

Attendance Upped On Monday Nights

Men Still May Find Room Around the Table at Monday Night's Surgical Project

Attendance at the men's class held on Monday evening in the surgical dressings project rooms at American Red Cross headquarters has increased, according to one of the veterans of the table, and this coming Monday night there should be a goodly representation of Klamath families gathered to do this excellent work.

Noteworthy is the fact that several wives accompanied their husbands to the project rooms and the suggestion was made that to make it family night might not be such a bad idea. There is fun to be had as well as a splendid feeling of work well done.

Among those seen at Monday night's session this week were H. B. Ashley, Fred Fleet, G. W. Sample, J. C. and Winifred Cleghorn, Fred and Jo LaForge, M. Gallaspy, J. H. McCarroll, F. R. Hamblin, L. Orth Sisemore, F. E. Drake, Sydney and Lora Evans, H. R. Harrison, F. E. Foster, E. B. Hall, John Ebinger, George McIntyre, W. S. Bradley, E. J. Howell, S. R. Brown, Fred Coffman, Genevieve Wheatley, Walter and Ella Palmer, Malcolm and Jane Epley and their son, John, and Lena M. Dennis.

Production figures on May tenth were reported at 401 dressings, and on the following week night, 672. The quota is 750 each Monday night and this quota was almost, but not quite, met by those attending. All men in the city are urged to attend.

Art Students Finish Murals

Oregon Centennial Is Theme of Painting At Junior High

A mural on the Oregon Trail Centennial, 1843 to 1943, has been painted across a large section of the wall in the second floor hall at Fremont school, and dedicated to the class of '43, the first to graduate from the Junior high school.

The painting was done by six students of the Junior high art class, under the direction of Mrs. Jeanette Brown, instructor, and the theme is exceptionally well carried out, both in design and coloring.

Across the wall four covered wagons wend their way, descending from the plain into a river valley. The contrast of rugged mountains on one side, the plain's flatness on the other and background cloud effects give the mural depth and interest. Eight figures in the foreground, along with various livestock and dogs, provide life and action.

Credit for the mural goes to Wesley Robinson, Clarence Hall, Marilyn Nethercott, Ann Arden, Norma Jo Smith and Allen Murdoch.

Three high school students who have also been outstanding in art have just completed a mural on the wall of the art room at KUHS, depicting the effects of the war on Klamath High. This was done by Joanne O'Neill, Malcolm Epley and Eva Ferber, under the direction of Mrs. Brown.

MISS LEWIS MARRIED

Former Klamath Girl Weds Lt. Conrad in Ashland May Seventh

Of interest to many in Klamath Falls was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Bonnie Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lewis of Ashland, to Lt. W. G. Conrad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Conrad of North Hollywood, California.

The wedding took place in Ashland at the Full Gospel church on Friday evening, May the seventh. Chaplain H. F. Bonhoff of Camp White officiated and the double ring ceremony was used.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. G. G. Elder, and the best man was Lt. C. B. Christoph.

The bride was lovely in a white lace gown, the skirt and train of tulle. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

A reception was held later for members of the wedding party, relatives and a few friends at the home of Mrs. L. E. Ager, another sister of the bride.

Mrs. Conrad and her family formerly lived in Klamath Falls, but moved to Ashland in 1937. She graduated from Ashland high school in 1942 and has since been employed at Camp White.

On Saturday, May the eighth, the couple left for Eugene where the groom is stationed and where they will make their home.

Mrs. Elmer Shafer, the former Hazel Groves of this city, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Groves of 4427 Bisbee street, for a fortnight. Mrs. Shafer now makes her home in Clinton, Oklahoma.

Beauty IS YOUR DUTY

By RITA WHISENANT
Licensed Cosmetologist

SOMETIMES I think that we women take our beauty preparations too much for granted. So many times a woman will stop by Everbody's and ask for a lipstick or face powder shade that truly isn't right for her. But she points out that she's been using that shade for years, has grown accustomed to it, and that's that.

SHE knows she HAS to use cosmetics and she ENJOYS using them for the lift she gets; but there's that little scaredy-cat feeling inside of her that rebels against trying something new and different.

BEAUTY preparations today do so much MORE than glorify and enhance our appearance . . . as if that wasn't enough. They are a morale builder . . . a fashion accessory . . . a corrective for any number of facial ills, and so on.

IN the Richard Hudnut laboratories where those wonderful DuBarry Beauty Preparations are created, chemists are constantly discovering new things . . . new ways of using cosmetics so that we women get the very most out of each cream and lotion we buy.

I CAN'T pass these discoveries on to you if you're scared to try something new . . . but if you'll come in, I'd like to, tell you about them.

—RITA.
