

Midland Empire News

LEGION HOLDS DISTRICT MEET AT TULELAKE

TULELAKE—A coterie of guests and officers distinguished in American Legion and auxiliary circles of California, gathered here Sunday, May 16, for a district meeting at which Tulelake Legion post, No. 184 and the auxiliary were hosts. Present for the meetings, which convened at 10 a. m., were District Commander William Sisson, Redding; State Assistant Adjutant Charles McGonegal; State Service Officer Charles Farrington; Lloyd Lowery, assemblyman from the third California district; District Vice Commander Biglow, Yreka, and District Adjutant Housman.

Posts of McCloud, Redding, Yreka, Hill, Happy Canyon and the host post were represented, with 70 guests registered.

Visiting auxiliary delegates included the department president, Mrs. Leah Cloney, Eureka, and Mrs. Lydia Sisson, district president, Redding.

Reports of committees, membership citations and plans for Poppy Day and for future activities of both organizations were covered. The next district meeting will be held in Dunsmuir July 11.

Howard Dayton, commander of the Tulelake post, called the Legion session to order. Mrs. Helen Thomas presided at the auxiliary meeting.

Charles K. Weise presided at the 2 o'clock dinner served in the annex of the Presbyterian church. Musical entertainment was presented during the dinner hour by Mrs. E. W. Staunton at the piano. Mrs. Helen Lind sang "God Bless America," accompanied by Mrs. Frank Bell and Patty Gentry gave an accordion number.

Post members met in the Legion hall and the auxiliary in the gymnasium of the high school beneath the canopy of patriotic colors used for the high school end of the year festivities.

Tulelake

A dinner at Lucca's cafe in Klamath Falls was a treat for the junior class of the high school prior to the closing of school.

Annie Adams, president of the class, who will serve next year as student body president, was presented with a gift and remembrances were given to the class advisors, William Quinn and La Vern Hemstreet. Dorothy Thomas presided at the dinner.

The party later attended the dance in the armory, at which Herb Miller's orchestra played.

Lyle Haas has passed his primary tests in the army air corps at Hancock college, Santa Maria, Calif., and has been transferred to Minter field, Bakersfield, for basic training, according to word reaching his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Haas. Formerly employed by the Tulelake Reporter, Haas, in training since last November, has merited high honors since his enlistment.

Mrs. Alice Marsh, home economics instructor at the University of Nevada, will arrive here the last of May to become affiliated with the school system at the WRA project at Newell for the summer months. Mrs. Marsh will teach a class in adult education. Miss Patricia Helen Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, Tulelake, who has studied during her sophomore year at Nevada, will arrive home for the summer about the same time. Miss Thomas has lived during the past year at the Delta Delta house on the campus.

Weverhaeuser
WEYERHAEUSER CAMP 4
Art Cooper has given a free trip to the 4-H summer camp to be held in Corvallis from June 1 to June 11, to William Hartlerode.

William won the trip for showing the best citizenship in the 4-H club.

New Pine Creek

Walter G. Butler, 73, who sustained a broken leg last Wednesday morning, is convalescing nicely at the Lakeview hospital, according to his son, Alvin Butler. Mr. Butler was harrowing a piece of ground for his daughter, Mrs. Truman Lawson and a stick had become caught in the harrow. Butler endeavored to smash the obstruction down by stepping on the harrow while the team was still going and his foot slipped off, went down through the braces and got caught, breaking his right leg at the shin bone and cracking it about six inches above. He lay for three quarters of an hour afraid to shout loudly for help for fear he would startle his coltish team into running. Finally A. W. Odle, who happened along the road was motioned to Butler's aid and then the ambulance was summoned from Lakeview.

A. R. Smith and mother, left last Thursday with Ann Rodekerchen, for a visit to Richmond, Calif.

Bert Anderson and family have purchased a new home in Lakeview and moved last Saturday. The house in which they were living, belonging to Mrs. Cora Follette, is now being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Coghburn and baby.

Melvin Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walker, was rejected as enlistee in the army air corps at Sacramento and returned home last Thursday. He now is endeavoring to get into the merchant marines.

A Girl Scout meeting was held last Friday evening at the grange hall. A new member, La Dona Newman, was taken in. Plans were made for a big hike May 23.

The 4-H Sewing club met at the home of Susan Faris last Saturday afternoon. Those present were Beverley Cambron, Betty Murray, Arlene Tuxhorn, Nancy Hammersley, Susan, Mrs. Martin Hammersley, leader, and Mrs. Jewel Cambron, assistant leader.

The Pinochle club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bona Faris, with Mrs. Mildred George as hostess. Mrs. Elizabeth McCrary won high score prize and Mrs. J. A. Smith low. Date nut loaf and whipped cream and coffee was served for dessert.

Mrs. Jack Hinton was hostess to a pinochle party last Saturday evening, given at the home of Mrs. George Perkins. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cambron, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Faris. Mr. Bernard won high prize and Mrs. Betty Snider low. Creamed-puffs, Jello salad and coffee was served for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cloud and son, and Mrs. Neva Morton, arrived from Vallejo, Calif., last Thursday evening via the Redwood highway. They returned on Tuesday morning. Maurice Morton is working on the highway near Alaska, driving and servicing road machinery.

Eleanor Hamilton and Frances Wiseman entertained their respective eighth grade students at a picnic in Pine Creek canyon last Sunday.

Among those attending the Modoc high school graduating exercises last Thursday evening were Mrs. Mildred George, Mrs. Ora Steward and Mrs. Carter of Willow Ranch. They sat on the platform to receive the diplomas for their respective sons in the armed forces: LaVaughn Shanks, navy, Farragut, Ida.; Cliff Steward, army, Fort Ord, Calif.; Bill Carter, army, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Oliver have recently moved to Buck Creek ranger station from Canby, where Oliver worked for the forest service. Oliver is a grandson of Mrs. Eva McCrary, old-time local resident.

LaVaughn Shanks arrived home last Sunday evening for a few day's furlough. He has to return to Farragut, Ida., on May 21.

The Happy Hour club met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eunice Coghurn. A large number of the members were present and the pleasant "happy hour" grew to an enjoyable two and one-half hours.

Emil Buhl moved to Willow Ranch last Tuesday morning to resume his duties at the mill as gatekeeper.

Oregon Rebekahs Name President

PORTLAND, May 20 (AP)—Bertha McCullum, Portland, is new president of Oregon Rebekahs.

She was elected at the closing session of the order's 57th annual assembly here yesterday. Ethel Bailey, Roseburg, was named vice president; Marion Wilson, Bandon, warden; Louise Smith, Baker, secretary, and Ida B. Knight, Canby, treasurer.

LAKEVIEW RAM SALE SET FOR SEPTEMBER

CORVALLIS, May 20 (AP)—The annual southern Oregon ram sale at Lakeview has been set for September 15 by the Fremont Sheepmen's association, sponsor Victor W. Johnson, secretary-treasurer said today. This is one of three major ram sales held in Oregon and is designed to service particularly the wool growers of northwestern Nevada, northern California, and central and southeastern Oregon counties. Preliminary estimates of breeders show that approximately 250 rams will be offered at the 1948 sale.

WOMAN CUT, CARS SMASHED IN CRASH

MALIN—Mrs. Joe Tschirky and Merle Woodley were involved in an automobile accident on the Merrill road Tuesday afternoon, May 18, when Woodley, driving down the highway hit the Tschirky car broadside as it was crossing the highway from a side road.

Both cars were badly smashed. Mrs. Tschirky suffered a bad cut

Take Scholastic Honors

Marjorie Gunderson of Newell, senior at Tulelake high school, was named valedictorian of her class with an average of 2.82. Jean Jones, (left), followed with an average of 2.85 and will serve as the class salutatorian.

on the back of the head and was taken to Merrill for doctor's treatment. Woodley escaped injury.

ANOTHER PROBLEM

DES MOINES, Ia., (AP)—If it isn't one thing, it's another. Safety Commissioner Clarence Koensberger got complaints about dogs running through gar-

Oregon News Notes

By The Associated Press
Orion Gleason of Oregon City claims he has a rabbit which is war-conscious—it gave birth to 17 bunnies Wednesday for a 62-day production record of 29.

Rogue River valley pear growers and packers estimated the 1948 crop has been cut nearly 50 per cent by frosts, blight and a "drop" of undetermined cause.

County Judge Clinton Hurd said the 1943-44 Lane county tax levy will be approximately 16.2 mills, an increase of nearly 4.55 mills over 1942 because of salary increases and a 2-mill levy for a new Willamette river bridge. . . . District OPA Director Richard G. Montgomery appointed James Hedric associate district mileage rationing representative.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mills, Cove, left for Houston, Tex., to christen a ship named for their son, Ensign Lloyd Mills, lost in the Alaska war zone last July. . . . Col. Donald J. Leehy, head of the Portland district army engineers, announced his transfer to Camp Claiborne, La. . . . Death came to Walter M. Daly, 60, president of the Title & Trust company, Portland.

New under-arm Cream Deodorant Safely Stops Perspiration

1. Does not rot clothes or men's shirts. Does not irritate skin.
2. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
3. Instantly stops perspiration for 1 to 3 days. Prevents odor.
4. A pure, white, greaseless, stainless vanishing cream.
5. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering for being harmless to fabric.

Arrid is the largest selling deodorant

39¢ a jar
Also in 10¢ and 25¢ jars
ARRID

ITCHING Soothe with Mazzone, formerly Mexican Heat Powder—cooling, medicated.
SKIN IRRITATIONS

LaPointez

COZY COTTONS

$5.95

You're going to need at least two or three buttons this summer if you want to keep your style high and your temperature low. We don't think that you'll find prettier dresses anywhere than these. Piques, Gingham, Chambrays, and Seersuckers. And as long as you're buying cottons, why not buy Nan Carson, a nationally advertised name that gives you 5th Avenue styling at a Main Street price.

JUNIOR, MISSES' AND WOMEN'S SIZES
WASHABLE

JUST RECEIVED
Large Delayed Shipment of 4 BUCKLE OVERSHOES AND RUBBERS

Remember the shortage last winter. Buy yours now and have dry feet next winter.

DREW'S MANSTORE
733 Main

A-4619—2-piece seersucker suit, 2 patch pockets on baby jacket, white dickey, gored skirt. Black, Brown, Green, Blue, Pink. . . . $14 to $20.

B-4618—Gingham apron jacket dress, 2 patch pockets, white dickey, gored skirt. Black, Brown, Green, Red. . . . $9 to $15.

C-4620—2-piece seersucker suit, 2 patch pockets on jacket, flared skirt, gored skirt. Black, Brown, Green, Red. . . . $12 to $20.

D-4613—2-tone cool dress, striped pique bodice combined with white seersucker. Tie-front yoke, blue pocket. Action back. Red, Blue, Brown, Green. . . . $12 to $20.

E-4612—Chambray and pique stripe jacket, butterfly applique. Tie-front yoke, full, billowing skirt. Lavish square neckline. Button back. Blue, Brown, Green, Red. . . . $9 to $15.

F-4621—Fly front gingham. Pleated skirt cut on the bias. Woven belt. Blue patch pocket. Blue, Red, Brown, Black. $12 to $20.

G-4616—Seersucker 2-piece suit. Blouse jacket, white bangaline dickey. Center slit pleat in gored skirt. Navy, Brown, Green, Red. . . . $12 to $20.

H-4614—Seersucker cool dress with white waffle pique collar, front, and trim of pocket. Tie-front yoke. Action back. Blue, Red, Brown, Black. $14 to $20.

THAT'S FOR ME

FOR ENERGY!

Pepsi-Cola Company, Long Island City, N. Y.
Franchised Bottler: Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Klamath Falls
645 Spring St., Klamath Falls, Ore.