NEW YORK, May 10 (A)— Utilities in the low-priced class boiled over in today's stock market, many advancing frac-tions to 3-year peaks on blocks of 1000 to 20,000 shares, while pivotal rails and industrials gen-erally held to a parrow trail.

erally held to a narrow trail. The pace was speedy at the start, first-hour volume aggregating 803,000 shares, a top for period since May, 1940. T were subsequent slow-downs and best quotations were reduced by profit cashing in numerous cases near the close.

Posting new highs for 1943 or longer were Commonwealth and Southern, Electric Power Light, United Corp., American and Foreign Power, American Power and Light, Paramount Pictures, International phone, Pacific Tin, South Porto Rico Sugar, Fajardo Sugar, Standard Oil (N. J.), General Motors and J. I. Case. Spotted were U. S. Steel, Santa Fe, Western Union, Westinghouse, Montgomery Ward and Youngstown Sheet.
