Beginning Monday morning at the Immanuel Baptist church, there will be a vacation Bible school five days a week for the next two weeks. The sessions will begin at 9 a. m. each day and last until noon. Every boy and girl from four to 16 years of age is personally invited to attend our school.

The morning will be divided into several periods including Bible lessons, handwork, chorus singing, memory work, games and good times. There is a fine staff of teachers from the church and two young women from the Multnomah school of the Bible at Portland who have just completed a very extensive course in vacation Bible school work and child evangelism.

There is no tuition connected with this school, nor do they ask that you be a Baptist in order to have your boys and girls attend the school for the next two weeks. They will be under the care of the teachers and helpers every moment, so the mothers need not worry about them.

During this time of letting down spiritually, the church feels that a daily vacation Bible school will go a long way toward meeting the needs of this community. This school is not to take the place of Sunday school but to help in teaching the Word of God to the children. According to statistics, children will receive more of the Bible in this two weeks' school than they get in a whole year at Sunday school.

Boys and girls, we'll be looking for you Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the Immanuel Baptist church, just one and one-half blocks north of the Western Auto store.
