Precinct leader, Mrs. William Beck, of precinct No. 1 reported that her area was completed in the "V Sticker" campaign, and that 86 homes had qualified and requested stickers.
In precinct 19, Mrs. Burt Hawkins entertained 15 block leaders at her home Friday, May 7, to complete plans for the campaign and they expect to finish their work this week.

Block Leaders! Please display "V Stickers" in your own homes and urge all homes to do so. It will be a help to air raid wardens to know just which homes they can depend upon to be fully equipped.

All block leaders! Please turn in reports to your precinct leaders of the work accomplished as early as possible this week, so that a detailed report may be possible to the council chairman, Mrs. Puckett on next Friday. If unable to contact your precinct or area leader, you may turn in your report direct to the Civilian Defense office at the chamber of commerce, phone 5193.

This week is Tin Can Salvage week, so call any of the schools and the students will call for your box of tin cans. Wash, cut out both ends and flatten the cans before sending them in.

C Mileage Books Now Renewable

Users of C Mileage rationing books were reminded today by the local War Price and Rationing board that their books will be void on June 1, 1948. To avoid last minute confusion, especially by those owners of C books who use their cars daily, the local board is now taking renewal applications.

It is extremely important to accompany these renewals with the tire inspection forms, containing the second inspection.

Applications Now Accepted for Sugar

Applications for canning sugar will now be acceptable by the local War Price and Rationing board. This year the maximum allotment is 25 lbs. per person, which may include five lbs. per person for jams, jellies and preserves. In other words, if only ten or fifteen pounds of sugar were needed per person for canning, but the person making application wished to make preserves, jams, or jellies, an additional five pounds would be allowed. In no case, however, can any one person's allotment exceed twenty-five pounds.
