELICAN" and will carry that name proudly into battle in the skies.

$350,000 is a lot of money, but a Flying Fortress is a lot of airplane, too, and we folks here in Klamath County can raise the money, buy the plane, and probably fly it if necessary!

Let's Get That "KLAMATH PELICAN" in the Air Right Now!
