NEW MESSAGE SERIES BEGINS FOR BAPTISTS

The pastor of the Bible Baptist church will begin a new series of messages during the worship service at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, May 23. This series will center around the theme, "The Church—It's Part in Community Life."

The subject of the first sermon of the series will be "For Sale: This Church." What has the church to offer and what is it worth to the community? The evening message at 8 o'clock will be, "Dishonesty Among the Brethren," a continuation of the study in the Gospel of John.

In planning its summer schedule, the Bible Baptist church will not discontinue any of its present services either on Sunday or through the week, but rather will increase its ministry through the summer months with Bible conferences, special speakers, daily vacation Bible school, and continued weekly Bible study classes.

The pastor, G. W. Wheatley, feels that this is no time for the church to practice "absenteeism," but stay on the job, and be faithful to its commission.

Altamont Community Presbyterian

Meeting in the Junior high school, South Sixth and Summers lane. Rev. Hugh T. Mitchellmore, pastor. Bible study in the church school, 9:45 a. m. A. C. Olson, superintendent. "Lutheran Hour" Broadcast Sponsored for Entire Year

Realizing the need and value of the comforting Gospel message during troubled times like these, the Lutheran Laymen's league, sponsors of the Lutheran Hour, have decided to keep the Lutheran Hour on the air during the entire year.

Broadcasting under the motto, "Bringing Christ to the Nations," the Lutheran Hour is heard in English, Spanish and Portuguese over more than 400 stations in the United States, Canada and 24 foreign countries. In addition, the recorded broadcasts are made available to more than 60 military camps and troop concentrations in the United States and abroad. Dr. Walter A. Maier, speaker on the International Lutheran Hour since its beginning, is head of the Old Testament interpretation department of Concordia seminary, St. Louis, Mo. The musical portion of the program is furnished through the Lutheran Hour chorus. Both speaker and chorus offer their services without any remuneration. Since its inception more than one million people have written in to this popular broadcast. The local station carries the Lutheran Hour every Sunday at 1 o'clock through the facilities of the Mutual Broadcasting company.
