

State Garden Meet Held on June 1, 2

Representatives from Klamath Falls Attend Convention Held in Pendleton

Home from the annual state convention of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs is Mrs. E. D. Lamb, state president, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, state secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. F. O. Small, a delegate from Klamath Falls. The convention was held in Pendleton on the first and second of June.

The theme of the meeting this year, "Victory Gardens and Home Production," was stressed by Mrs. Lamb in her report to the group.

On Tuesday afternoon, June the first, delegates were guests at a tea at the home of Mrs. Donald Wair. The sun did come out for a few minutes to enable the women to enjoy Mrs. Wair's beautiful gardens.

A high point of the convention was a flower arrangement demonstration given by Normal Mitchell Kelly. At this exhibition, beautiful arrangements were shown in the speakers' collection of oriental containers.

Other events of the two day meeting were the informal dinner given at the Episcopal Parish hall on Tuesday evening and the President's no-host breakfast given at the Pendleton hotel on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Lamb, as president of the Federation, presided over all meetings held in the northern city. Business of the convention was completed on Wednesday afternoon.

TULELAKE OES PAST OFFICERS HONORED

TULELAKE—Past worthy matrons and past worthy patrons of Tulelake chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were honored following the regular meeting Tuesday night when the sixth birthday anniversary of the chapter was commemorated. Dinner was served in the annex of the Tulelake Presbyterian church.

Places at the table where the guests were seated were marked by narrow ribbons attached to fortunes for each guest. Quaint old-fashioned girls added an interesting note to the central theme, a low bowl of sweet peas in pastel shades. Place cards were in the birthday motif.

A number of the past officers now live elsewhere or are in the armed forces. Honored were past worthy matrons, Eva Pritchett, Anna Roper, Beulah Weise, Alice Wilkinson, Gertrude Wolfe, all of Tulelake, Mrs. Billy Marie Pritchett, New Mexico; past worthy patrons, Otis Roper, Robert Pritchett, Tulelake, Rance Stover, serving with the Seabees, and Charles Coates, first worthy patron, whose present address is unknown.

Four new members, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Osborne, Mrs. L. C. Kirby, Tulelake, and Mrs. Ruby Wallace, Newell, were initiated.

During the social hour accordion numbers were played by Patty Gentry, several piano numbers by Harriett Coulson, and Mrs. Ruth Fisher read a clever original verse on past matrons of the OES.

Mrs. Ruth Boyd, worthy matron, was in the chair. Mrs. Madge Carey, past worthy matron, of the Malin chapter, was a guest.

MRS. BLANKENSHIP HOSTESS TO PINOCHLE CLUB

Zella Blankenship was hostess to the Lucky Thursday Pinochle club June the third at her home at 312 Martin street. Luncheon was served at one o'clock to Agnes Lowe, Mary Martin, Ruth Sehorn, Florence Young, Estelle Smith, Vera Good, Nettie Good, Maude Phillips, Kate Crowson, Rita Fuller and one guest, Lyla Hunt. Pinochle was played during the afternoon, high score going to Estelle Smith, second to Rita Fuller, low to Lyla Hunt and pinochle to Maude Phillips. The next meeting, June the seventeenth, will be at the home of Kate Crowson, 2243 Darrow avenue.

Friendship Club Meets at Drydens

Mrs. C. W. Stanley and Mrs. C. O. Dryden entertained the Friendship club at the Dryden home, 610 North Eleventh street, on Friday afternoon, May the twenty-eighth. Dessert luncheon was served at half past one o'clock to Cora Kennedy, Bertha Bishop, Margaret Lavin, Louise Lohr, Florence Love, Lora Evans, Bertha Hewitt, Idoline Schupp and the hostesses, Ruth Stanley and Stella Dryden. Bridge was played after luncheon, with Lora Evans holding high score, Idoline Schupp second, and the traveling award going to Bertha Hewitt.

Nile Queen Visits Club

Officers Guests at June Luncheon Meeting in Party Room

Mrs. M. P. Dunn of Ashland, queen of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, paid her official visit to the Klamath Falls Nile club at its June meeting held Tuesday afternoon, with a one o'clock luncheon, in the Pelican party room.

Accompanying Mrs. Dunn to Klamath Falls were Mrs. Matzie, Bates, Mrs. Vernice Enders, past queens, and Mrs. Bessie Travis, now serving as an officer of the temple.

The meeting proved particularly colorful and springlike with the hostesses using arrangements of Hawthorne sprays and peonies, roses mingling with the blue of Brodiaea and the foliage of Mexican orange, from the Sweeney gardens at Medford, and a large vase of dogwood in the background.

The queen was presented with a gift from the club and, in honoring the members with birthdays in June and July, Mrs. Herman Givold received a prize. Awards in bridge for the afternoon's play were received by Mrs. Dunn, the queen, Mrs. J. H. Poppy and Mrs. V. J. Josephson.

A report was made on the number of hours given in work for the Red Cross by Nile members since the first of the year. On the hostess committee were Mrs. Carl Steinfelder, Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Mrs. William Hackler, Mrs. Charles Gilbert and Mrs. Howard Lio-toe. This was the club's last meeting until September when the officers will act as hostesses.

SUPERVISOR VISITOR AT PAST ORACLES

The Past Oracles of the Royal Neighbors of America met on Friday evening, May the twenty-eighth, with Ethel Blake, 1132 Crescent avenue, for their regular monthly meeting, and the state supervisor, Mae Logan of Portland, was a welcome visitor. ## Miss Thomas Weds in Bend

Former Malin Girl Marries in Northern City

MALIN—Miss Evelyn Dolores Thomas, daughter of Mrs. Walter T. Jensen of Bend, Oregon, became the bride of Mr. Ralph Graham of Bend in a ceremony read at the First Presbyterian church of Bend on Saturday, May the fifteenth. The Reverend R. H. Prentice officiated.

The bride was formerly a resident of Malin and is a cousin of Mervyne Wilde of that town. She wore a two-piece beige wool ensemble with accessories of turf tan. She wore a corsage of orchids.

Jean Wilde, a cousin, was the maid of honor. She wore a white suit accented with red accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Best man was Stanley Weichman of Portland. Just before the ceremony, Mrs. Harry Field sang "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Hilda Bush at the piano.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Graham greeted forty relatives and friends at a wedding reception held in the church parlors. Mrs. Bush poured and the cake, cut first by the bride, was served by Mrs. R. V. Prentice.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham are now at home at 1234 Fresno street in Bend. Mr. Graham is a newly appointed member of the fire department and Mrs. Graham is affiliated with the Pacific Fruit and Produce company.

Mrs. Roys Is Speaker

Church Council Member Speaks at Several Meetings

On Tuesday afternoon, June the first, Mrs. Charles K. Roys, a member of the United Council of Church Women staff, spoke to a gathering of women of the city in the parish house of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mrs. John Yaden, local president of the organization, presided and introduced Mrs. Roys whose subject for the afternoon was "The Church Woman Looks at the World" after which she led a discussion of local problems and the ways in which church women may help.

A silver tea followed; Mrs. Howard D. Hannaford poured. Her husband, Rev. Hannaford, is a Presbyterian missionary connected with the Union church at Newell, the Japanese re-location center. Both were missionaries in Japan for several years, having returned last summer on the "Good Hope" which brought home American missionaries and residents of Japan.

The tea table was charming with arrangements of iris and spirea and the same flowers centered the mantelpiece. The tea committee consisted of Hazel Morrison, Mrs. R. H. Radcliff and Mrs. C. F. Scharfenstein.

The meeting on Wednesday evening in the sanctuary of the First Methodist church was attended by a very representative audience, every church in the council being represented, as well as several others. Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church gave the invocation and the speaker was introduced by Mrs. Yaden. Her subject was "The Church — The First Line of Defense." In her introductory remarks Mrs. Roys emphasized the need for church unity, not uniformity, and she also laid stress upon the imperatives for Christian people today as concerns the boys in service and the juvenile question, all of these tied up with local problems. Mrs. T. B. Powers sang "Oh Divine Redeemer" by Gounod and Rev. Theodore Smith delivered the benediction.

Mrs. Moorehead State President

Salem Woman Elected Head of Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. West Delegate

Of interest to women in Klamath Falls is the report that Mrs. George R. K. Moorehead was elected president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Moorehead is the former Jennelle Vandervort of Salem. She has been active in Red Cross work, community concert work and board of health work in the valley city and is well known to many here.

A year ago Mrs. Moorehead was a guest speaker of the Library club. She was sent here by the United States public health service.

The convention was held in Salem and lasted through the second and third of June.

Attending the convention as the delegate from Klamath Falls, Mrs. Walter West traveled to Salem. She is the district president from Klamath county. Mrs. West has been spending the winter in Los Angeles and arrived here this week to spend a few days before going on to Salem.

She is now in Portland where she is stopping with Mrs. Grant Hess. She plans soon to return to Los Angeles where she will stay with her son, Tommy, who is completing his school year.

Edna Ray June Bride

Klamath Girl Weds at Home of Parents on June Third

Wedding bells rang for Edna Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ray, and Private Charles Zeek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeek of Toledo, Oregon. The ceremony was read Thursday, June the third, at three o'clock at the bride's parents' country home.

The bride is a former student at Oregon State college and was affiliated with Delta Zeta sorority. Private Zeek is a junior at Oregon State and will be stationed at Fort Roberts, California when his twelve-day leave is over.

The bride wore a white suit trimmed with pastel embroidery and a small white hat with a white veil. Her corsage was a single orchid pinned at her shoulder.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Martha Ray, daughter of Mrs. Ruth K. Ray of this city. Best man was George Dalton Ray.

Relatives of the bride were the only guests present.
