Mrs. Oakes Named Library President

Non-competitive Flower Show and Tea Completes Library Club Program Monday

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library club elected Mrs. Roland Oakes as president for the coming year in the final meeting held Monday afternoon at two o'clock in the main library auditorium which also saw a non-competitive exhibit of spring flowers arranged by Garden club members.

Mrs. A. G. Proctor turned over the gavel to Mrs. Oakes after administering the charges of office to the other newly named executives. Serving with Mrs. Oakes will be Mrs. Glenn Kent as first vice president; Mrs. Mathew Rauw as secretary, and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Sr., as treasurer. Mrs. Proctor will remain on the board as the second vice president.

Reports were heard from the following committee chairmen and officers, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, defense; Mrs. Ralph Porter, scrap book; Mrs. Glenn Kent, first vice president; Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, second vice president; Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, treasurer; Mrs. Roland Oakes, secretary; Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, decorations; Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, retiring president of the Garden club; Mrs. Neal Stewart, publicity. Mrs. Proctor read the report presented by Mrs. John H. Houston, hospitality chairman, who is in the east. She also read the report of the program chairmen, Mrs. E. D. Lamb and Mrs. G. C. Blohn.

Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke gave the nominating committee report.

Following the business session there was a silver tea, with proceeds going into the Commando fund. The table was beautifully centered with an arrangement of red tulips, blue grape hyacinths and white lilacs made by Mrs. G. A. Krause. Pouring were Mrs. Oakes and Mrs. Horace E. Getz, newly named Garden club head.

Tea committee members were Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, Mrs. Alfred D. Collier, Mrs. Warren C. Hunt, Mrs. George Cornell, and Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn.

Hospitality members for the day were Mrs. L. F. Tyrrell and Mrs. Leo N. Huls.

About the large room were some forty lovely arrangements and specimen exhibits brought by Garden club members in the non-competitive display. Due to war time conditions the annual spring flower show was cancelled and the informal show given.

Lovely purple and white lilacs, tulips of all shades, many daffodils and some early iris, made up the principal exhibits entered by the following, Mrs. Harold Hilton, Mrs. E. R. Stebbins, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, DiGiorgio Fruit corporation, Mr. E. Graham of Shippington, Mrs. Horace E. Getz, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, Mrs. Ralph Porter, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. Erbs and Mrs. J. Fred Flock.

Library club members do not meet in the summer, and if the usual custom is observed, the organization will gather for a flower show and luncheon in the fall, probably early September. At that time Mrs. Oakes will name her standing committee heads.

Friendship court, Order of the Amaranth, will meet in regular session Wednesday evening, May nineteenth, at the Masonic hall.

Club Plans Garden Visits

Iris and Lilies To Be Enjoyed When Weather Permits

Garden club members of Klamath Falls are looking forward to garden tours during the month of June and although no dates have been set, the visits will depend much on the sun and weather.

One visit will be to the iris gardens which will be quite late this year but none the less lovely. The club members have also been asked to visit Mrs. Hugh O'Connor's garden when the day lilies are in blossom. This garden is one of the nicest and most interesting in the valley, especially when the water lilies bloom in the O'Connor pool.

New officers of the Garden club are as follows, Mrs. Horace E. Getz, president; Mrs. Will Wood, program chairman; Mrs. Paul Edwards, assisting program chairman; Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, secretary and treasurer.

The May meeting was that held when the club exhibited arrangements at the Monday session of the Library club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford and Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg spent several days of the past week in Marshfield.

Mrs. B. E. Hayden, who has been absent from the city for quite some time, was greeted by her friends. Guests of the day were Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver and Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr.

Paper sack lunch was served at one o'clock at a table where the flowers were definitely not rationed. Lovely lilacs, tulips and iris were used throughout the large room. Several tables of bridges were in play during the afternoon.

Hostesses for next week will be Mrs. Ted E. Shoop and Mrs. Matt Finnigan.

Golfers Out Friday

Victory Tournament to End at Reames Next Friday

Women golfers played the second eighteen holes in the Victory tournament at Reames Golf and Country club Friday morning, and the third round will be played off next Friday morning, it was announced. Those unable to play this week have up to and including Wednesday to turn in their scores.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. G. A. Krause and Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell received the guest award for the afternoon.

Mrs. B. E. Hayden, who has been absent from the city for quite some time, was greeted by her friends. Guests of the day were Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver and Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr.

Hostesses for next week will be Mrs. Ted E. Shoop and Mrs. Matt Finnigan.

DINNER HOSTS AT PELICAN

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds entertained Wednesday evening, May the fifth, for members of the chamber of commerce staff and the girls from the high school who have assisted there during the year, with dinner at the Pelican followed by a theater party.

Those present were Mrs. Earl Wilson, Miss Barbara Johnson, Miss Judith Brown of the chamber of commerce staff, Miss Ruth Dunning, office secretary at Klamath Union high school, Miss Fern Glubrecht, Miss Esther Book, Miss Shirley Chase, Miss Verla Eckstrom, Miss Jean Ward and Miss Janice Garner.

Miss Barbara Johnson, who has been employed at the chamber of commerce for the past four months, is leaving soon for an indefinite stay in the east.

PARTY FOR YOUNGER SET ON SATURDAY

A group of friends, fourteen couples in all, will be entertained this evening by Alice Mead when they gather at the Lawrence Bertram home on Portland street for games, dancing and a supper around the outdoor fireplace.

Hosts will be Alice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mead.

Senior Girls' Tea Given Saturday

Annual Affair Arranged From Two to Five o'Clock by University Women

Old fashioned nosegays centered the lovely tea table at the Nelson Reed home this afternoon when the annual party was given by Klamath county chapter of the American Association of University Women for the senior girls of Klamath Union high school. Hours were from two to five o'clock and invitations were issued to one hundred and three seniors.

Pouring during the first hour were Mrs. Frank Jenkins and Mrs. John McFee, during the second hour, Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns and Mrs. Dean Miller, and presiding the last hour were Mrs. Louis R. Mann and Miss Ruth Pinkston.

Receiving at the door were Mrs. Reed, Miss Pinkston, the newly named president of AAUW, and Miss Virginia West, senior girls' advisor.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Willard Duncan, Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Mrs. Walter Kauder, Mrs. Howard Barnhiser, Mrs. Everett Dennis, Mrs. B. B. Blomquist, Mrs. Robert Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore, Miss Eva Burkhalter, Miss Orpha Hudson and several women members of the high school faculty.

During the tea hours Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt presented a group of three girls in vocal numbers.

TO MRS. JAMES WISSENBACK of Shady Pine, last Sunday was probably the most important Mother's Day of all. Home with his family was Tech. Sgt. Erwin Wissenback, decorated with medals, and holding the distinction of being the first non-commissioned officer to escape Occupied Europe. Turret gunner on a Flying Fortress, young Wissenback parachuted to safety over enemy territory in a story which will rival all stories when the war is over and he can give the true picture of those months in the German-controlled land. —Kennell-Ellis.

Stars in School Play

Lois Phillips Takes Lead at Willamette University

"Arsenic and Old Lace," which has made stage history because of its incongruous plot, was welcomed by Salem playgoers this past week and the part of one of the old maids was taken by Miss Lois Phillips, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips of this city.

Miss Phillips is a student at Willamette university and is very active in campus affairs. The Oregon Statesman says:

"Making it look convincing is the difficult part, (referring to murder by the old maids), 'The Willamette university players, presenting 'Arsenic and Old Lace,' as the crowning event of the university's May weekend Saturday night in the Salem high school auditorium, made it look convincing, and credit for their success belongs to Lois Phillips and Edna Mae Hopper as the little old ladies who poisoned lonely, elderly men because they looked so peaceful and contented when dead. Miss Phillips, who in other Willamette productions has played 'straight' lead roles, proved her versatility by bringing to this character role just the right combination of intensity and sweet benignity and gave the best performance of her career."

DEMOLAYS TO SPONSOR SPRING FORMAL

DeMolays of Klamath Falls are to be hosts at their annual spring formal on Friday evening, May the twenty-first, at nine o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

Music during the evening will be furnished by the Evans' orchestra. Those in charge of the dance are Jim Shaw, Arnold Selby, and Don Robin.

Patrons and patronesses will be the parents of the counselors in the DeMolay organization and members of the advisory council and their wives. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

STUDENTS HONORED AT SPRING FORMAL

Sons and daughters of the Elks and their friends were guests of the lodge at a spring formal held in the Elks temple from nine until one o'clock on Friday evening, May the fourteenth.

The dance was held in the lodge room and refreshments were served later downstairs.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reeves.

Student chairman for the dance was Dick Hicks.

Mrs. John Shaw and two young daughters, Betty and Suzanne, are spending this week at Tionesta with Mr. Shaw during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw at whose home they are staying.

Mrs. Allen Sloan has tentatively set the date for her spring recital of piano studies as Thursday evening, May the twenty-seventh, at eight o'clock.

Miss Peterson Is Bride of May 8th

Klamath Maid Weds William R. Sweetman at Groom's Home in New York State

Of interest to Klamath folks is announcement of the marriage of Mary Maxine Peterson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson of Summers lane, and William R. Sweetman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ray Sweetman of Briarcliffe Manor, New York, which took place at the Sweetman home Saturday morning, May the eighth, at eleven o'clock.

The bride chose a simple suit for her wedding costume. The couple was unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweetman are now at home in New Haven, Connecticut, where the groom is completing his studies as a medical student at Yale university. He will receive his degree in December and expects to be called for active service in the armed forces immediately after graduation.

Mrs. Sweetman, member of one of Klamath county's best known families, was graduated from Whitman college where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was an honor student on the campus. Shortly after completing her studies she decided to enter the Yale university School of Nursing from where she was graduated on May the seventh, just one day before her wedding. She plans to continue on at the university as visiting nurse, according to word received by Mr. and Mrs. Peterson.

June Week Plans Made

Barbara Johnson To Attend Festivities at Naval Academy

Barbara Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, will leave this coming week for Annapolis where she will be the guest of Mrs. H. A. Mason and daughter, Molly Jean, of Portland who have been on the east coast since January.

Miss Johnson will enjoy all the festivities and thrills of June Week at the United States Naval academy at Annapolis where she will be escorted by her fiance, Stuart Nelson of Salem.

Also going to Annapolis for June Week is Florence Duffy of Salem who will be the guest of Mrs. Mason and her son, Mack, a member of the naval academy graduating class.

Mrs. Johnson will accompany her daughter to San Francisco. Barbara expects to return here the latter part of June.

BOARD MEMBERS TEA GUESTS

Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook asked the retiring and incoming members of the Garden club board to her home on Pacific Terrace Wednesday afternoon for tea.

Guests included Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Horace E. Getz, Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, Mrs. Roland Oakes, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. G. A. Krause and Mrs. Will Wood.
