Talented Performers Gain Plaudits of Big Crowd at Opening of Polack Circus

By NADINE PALMERTON All the thrills of the big top—acrobats, tight wire walkers, trapeze stars, trained animal acts, clowns, jugglers, and the traditional crackerjacks—were to be seen at the opening show in the armory last night of Polack Brothers circus...

Guests of the Junior chamber of commerce and the Tulelake Growers association were the 71 Mexican laborers now at the farm labor supply center near Tulelake.

Circus fans were thrilled with Captain Dick Clemens, famous wild animal trainer, and his lion act. Captain Clemens even had his ferocious animals jumping through hoops.

A three-hour job takes him three weeks to do. No wonder the boy will slow down when he's blue. There are those on the route, that for reasons not saying Leave for far places, also leave without paying.

Another of the high spots of the show was the aerial act of La Terisisa. She had the crowd on the edges of their seats with her daring heel and toe catches high above the floor and without the benefit of a net.

To pay for their papers, you know what that means. If all his customers would only reflect To have their six bits when he calls to collect. You'd find he'd respond to your promptness with joy, You'd find, too, that you'd have a prompt paper boy.

It is sound in principle and I have always felt that some such restriction should be written into the constitution." George said. The measure, introduced by Senator Bailey (D-N. C.) in a form requiring a two-thirds vote of both houses and ratification by three-fourths of the state legislatures, provides that no person shall be chosen or be eligible to hold the office of president if he has held the office during all or part of two prior terms.

Think of our carrier, who delivers our news. From office to house, no weather subdues. Summer and winter, in mud or in dust, The boys are out to accommodate us. They carry our news so we'll have it on time. They miss their meals at the family hour. Their papers get heavy, their wheels out of line. They have to make good in sleet and in shower. V-HOME VESTIGES

A V-Home conserves—but does not hoard—food, household supplies, and vital materials. "Hoarders," says OGD, "are on the same level as spies." Conservation is one of the five qualifications of a V-Home. Ask your Air Raid Warden or Block Leader about the other four. Make yours a V-Home! Guyas Williams contributed the illustration.

CHANGED POINT VALUES FROM OPA'S HANDY POINT CHART FOR PROCESSED FOODS Point Values of Popular Sizes, Effective June 6, 1943

Few changes have been made in the June point values of processed foods over those in effect in May. All cherries other than maraschino and red sour cherries have been given point values as shown on chart (red sour cherries remain the same as May). Vegetable juices have gone down in value and canned corn on the cob is stabilized at one point per ear.

or snow. But that part is easy, it's all one and same. Those youngsters can take it, it's all in the game.

But there is one thing to make youngsters disgusted, The old shove-off alibi—so old that it's rusted; A thing that for true makes a P. B. reflect If it's worth all the effort (when he tries to collect). With a hundred or more collections to take And a forty or more dollar bill in the make Mrs. Green isn't home, Mr. White is flat broke, Mr. Grey is as sour as a water-logged oak.

So come back tomorrow, some other time, You missed me a paper, you owe me a dime. I had it yesterday but you didn't come, So come back next payday and I will pay you the sum. I paid you last week (she was three weeks late then) And collection time naturally has come 'round again. She opened the door, as she turned 'round to slam it. Said "Come back the first and I will pay you then, damn it."

There are those on the route, that for reasons not saying Leave for far places, also leave without paying. But the boy must go on and go down in his jeans To pay for their papers, you know what that means. If all his customers would only reflect To have their six bits when he calls to collect. You'd find he'd respond to your promptness with joy, You'd find, too, that you'd have a prompt paper boy.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Glad we ran into you, Judge. I was just tryin' to set Helen straight on this business about sugar. I wish you'd tell her what you told me last night down at lodge." "Glad to, Jim. I told him, Helen, that there's not a single bit of truth to the rumor that the distillers use sugar in making whiskey. They make it exclusively from grain. Only bootleggers use sugar to make whiskey. I read an article in the paper just last week that goes to prove it told how a confessed bootlegger in a Federal court testified to the fact that another bootlegger, also on trial, had bought a million pounds of sugar a few years ago.
