POLICE HOLD TWO AFTER WILD CHASE

THE DALLES, May 10 (AP)—State police held in jail today two men who emerged unscathed from a wild chase in which three shots were fired, their automobile struck two others and later overturned.

State Police Officer D. Casciato said he sighted a care reported stolen from Hood River. He started after it, but it sped through the business section at 60 miles an hour, striking and glancing off two other machines. The vehicle overturned on a curve and City Policeman Barney McCafferty said he fired three shots at one man who ran from the car. He surrendered and was booked as Earl W. Beck, 26. His companion was booked as Jack Does, 24. Casciato said they were Portland shipyard workers attempting to return to their former home in Georgia.
