Lakeview

A board member for Zone No. 3 for the non-high school district will be elected at the annual school meeting June 21, 1948, to replace Roy Perry from district zone No. 3. This zone includes the elementary school districts No. 38, No. 41 and No. 28. His term expires this June.

Results of the election held at the Lakeview Lumber company last Thursday to determine the bargaining agency at that mill disclosed 18 votes cast for AFL, 18 for no-union and 10 for CIO. Hugh Haddock, business agent for the lumber and sawmill workers, stated that a run-off election will be held during the second week of June to determine the bargaining agency.

Archie Elmer Anderson of Lakeview was arrested by Game Warden Hugo Leyva yesterday on charges of killing migratory waterfowl during a closed season. Anderson was picked up in the Dog Lake area, which has been set aside as a recreational area.

Forty students of Lakeview high school received diplomas Friday evening at commencement exercises held in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock. The program varied somewhat from former years in that it was presented entirely by the students with no outside speakers. Lora Jane Curtis was valedictorian of the 1943 graduating class, and Mary Louise Piper salutatorian.

With 37 entries submitted by high school boys and girls for naming the bull and the auction which will be part of the War Bond sales campaign this fall, the judges had a difficult time selecting the winner in each class. A committee composed of Ray Harlan, County Agent Victor Johnson and Marck Maddock met Thursday and selected "Bond Boy" as the winning name for the bull donated by J. C. Clark to be given to the highest bidder in war bonds. The winning name was submitted by Archie Osborne of Lakeview, who will get $12.50 in war savings stamps.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Palmerlee that their son, Dickie, received the highest grade in an intelligence test that has ever been received at Fort Leonard Wood, where he is stationed. This will put Dickie in line for officer's training.

Miss Billie Richardson arrived last week from Astoria to fill the position of Lake county public welfare administrator, left vacant when Thomas H. King resigned to accept an appointment to Hood River.

In response to a call from headquarters the members of Lake County Junior Red Cross have been busily collecting wash cloths to be sent to our boys in service in Alaskan territory, and so far the response has been more than generous.

QUICK ACTION NABS FORGER IN LAKEVIEW

LAKEVIEW — Ten minutes after he had passed a forged check Tuesday afternoon at Fetsch's store, Loney Ellis Hayes of Roanoke, Va., was taken into custody by State Patrolman George Giese as he was in the act of buying a ticket at the Red Ball Stage depot.

Hayes came from Virginia to work in the Kaiser shipyards at Vancouver, Wash., and had been here about a week. He appeared at Fetsch's store to buy some merchandise and gave Ernest Fetsch a check bearing the name of the Kaiser company. The check was drawn on the Lakeview branch of the First National bank and made out to Hayes, who had forged a signature above a typewritten line bearing the name of the Kaiser company.

BURNING PERMITS NEEDED IN FOREST

According to Supervisor J. E. Elliott of the Modoc national forest, permits for burning debris and other refuse or slash are required by state law between April 15 and December 1 of each year.

With the hot, dry season approaching rapidly, extreme precaution should be exercised by any individual who wishes to dispose of debris and other matter through burning practices.

The state law also applies to loaders and other gas engine equipment used in the woods in logging operations. It is also necessary that a sufficient quantity of fire fighting tools be located at strategic spots in order that a fire may be contained in as small an area as possible, if one does start. The throwing of burning material from moving vehicles is also prohibited by state law during the fire season.

DO YOU BELIEVE that the public should be protected from careless, financially irresponsible drivers unable to pay for the damage they may cause?

THEN YOU WILL WELCOME the new Oregon Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law which becomes effective Wednesday, June 9.

No motorist who can establish financial responsibility in the amount of $11,000 has anything to fear from this new law.

You can establish financial responsibility in any one of three ways:

- 1) Post cash or securities in the required amount
- 2) Provide a surety bond
- 3) Carry an automobile insurance policy (standard limits)

If you already have a standard limits automobile insurance policy, you automatically fulfill the requirements of the law.

If it is not convenient for you to put up $11,000 in cash or to provide a surety bond, then be sure you do have automobile insurance.

Otherwise... if you are involved in an accident... whether at fault or not, your driver's license and your car license will be suspended until proof of financial responsibility is established.

This law protects YOU, Mr. or Mrs. Motorist. Be sure you take proper steps to protect yourself.

LUCKY DOG

LA CENTER, Minn., (AP)—Jake Cemensky's hound dog is getting extra feedings and pettings these days.

Cemensky, after a shopping tour, lost his purse containing $200. Retracing his steps without success, he went home and told his wife of his ill luck.

Later, Mrs. Cemensky handed him the missing wallet—with the $200 intact. She had found it in the doghouse—and Cemensky reasoned his dog, which had accompanied him on the shopping tour, had seen him drop the purse, picked it up and brought it home.

We have faith that future generations will know that here in the middle of the 20th century there came the time when men of good will found a way to unite and produce and fight to destroy the forces of ignorance, intolerance, slavery and war.—President Roosevelt.
