Sports Briefs By Hugh Fullerton,

NEW YORK, May 31 (/P)-If you've been wondering what about the football season next fall, what do you suppose the colleges have been doing? . . . Fordham already has had two games cancelled; at least two dhaw others are doubtful and Jack Coffey doesn't know what to answer when scheduled rivals ask him what to expect of the Rams because the army is just moving in . . Bruce Gehrke re-ports there were severals days this spring when he not only took part in Columbia's spring practice but he was it. Top turn out for any one day was six or seven . . . Cornell's Carl Snavely expects to get as much out of navy V-12 trainees as he did out of civilian players because athletics are a definite part of the navy program while the students usually had to sendwich drills in between late classes and dimer hour jobs... When Mike Con-ner, southeastern conference commissioner, asked for reports on how many 17-year olds would be available next fall, Wilbur Hutsell of Auburn replied: "Mr. Commissioner, we have taken stock of our 17-year olds in the football squad and he says that he would like very much to play football next season."

MONDAY MATINEE Lew Hanbury, Al Weill's new featherweight who reminds Al of Lou Ambers in his early days, works as a navy machinist in Baltimore until 4.30 every afternoon, then puts in some time at the gym and does his road work at night . . . Col. Reed Landis, the jedge's son and chief of staff of the first troop carrier com-mand, will tell radio listeners about his branch of the service on Horace Heidt's program to-morrow night ... Wisconsin U. has had three track captains this year. Bob Bierle and John Towle received service calls, so the trackmen chose Jim McFadzean, who doesn't expect to be summoned until June 1 . . . Paul Kiester, the New York Post sports editor, is slowly recovering from a recent operation.

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK Harry Markson, tub thumper for Mike Jacobs, has discovered that one of the borebears (he uses words like that) of lightweight Bobby Ruffin was Ed-mund Ruffin, who fired the first shot on Fort Sumter in the war between the state . . . Bobby likes to fire the first shot at somebody's chin when he pulls on the gloves.

Faltering as Portlanders Win Opener; Drop Second

By The Associated Press The Pacific Coast League worries through a holiday doubleheader schedule today bringing all clubs but Oakland and Sacramento to the conclusion of a nine game series that has left standings surprisingly unchanged.

While the Oakland - Sacramento doubleheader was called yesterday because of weather, six other Sunday twin bills were split, distributing honors in remarkably just fashion. Going in to the last two games of the current series the Port-land Beavers hold a 4 to 3 series edge over Los Angeles with the Angels showing definite signs of faltering after five weeks of winning ball. Port-Jodie Phipps his sixth consecutive win of the season without a defeat.

Los Angeles still holds a seven game lead over second place San Francisco, although the Seals have gained ground by winning five of this week's seven en. Los Angeles counters with the Seattle Rain- San Francisco iers. The Seals dropped the first San Diego ______ game yesterday, 3 to 0, on the Oakland Farmer Hal Turpin. But the Portland seven - inning night game was Sacramento another story with Gussie Suhr Seattle touching off a three run rally ' RES with a triple in the last of the sixth, giving San Francisco the game 4 to 1. It was the fifth win without interruption for Southpaw Tom Seats. At San Diego the Padres turn in their fourth series win by taking the opener against Hollywood 4 to 2 but the Stars countered, 5 to 3, on the second game for their second win of the ser ies.

Most surprising performance New York of the Saturday games came from San Francisco with the Philadelphia Seals dropping Seattle back into Cleveland ..... Seals dropping Seattle back into the cellar again under an out-pouring of runs which left the Rainiers flattened 25 to 3. The Boston Seals climbed over Pitcher Pete St. Louis Jonas for 10 runs in one inning and 11 in another. In other Saturday games Los Angeles defeated Portland 5 to Sacramento nipped Oakland 4 to 3, in 12 innings and Holly wood drubbed the San Diego Padres 7 to 2.
