NEWS OF THE THEATRES

Red Skelton is the star and Ann Rutherford is his leading lady in M-G-M's comedy-mystery, "Whistling Dixie," opening tonight with the midnight prelude at the Pelican. Other members of the cast include Diana Lewis, Rags Ragland, Celia Travers, Guy Kibbee and George Bancroft.

Henry Fonda and Maureen O'Hara have the romantic leads in "Immortal Sergeant," the Twentieth Century-Fox Film's special production based upon John Brophy's best selling novel. Others in the cast are Thomas Mitchell, Allyn Joslyn and Reginald Gardner. It opens tomorrow at the Esquire.

Lucille Ball and Richard Carlson are starred with Ann Miller in the riotous comedy romance, "Too Many Girls," which opens with "I Was Framed" tomorrow at the Pine Tree Theatre.

Action is the key-note of the Sunday program at the Tower Theatre. The East Side Kids are featured in "Clancy Street Boys" coupled with Don "Red" Barry and Linda Johnson in "Sundown Kid."

Negro Janitor at Pendleton Killed PENDINGTON, June 5 (AP) — Jesse Jackson, about 60, negro janitor, was shot and fatally wounded on the main street of Pendleton at 8 a. m. today by Frank Stewart, 46, according to Police Chief Charles Lemons. Stewart surrendered to Patrolman Melvin Roberts, and told police he did not intend to "plug" Jackson, but had meant to hit him with his gun. The altercation, officers said, was the result of ill feeling which developed after a card game last night. Jackson is survived by his widow, Myrtle. He was a native of Virginia, served as a transport steward during World War I, and had lived here for the past decade. The people of America know that the airplane, the radio, mass production and other scientific inventions have changed the world. They know there is no place in the world of tomorrow for a hermit nation.—Lieut. Comdr. Harold E. Stassen, ex-Minnesota governor.

WARREN VETOES 5 TAX CUT MEASURES

SACRAMENTO, June 5 (AP)—Governor Earl Warren yesterday vetoed five tax reduction bills which were not in his $67,500,000 tax cutting program. The five vetoed measures proposed an additional tax cut of $10,571,000. The revenue slashing bills killed by the governor: A suspension of the 3 per cent motor vehicle tax on trucks and busses for a period of two years, for an estimated tax loss to the state of $8,651,000. To reduce the tax rate on banks levied under the bank and corporation franchise tax from a maximum of 8 per cent to a flat 5 per cent, for a tax reduction estimated at $1,050,000. Amending the bank and corporation franchise tax and the corporation income tax in the matter of dividend income to effect a tax cut estimated at $120,000. Exempting from the retail sales tax ice used in the transportation of food products, to produce a tax cut estimated at $750,000.

When the wars are over and the victory is won there may be a loud clamor to "send the boys home." If the demobilization is disorderly it may well be a devastating shock to our society. Millions of young men will have to be absorbed. The problem demands our best thinking and planning, lest through chaotic demobilization we lose the very democratic principles for which we fight.
