MAE K. SHORT RETURNS FROM OMAHA TRIP

Mae K. Short, Klamath county clerk, was back at her office Tuesday after a trip to Omaha, Neb., where she attended the convention of the National Association of Counties as official representative of Klamath county.

Mrs. Short told members of the county court Tuesday that Klamath county is well out in front in planning for post-war activities, a feature that was heavily emphasized at the national association meeting.

The clerk said that 36 states out of 48 were represented at the convention. Fourteen delegates from Connecticut made up the largest single delegation. Three were present from Oregon.

Mrs. Short made the trip to Omaha with Grace Rusco of the clerk's office, traveling by county automobile.

The clerk's journey by car has been the subject of some local critical discussion. She said on her return that the car was not used for side trips of any nature, and said she decided to go by car because of the difficulty of getting train reservations.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Messer, 920 Martin street, have returned from Los Angeles where they visited with relatives.
