

Circles Plan Work

First Methodist Church Groups Gather on Thursday Afternoon

Circle 1 of the First Methodist church met with Mrs. G. W. Gilchrist, 315 Grant street, on Thursday afternoon. Dessert was served at half past one o'clock, followed by the devotional service, led by Mrs. C. H. Barnstable; the study hour, conducted by Mrs. Cervinka, which dealt with the subject "South America" and the business meeting. The circle decided that on the first and third Thursdays of each month members would go to the Red Cross rooms from one to four o'clock to work on surgical dressings. There were ten members present, and two guests, Mrs. Arthur Skinner and Mrs. Lloyd Gilchrist, and Mrs. E. A. Jaquette joined the circle at this time.

Circle 2 of the church also met Thursday with Mrs. L. N. Haines, 1114 Crescent avenue, the assisting hostess being Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz. Dessert was served to fifteen. Rev. Victor Phillips led the devotional service and Mrs. Phillips the study hour, the subject being, "Outlook in the Western Republics." A visiting committee was appointed, the chairman, Mrs. D. A. Kenyon, by the circle chairman, Mrs. Peter Rozendal.

Mrs. V. J. Josephson was hostess to Methodist circle 3 on Thursday, at her home at 1948 Earle street. Dessert was served at half past one o'clock and the chairman, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, opened the meeting. Mrs. Paul Edwards, study chairman, conducted the devotional period. She spoke briefly upon "Christian Motherhood" and then led the lesson upon Central America.

The business meeting followed, with an excellent report being given of the year's finances. Plans were completed for the Red Cross afghan which the circle plans to make, under the direction of Mrs. John Yadan and Mrs. Bruce Binkley.

Ten members were present, Mrs. Lester Pennington, Mrs. G. A. Thomas, Mrs. Stella Bidford, Mrs. James McClelland, Mrs. Bruce Binkley, Mrs. Rhena Howry, Mrs. Edna Kent, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. Paul Edwards, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote and Mrs. Josephson; and six guests, Mrs. L. M. Willoughby, Mrs. F. C. Parker, Mrs. W. O. McNeer, Mrs. Ethel Hamblet, Mrs. Paul A. Lee and Mrs. S. R. Berry. Mrs. Willoughby became a member at this meeting.

Circle 4 met at the home of Mrs. C. G. Andrus, 2300 Union avenue, on Thursday. Dessert was served at one o'clock to four members and one guest, Mrs. Bayless from Arkansas who is visiting here for the summer. Mrs. A. L. Barker, chairman of the circle, was present to conduct the business meeting, having come from her new home in Mount Hebron for the day, and she also led the devotional services. Members spent the afternoon working on the tea towels which are to be placed on sale when completed. This group will serve tea at the next general meeting, May the twenty-seventh.

MISS DENNY HAS BIRTHDAY MAY NINTH

Donna Jean Denny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Denny, 2319 Orchard avenue, celebrated her sixth birthday on Mother's Day, May the ninth, with a party at her home. The table was centered with the cake with its six candles, and the favors and placecards were suited to a May birthday.

Refreshments were served to Barbara Lee Stivers, Jerry Ongman, Margie Stanley, Martha Stanley, Diane Anderson, Donna Larson, Sharon Larson, Sharon Zumwalt, Donna Frances Zumwalt, Gilbert Baker and Judith Ann Denny and the little girl with the birthday, Donna Jean Denny. NEWS OF THE THEATRES

Jean Arthur, Charles Coburn and Joel McCrea in a scene from Columbia's new comedy hit of 1943, "The More the Merrier," opening tonight Midnight at the Pelican.

Charles Laughton and Maureen O'Hara are starred in RKO Radio's important new picture, "This Land is Mine," and with them they bring a young actor bearing a distinguished name. He is John Donal, son of Robert Donat, and appropriately enough he makes his debut in a fighting picture. "This Land is Mine" is a hard-hitting story of Occupied Europe today, revealing the passionate drama going on behind the Nazi invasion and terrorism. The feature is the current Esquire attraction.

Warren William is on the spot in his latest Lone Wolf adventure, "One Dangerous Night," with Eric Blor and Marguerite Chapman which heads the program at the Rainbow Sunday. The companion feature, "My Son the Hero," features Patsy Kelly and Roscoe Karns.

Hedy Lamarr and Richard Carlson in a romantic scene from M-G-M's "White Cargo," which opens tomorrow at the Tower Theatre. Walter Pidgeon and Frank Morgan are the other two big stars. Johnny Mack Brown in "Tentin' Tonight on the Old Camp Ground" is the companion attraction.

Beauty IS YOUR DUTY

By RITA WHISENANT

DID you read "A Girl's Best Friend Is Her Hat" in Vogue a while back? I may be prejudiced, of course, but I think a girl's best friend is her lipstick . . . and naturally, powder, rouge and cosmetics in general.

Here at Everybody's not a day passes without my seeing actual proof of it . . . whether it is the woman who discovers that the right shade of DuBarry Face Powder chops off a good five years from her appearance . . . or the very young lady with the difficult skin who stops by with shining eyes to tell me that DuBarry Special Cleansing Preparation is already working wonders for her complexion.

AFTER all, there isn't a hat MADE that will compensate for an unappealing face under it . . . a muddy complexion . . . the wrong coloring . . . a badly applied make-up. But YOU know what I mean—you've probably seen it often enough.

IF YOU'RE not satisfied with the face that you present to the world, I'll be glad to talk to you personally. We all have our individual make-up problems you know.

LOWER GRADES HAVE SCHOOL TEA

SPRAGUE RIVER—A tea given by the three lower grades of the Sprague River school was an event of Friday afternoon in the school gym. Tea hours were from one until three o'clock.

Mothers of the first, second and third grade pupils were invited. A program arranged from work covered by these grades was presented at half past one o'clock. The students were presented in song, folk dances and recitations. One number, presented by the first grade, "The Steam Engine," was accompanied on the stage by an engine constructed of orange crates. Its engineer was Maxon Hansen.

The tea table was centered with a bowl of white and pink snapdragons, carnations and fern. In crystal candle holders were four tall pink candles.

A lovely silver tea service was used. Pouring were Mrs. Ivan Pankey and Mrs. Steven. The following mothers were present: Mesdames Leek, Johnson, Shepherd, Goddard, Welch, Passolt, Rogers, Bell, Hill, Tuning, Wiley, Green, Looper, Reams, Giles, Reynolds, Dewey Thurman, Bryan Thurman, Green Roper, McNair, Lake, Montgomery, Winona Barney, Laura Barney, Haddock, Lauvre, Jackson, Miss Lorraine Wilson, Mrs. Ben Woolford and a friend were special guests.

Families and friends of the Friendly Circle met in the social hall on Garden avenue Thursday evening, May the thirteenth, for a potluck supper and a social evening, about twenty-five attending. Two of the members had birthdays in May, Maggie Upton and Kate Crowson, and received birthday gifts from their Lucky Sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Billings and son Roy, former members of the group, have returned from Los Angeles and were welcomed by all. Lizzie Little will entertain the circle at its next meeting, May the twenty-seventh, at her home at 2444 Orchard Way.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, May the thirteenth, in the KC hall. The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock by the president, Mrs. J. M. Jensen, and following the business meeting an old-fashioned spelling bee was much enjoyed, as were the refreshments which ended the program. The June meeting will be held on June the tenth, and it is planned to hold initiation ceremonies at that time.

Mrs. Prentice Yeomans, daughter of Mrs. Rose M. Poole, is now residing at Hershey, Pennsylvania, near the old military post at Indian-town Gap, where Lt.-Col. Yeomans is stationed.

VISIT MADE TO WOMEN OF MOOSE

The Junior associate grand regent of the Women of the Moose, Mrs. Beulah Clark, accompanied by Mrs. Lilkley of Seattle, Washington, made the visit to the Klamath Falls chapter of the Women of the Moose. Mrs. Clark came in place of Mrs. Dorothy Eggleston, associate grand regent, who was unable to attend because she was ill.

A banquet was given in honor of the guests at the lodge hall. One hundred and four attended the dinner.

Following the dinner, the chapter was called to order and an open meeting was exemplified. Five candidates were initiated into the Defending Circle. A very interesting program was given under the direction of Mrs. Ella Hosford, hospital guild chairman.

Mrs. Clark was enjoyed by all those present. Also at the meeting were five visiting members from the Merrill chapter. The guests were presented with lovely gifts by the Klamath Falls chapter.

MIZPAH CLASS ENTERTAINED BY MATRONS

The parlors of the First Methodist church were spring-like with baskets of apple blossoms and lilacs on Monday evening, May the tenth, when the Junior Matrons entertained the Mizpah class at their annual Mother's Day party. About forty were present to enjoy the program, games, skits and refreshments. Mrs. J. G. Swan, mistress of ceremonies, announced the numbers. A chorus of Junior Matrons gave two songs "Children's Prayer," and "If My Sons Had Airy Pinions." Rev. Victor Phillips gave a brief talk on "Christian Motherhood" and there was a song led by Mrs. S. Meade Badger. Special awards in the form of corsages were presented to Mrs. H. S. Wood, Mrs. Ann Richards and Mrs. Sieverson.

A handkerchief shower was given to Mrs. J. G. Swan, for several years teacher of the Junior Matrons' class, who is leaving soon to reside near Junction City. Mrs. Walter Herndon, a former resident of Ashland, was introduced and welcomed as the new teacher for the class.

Refreshments were served later in the evening, the favors in the form of tiny May baskets.
