MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Staff Sergeant Malvern (Buck) Alcorn, Klamath boy who is with the air corps in Missouri, arrived Monday night on furlough for a brief visit with his mother, Mrs. Aaron Hoffman, and other relatives here. Alcorn was with Lorenz company when he joined the service in January, 1942.

MP PFC Melvin W. Hunter has been home on furlough for the last fifteen days. His brother, Corporal Willard L. Hunter was on a furlough at the same time but since he is somewhere in England he was unable to be home. Melvin left for Camp White on May 25, after spending his time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hunter of 4763 Climax avenue.

Kenneth Finnell, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Finnell of 513 Hill street, returned to his base after a week's leave here this spring. Finnell enlisted in the navy on July 7, 1941. He received his basic training at San Diego and attended an aviation machinist's school in Seattle. He has been a "flying mac" since April, 1942, and has now been advanced to the rate of aviation machinist mate 3/c.

While here he showed some Japanese leaflets which had been dropped over the Aleutians. They were shaped like oak leaves with Japanese propaganda on both sides. Finnell has lived in Klamath Falls all his life and attended Pelican school.

OWAC STARTS BRANCH FOR YOUNG WOMEN

A new branch of the Oregon Women's Ambulance Corps for the training of younger women for emergency service will be started this evening at a meeting to be held at 7:30 o'clock at the Klamath Falls armory.

The corps has started the recruiting of girls from 16 to 18 years old. Girls of the 18-age group will be able to join the regular corps and those younger will be known as the Junior Ambulance corps.

Tonight's meeting will be in charge of Lieut. Berdena Reeder of the Klamath platoon, OWAC, who will explain the purpose and training required by the junior group, and the process of organization will be started.

The junior corps will receive regular training, such as first aid, motor mechanics, communications, fire fighting and military drill, thus preparing them to take their place in the OWAC as soon as they become 18 years old.

All girls who are interested in the ambulance corps service are urged to attend this evening's meeting.

HOUSE PASSES COMPROMISE PAY-AS-YOU-GO

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY
WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—A compromise pay-as-you-go income tax bill, cancelling 75 to 100 per cent of one year's individual tax liability, was passed by the house today in quiet climax to a hot and historic fight which has gripped congress for four months.

The action, which sends the measure now to the senate where quick approval is anticipated, came in the final drive to shift the nation's 40,000,000 taxpayers to a current basis under a 20 per cent withholding tax. Collection of the levy would start one month from today.

"Don't Take Fawns Home," Warns State Game Commission

PORTLAND, June 1 (AP)—Don't take a wandering fawn home for a pet, the State Game commission warned today.

It's against the law unless you can prove the fawn was helpless when found and even then a permit is required, the commission said, adding that usually the fawn has not been deserted at all, merely left to its own devices while the doe is browsing for food.

Fawns kept as pets become dangerous when they grow up but once confined are unable to take care of themselves if turned loose.
