

BOY SCOUTS TO HOLD COURT OF HONOR TUESDAY

For the first time in recent months, all Boy Scouts of Klamath Falls and vicinity will gather next Tuesday evening in Fremont school auditorium for a war service conference and court of honor. Rev. L. K. Johnson, chairman of Scout advancement, will be in charge of the court of honor which will be followed by the conference on war service.

This conference will work out the problems related to the many things Scout troops are doing toward the war effort. It will contain an appeal to step up the collection of scrap metals recently requested by the war production board. It will assign troops to their respective jobs as dispatch bearers, prepared to distribute all office of war information posters to all stores in Klamath Falls as soon as delivered to this city. It will clarify the work being done by Scouts as air raid service messengers under the OCD, and iron out duplications which have occurred in some incident drills. It will make possible the regular assignment of troops to Red Cross first aid drills.

Concluding the conference, Mr. Don Rice of the junior chamber of commerce and Willis Robinson of the junior chamber and a neighborhood commissioner of the Boy Scouts, will explain details of the victory book campaign to be launched by the Scouts and the junior chamber on June 14. Harold Hendrickson, chairman of camping and activities for the Klamath district, will work with Lloyd C. Prock, district commissioner, in integrating Scouts' war service in this community.

The court of honor is scheduled to take place at 7:45 p. m. according to Rev. Johnson. Every Scout in Klamath Falls and vicinity is urged to be present. Cubs are invited providing they are accompanied by their parents. They will have a place in the salvage campaigns as in the past, and every Scout and Cub is needed to put over the job ahead.

Wasn't Killed After All

Capt. Thomas P. Mayo, army pilot for whom memorial services were held two months ago after he was reported killed in a bombing raid over Germany, greets his 7-month-old daughter Prudence Ann for the first time at Northfield, Vt., while home on furlough from England. After the war department reported him killed it was learned he had landed safely in friendly territory.

CONFIRMATION OF OFFICERS MOVE GAINS

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—Resentment against some enforcement officers in the field strengthened senate support today for legislation to require confirmation of thousands of federal officials making $4500 or more a year.

Senator Bone (D-Wash.) reported hearing of a number of instances where feeling against OPA and WPB representatives had "lined up votes" for the measure, which President Roosevelt has denounced as "a tragic mistake."

"In some states," Bone said, "some of these officials are openly critical of members of congress and are seeking to blame them for their methods of enforcement, and the allocations and restrictions."

Most outspoken opponent of the bill, offered by Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.), was Senator Hatch (D-N.M.) who said he would seek a roll call vote today on an amendment to exempt officials of the Tennessee valley authority.

"Directors of the TVA are now subject to senate confirmation," Hatch told newsmen. "I'm afraid this bill would play havoc with TVA's merit system for its employees."

KEYNOTE

DENVER, (AP)—Denver's first surprise trial blackout last night was 20 minutes late, in the downtown district.

The master siren, as a precaution, is kept locked—and no one could find the key.

EMILY WEEKS OF BEATTY PASSES

Funeral services for the late Emily Weeks, prominent Indian matron of Beatty who passed away in Klamath Falls on Monday, will be held in the chapel of the Earl Whitlock funeral home on Saturday, June 5.

Mrs. Weeks was a long time resident of Klamath county, having lived in or around Beatty for about 70 years. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Inez Hunter of this city; a son, Eugene Weeks of Beatty, and a grandson, Buford Weeks. Mrs. Weeks came here from

The Dalles, Oregon, when she was a small child and has lived here since.

She ranched and was in the cattle business with her brother, Tim Brown, wealthy Indian who passed away in 1938. A year or so ago she was the successful plaintiff in a lawsuit over her brother's will which received wide publicity.

PAPER PROFIT?

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (AP)—Negotiable securities valued at $3000 have been returned to Miss Sarah M. Buderus three years after a servant threw them out as refuse.

The Salvation Army in Mount Vernon—a city some eight miles away—found the lost securities in a bale of waste paper.

RAF Planes Sweep France at No Loss

LONDON, June 4 (AP)—British fighters made a sweep over northern France today without loss and one enemy aircraft was destroyed, it was announced authoritatively.

At the same time German fighter-bombers scattered explosives over a southeast coast town and then shot up the streets, causing a number of casualties including some killed.

It makes little difference to the lad in the foxhole on some fever-ridden island in the Pacific whether the boy next to him is a Jew, Catholic, or Protestant. All he wants of him is courage and good marksmanship.—Navy Secretary Frank Knox.

NO FOOLING JACKSONVILLE, Fla., (AP)—The Florida association of commercial organization executives has adopted a resolution asking Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau to have a square hole punched in the center of the new white penny "thereby saving a lot of scrap metal and the souls of men from perdition."

The organization contended that the new coin is "filling the function of a counterfeit dime," being generally passed off on the aged and dim-sighted.

BARNYARD EUGENICS A "master race" of roosters that will advance the average quality of poultry breeding stock as much in one year as in six to eight normal years is a prediction of the U. S. department of agriculture.
