Mrs. Thompson Enjoys Journey

Local Woman Has Extensive Trip Through Eastern Part of United States

One of our Klamath residents who has done a lot of traveling lately is Mrs. Robert Thompson, who has just returned from Washington, D. C., where she has been with her husband, Lieutenant Bob Thompson. Bob is now with the flight control command in the air corps division of the weather bureau in Asheville, North Carolina.

Mrs. Thompson has been gone for six weeks, during which she spent ten days with her husband in Washington. Among the many interesting experiences she had there was a trip through the famous Pentagon building, where she saw a film showing the Germans' march through the conquered countries.

Mrs. Thompson also visited Mount Vernon with Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Stockman. Mr. Stockman is the congressman representing this part of the state.

Some of the new plays were also on the list of Mrs. Thompson's activities while in the east. In Pittsburgh, she saw Catherine Cornell in "The Three Sisters," and in Chicago, she saw two of the best shows of the season, "Kiss and Tell" and "Dough Girls."

She was also with a group of Klamath women who attended the Russian War Relief tea. Other Oregon residents who attended were Mrs. Ted Gillenwaters, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsbey, and Mrs. Lowell Stockman. Mrs. Joseph Davies, wife of the ambassador to Russia, showed the Klamath party her collection of china, and also her things collected from different Russian churches.

An interesting thing about the gold that trimmed the Russian articles was that it never tarnishes because of a process devised by the Russians.

When Lieutenant Thompson was transferred from Washington to North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and two other army officers enjoyed a beautiful drive in the Shenandoah Valley and through Virginia. Their trip also took them along Lake Lure in North Carolina, which Mrs. Thompson describes as one of the most beautiful lakes she has ever seen.

The Thompsons also enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pixley of Pittsburgh, a brother of Mrs. Louis Serruys.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves entertained at their home on Tuesday evening for Miss Thompson. A few friends were invited in and a midnight supper was served.

BPW Women to Meet Tuesday
The Business and Professional Women are to meet at the Swan confectionery on Tuesday, June the eighth, at seven o'clock for dessert. They will go the Red Cross headquarters at half past seven o'clock to make bandages and surgical dressings.

Mrs. Robert Shaw, the former Patricia Gallagher, spent this past week in Walla Walla, Washington, visiting friends, and also in Portland. She will return to Klamath Falls this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packer from the valley visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ough on North Second street last weekend.
