FATHER DRAFT DELAY SEEN BY NEW PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Plans to draft several millions of men in classes deferred for physical defects, and others heretofore deemed "necessary" to industry, may operate to delay the induction of fathers.

The war manpower commission announced last night that replacement schedules providing for the gradual drafting of some 3,000,000 workers now employed in essential industries had been filed by 5500 employing firms.

Earlier yesterday Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey told a senate committee that "a good many men" now classed as 4-F because of minor physical defects will be drafted.

Paul V. McNutt, war manpower commissioner, said his earlier estimate that inductions would average 12,000 a day throughout the year still held good despite a sharp decline from the rate that was reached during the winter months.

On the domestic manpower front, McNutt also said that the WMC planned to permit some workers to change jobs for higher pay if their current wages are "grossly inadequate" or below the prevailing rates in their communities.

Surgical Dressing Production Up With Larger Attendance

Increased attendance marked men's night at the Red Cross surgical dressing room Monday, with a number of veteran workers on hand for the first time in several weeks and five new recruits at work.

The new members of the class are Melvin Gallaspy, I. H. McCarrall, F. E. Drake, F. E. Foster, Fred H. Coffman.

Production of surgical dressings was materially increased as a result of the larger attendance.

Howard Hughes Escapes Plane Crash in Lake

BOULDER CITY, Nev., May 18 (AP)—Howard Hughes, wealthy aircraft designer and manufacturer, escaped with minor head bruises yesterday when a twin-engine amphibian plane he was piloting crashed and sank in Lake Mead, drowning a federal aeronautics inspector.

Carried to the bottom of the broad, deep artificial lake, site of Boulder dam, was the body of W. M. Cline of Santa Monica, Calif., civil aeronautics administration inspector. It was not immediately recovered.

Extension Unit News

The Fairhaven Home Extension meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 19, at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Al Loomis. The topic will be, "Repair of Sewing Machines" and "Use of Attachments." Mrs. Winnifred Gillen will have charge of the demonstration.
Potluck luncheon will be served at noon. All interested women are invited to attend.

Indians Become Rail Workers

Helping the iron horse perform its big war job, these Navajos work on Southern Pacific tracks near Yuma, Ariz. They are part of a large crew of Indians recruited by the railroad to help relieve an acute shortage of section hands. S. P. is also using all-women section gangs at various points on its Pacific lines, and is hiring many students and businessmen for weekend track work.

GALT RAM SALE IN SECOND DAY

GALT, Calif., May 18 (AP)—The 23rd annual California sheep exhibition and ram sale goes into its second day today with the high sale to date that of a Hampshire ram, sold to R. W. Hogg, Salem, Ore., for $400, by Stralock Farms of Davis.

There are 1799 rams and ewes for sale.

The Red Cross received $460 from the sale of two rams, one donated by Malcolm Moncreiffe, Big Horn, Wyo., and the other by Walter B. Hubbard of Junction City, Ore.

Men who strike during war time have three strikes on them as far as Uncle Sam is concerned.

Warrants Out for Violators of City Dog Ordinance

Five warrants, charging owners with allowing their dogs to run at large, were signed by Claude J. Nelson, humane officer for the city, according to the police department. One warrant brought a dog owner into police court Monday morning and a $10 fine meted out by Police Judge Harold Franey. Of this amount $5 was suspended.

City ordinance, demanding that dogs be penned or placed on leash during the growing season, May 1 to June 31, has been in effect for two weeks.

MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Lieutenant Colonel Boyd Yaden, Klamath Falls, is battalion commander of the army engineers who are engaged in building a large airport at Trona, Calif. The field is located at Valley Wells.

Colonel Yaden, who is the son of Mrs. Guy Hancock of Klamath Falls, is shown in a picture on the front page of the Trona Argonaut, and also in an illustration in the March Field Beacon.

Richard Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gallagher of Junction service station, has been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant at Fort Monroe, Va., coast artillery school, where he is stationed as an instructor.

COFFEE JARS MAY BE USED CANNING

Many of the glass food containers that have replaced tin on the grocery shelves can be used for home canning this season even though the tops are not the same size as the common screw-top fruit jar, according to Winnifred K. Gillen, home demonstration agent.

Most of the non-standard size screw-top jars, such as those used for most coffee brands, are now being made with a 2½-inch top. The fruit jar manufacturing companies are now making sealer disks that will fit these and which can be sealed on by using the screw-top lids that come on the original package.

Homemakers are being urged to save all of these sealable glass containers as a means of increasing the amount of home canning supplies to handle the expected record home food preservation program this season.

Confession Argued In Medford Baby Smothering Trial

MEDFORD, May 18 (AP)—Argument continued in circuit court today over an asserted confession by Sgt. Bernard J. Lotka, 23, Cleveland, charged with first degree murder.

District Attorney George W. Neilson, who told the jury in an opening statement that Lotka, a Camp White soldier, smothered his 10-week-old son in an auto court here April 1, attempted to place in the record what he said was a signed confession.

Point Values of Processed Foods Unchanged in May

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Present point values of processed foods will remain unchanged throughout May.

In announcing this last night, the office of price administration said the program now has "settled down to an even keel," making mid-month changes—such as were made in March and April—unnecessary.

OPA coupled its announcement of no point value changes with an appeal to consumers to shop early in the month, early in the week and early in the day in order to reduce store congestion.

HERALD AND NEWS STAFF ENLARGED

Marjorie Young and Nadine Palmerton, both of Klamath Falls, will serve this summer on the editorial staff of The Herald and News.

Miss Young is a student at the University of Oregon and is now managing editor of the Emerald, university daily. She will handle general assignments.

Miss Palmerton is a senior at the high school, and has been active in journalism at the local school. She has served as editor of the Krater, high school paper. She will specialize in news of interest to women, and will substitute during a part of the summer for Mrs. Neal Stewart, society editor, who will take a leave of absence for two months.

$ FROM THE Treasury Department OF THE UNITED STATES

TO THE People of Oregon ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Oregon has long been a pace setter for the nation. In every drive, in every campaign this state has not only topped its quota, but many times it has led all other states in the Union.

Why? Frankly, we don't know! But that's the way Oregon does things. That's the Oregon spirit!

In the month of April the people of Oregon were called upon to lend their government $110,000,000.00 by buying War Bonds. During the month rallies were held, volunteer workers sold bonds everywhere, business firms devoted pages of advertising space to explain the need for buying more bonds.

These things were done in other states, of course. But what happened in Oregon?

In record time the people of Oregon oversubscribed their quota, bought the staggering figure of over $150,000,000.00 worth of war bonds. Amazing? Unusual?

Not for Oregon. As far as the people of Oregon are concerned goals are set to be topped, records made to be broken. Much credit is due to the civic-minded men and women of the state who give of their time and energy to plan, organize and direct these drives. But the real credit belongs to you, the men and women and children of the state of Oregon... you who have the Oregon spirit.

We are proud to live in such a state, proud to count ourselves among such people.

Good going, Oregon—keep up the good work! Purchase of Second War Loan bonds was important, but it won't do the whole job. So, in addition to what you are already buying, resolve NOW to buy MORE WAR BONDS every pay day! Keep Oregon out in front.

This statement has been prepared and released by BLITZ-WEINHARD COMPANY, with the approval of The War Savings Staff of the Treasury Department
