Portland Cracks Oakland Twice Sunday; Suda Lost to Hollywood

By The Associated Press
Portland strengthened its contending position for a bid for the first division in the Coast league by defeating Oakland twice in yesterday's doubleheader, 3-2 and 5-1. Coupled with Saturday's split in which the Beavers lost the first game 1-2 and won the second 5-0, the wins were enough to push Portland past Hollywood and into fifth place. Seattle lost its series with Hollywood winning only three out of seven games, but nevertheless moved out of the cellar as Los Angeles hung four weekend defeats on Sacramento, now in the cellar.

Hollywood won the 10th inning opener 4 to 3 on a home run by pinch hitter Jim Hill with one aboard. The Rainiers took the short nightcap 7 to 6. The Stars won Saturday, 4 to 1. In one of the prettiest comebacks of the season Los Angeles swept four games from Sacramento. The Solons were blanked twice yesterday, 1 to 0 and 8 to 0 and in the first game Saturday 6 to 0. They managed to score three runs in the second game but they were insignificant beside the Angels 13 run avalanche.

The Angel comeback was disheartening for San Francisco, in second place. The Seals won three out of four weekend contests and still found themselves 6 1/2 games behind the leaders. They defeated San Diego twice yesterday, 3 to 1 and 5 to 2, and split a double bill Saturday by identical scores, 3 to 2. The short scores:

New Rainier Club Slates First Card

SEATTLE, June 7 (AP)—The first boxing card of the newly formed Rainier Athletic club will be staged June 21 at the civic arena. Matchmaker Tony Palazola, who came from San Francisco to handle boxing for the club, said yesterday the headliners would be Jimmy Florida, Stockton, Calif., Filipino, and Lupe Gonzales, Los Angeles Mexican boxer. They are lightweight.

The Rainier club was organized by Bill Mulligan, business manager of the Seattle Rainiers of the Pacific Coast Baseball league.

Dodgers Out Of 1st Spot In National

Shortstop Trouble Worries Brooklyn; Redbirds Top Senior Circuit

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Brooklyn Dodgers are out of first place and in a dither. The curious club which led the National league from the start of the season until last week-end, when it slipped into the shadow of the St. Louis Cardinals, is afflicted with a malady known as acute sensitivity of the shortstop. This has been a sore spot all the while the Dodgers have been stumbling through the west. Manager Leo Durocher, once one of the flashiest fielders of them all, has remained on the active list this season presumably just to step into situations such as this, yet for reasons best known to himself he has not played a single game this season.

In recent days he has shuffled Arky Vaughan, Rookie Boyd Bartley and Reserve Catcher Bob Bragan in and out of the job with no credit to anyone. Yesterday the Dodgers managed to beat the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in the first game of a doubleheader, but were shellacked 11-5 in the nightcap and misadventures by Bartley and Bragan, sharing the shortstop role, set up situations which enabled the Cubs to score eight of their 11 runs. They clustered five tallies in the fourth inning and four in the sixth.

Meanwhile weather limited the Cardinal's game with the Phillies to five innings and a 1-1 tie. Their second game was postponed, leaving the Redbirds high, if not dry, and half a game on top of the senior circuit.

Weather also forced postponement of the Boston Braves' second game at Cincinnati, but the two teams got in a 14-inning opener which the Reds finally won 4-3 on Eddie Miller's single with the bases loaded. Elmer Riddle, going the route, allowed no Boston runs after the first inning.

In the other National league action Pittsburgh made 25 runs to the New York Giants' one in sweeping a doubleheader, 18-1 and 7-0. Bob Klinger pitched five-hit ball behind the Bucco's 18-hit barrage in the first game and Jack Hallett followed with a four-hit shutout.

The New York Yankees preserved their margin in front of the American league with a pair of victories over the St. Louis Browns, 2-1 in 11 innings and 10-6. The first game, which was a duel between Pitchers Al Hollingsworth and Atley Donald and was decided on three singles in the eleventh. Two home runs by John Lindell and one by Nick Etten, who together drove in eight runs, easily took the nightcap.

Washington's second place Senators, a game behind New York, won twice from Detroit,

5-1 and 8-4. All the Senators' runs in the first game were bunched in the second inning. Their scoring in the after-piece was spread out with Mickey Vernon hitting a triple, double and two singles and stealing two bases.

Boston's Red Sox nosed out Chicago twice 4-3 and 3-2 with ninth-inning rallies and Cleveland divided a doubleheader with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's scored ten runs in the seventh and eighth frames of the first game to win 12-5 and then were shutout 3-0 in the second by John Salverson.

The weekend skirmishing ended the intersectional round in the two leagues and all clubs will be idle today and tomorrow except Brooklyn and Pittsburgh, which are billed for a night game tonight on the Pirates' grounds.

Challenge to Trojan Supremacy Expected At Evanston Track Meet

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
EVANSTON, Ill., June 7 (AP)—This weekend may climax one of the most successful track seasons in Coach Emil von Elling's 29 years at New York University.

The Violets of NYU are given a good chance of blooming into national collegiate track champions Friday and Saturday, taking the team title back east for the first time in the meet's 22-year history. Pacific coast schools have won 15 of the last 21 crowns. Southern California's Trojans have bagged 11 of them, eight in a row.

But the Trojans' trust is expected to be broken up, with NYU, California, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota and Missouri regarded as the chief challengers among the 38 teams entered. Defending champions will appear in five of the 15 events—Minnesota's Jack DeField in the pole vault, California's Hal Davis in the 100 and 220, Southern Cal's Cliff Bourland in the 440 and Ohio State's Dallas Dupre in the broad jump.

NYU, the IC4A champion, will be represented by Bernard Mayer in the shotput, Ed Connell in the sprints, Captain Frank Cotter and Charles Grohsberger in the middle distances, Leonard Bates in the discus, Ray Zuelner in the mile and Warren Halblut in the hurdles.

Mayer, winner of the indoor national AAU shotput with a toss of 52 feet, 4 1/2 inches, will meet his strongest rival, G. C. Brown of Annapolis, who beat him in the IC4A. Two other athletes entered from the U. S. naval academy are W. C. Patton, IC4A javelin champion with a mark of 193 feet, and J. W. Pettit, who recently matched Davis' winning century time in NCAA last year of 39.6.

Among other standout performers are Ralph Tate of Oklahoma Aggies in the broad jump; Louis Futrell and Jack Patten of Fresno State and Bill Cummins of Rice Institute in the hurdles; Willet Smith of Stanford in the high jump; Elmer Ausseker of Missouri in the shot put; Bob Kelley of Illinois and Eugene Swaney of the University of Washington in the middle distance; Clarence Dunn of Illinois, Bob Porter of Rice and Don Burnham of Dartmouth in the mile; and Charlie Shaw of Cornell university in the sprints.

Mike Fisher, 81, One of Coast Loop Founders, Passes

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7 (AP)—Mike Fisher, 81, one of the founders of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, died here yesterday after a two weeks' illness. Fisher, who picked his own middle name, thus becoming Michael Angelo Fisher was a colorful figure in the Pacific coast baseball world.

He assembled an all star baseball team and toured the orient in 1907. He told of wheeling his gate receipts to his hotel in a wheelbarrow after a game in China, and said that after counting half the night he found he had $7 in American exchange value.

Fisher obtained the Sacramento franchise when the coast league was organized in 1903. He previously had operated a California state league club in the state capital.

Later he moved the franchise to Tacoma, a nod still later to Fresno. He dropped out of organized baseball in 1907.

Husky Trackmen Go to Evanston

SEATTLE, June 7 (AP)—Seven University of Washington track men, including four northern division coast conference champions, will leave for Evanston, Ill., today to compete in the national intercollegiate June 11 and 12.

The titleholders are Evert Pitman, 440; Tom Kamm, broad jump; Dick Yantis, discus, and Bill Kidd, javelin. The others are Bob Smith, sprinter, Gene Swaney, half miler, and Ron Garretson, hurdler.

Sports Briefs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—The other day Col. Dick Hanley of the marines, former big time college coach, told the Washington Touchdown club that the only good reason for football is that it helps entertain the boys overseas. . . . If football coaches want to do a real service, said Dick, they can take the kids who never have played football and tougher 'em up. Fellows who have played the game don't need that extra training. Of course, you might argue, that's just what they do. If there wasn't any football there wouldn't be that group which is ahead of the rest in physical condition. Even though the footballers represent less than one per cent of the men in the armed forces.

QUOTE, UNQUOTE
Also from Hanley: "Those kids overseas gobble up what news they can get about sports and short wave broadcasts of games entertain them. That's football's biggest service in time of war."

Pvt. Mike Jarmoluk, Temple's 282-pnd freshman tackle who recently was called up with the army enlisted reserves, will have to stay at the New Cumberland, Pa., reception center a month longer than his teammates who were inducted with him. It will take the quartermaster's dept. that long to get an overcoat made to fit him—and probably it will take even longer to get Mike into an overcoat, the way the weather has been lately. . . . The recent hitting streaks of Lou Klein and Stan Musial of the Cardinals led Seaman Bernard Kahn of the Jacksonville, Fla., naval air station to recall that he knew them when Lou was a $75 a month shortstop and Stan a $125 pitcher-outfielder for the class "D" Daytona Beach Florida State League club. They led the team to pennant then and, now that they're teammates again, maybe you can guess what sports Editor Kahn is thinking. . . . When ex-Tiger Barney McCosky landed at the navy flight prep school at Wooster, Ohio, he didn't think he'd be eligible for the college baseball team so he didn't bring his glove and shoes. He was nearly right, too. He played only one game because he had no time to practice.

Swedish Runner Objects to Gotham as Training Ground

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—It took only a 15-minute ride from the LaGuardia airport to a midtown hotel to convince Gunder Haegg that New York City isn't a place for a Swedish country boy to get in shape for a series of foot races.

"The heat is oppressive and will be my trouble here," he panted through an interpreter after asking Lars Ekelund, New York paper mogul and his chief adviser while in the United States, to find him a training site with "fewer buildings, fewer people and less heat."

Dartmouth's tree studded campus, Princeton, Bear mountain and several Long Island resorts are under consideration although the holder of seven world records at distances from 1500 to 5000 meters has another work-out scheduled for Columbia university's Baker field late today.

Haegg arrived at New Orleans Saturday after an ocean voyage on a safe conduct tanker that left his native Sweden on May 10. Although he had the benefit of a special 400-yard steel track aboard ship, the Gaevle fireman gained nine pounds on the journey.

Although he said he was far out of condition and needed at least seven weeks of training, Haegg said he would compete in at least one race in the national AAU championships at Randall's island June 19 and 20.

"I will be a sportsman," he answered by the translation of Sven Dahlman, first secretary of the Swedish legation in Washington, "and I have been told that American track fans are sportsmen and will understand." Previously he had been quoted as saying he would not be in shape for any competition until July 1, at the earliest.

Although he would not be definite, Haegg indicated he would oppose Greg Rice in the 5000 meters at the nationals and pass up the 1500 meter duel with Gil Dodds, although the visitor later classified himself as a miler in preference to the longer races. He showed further disdain for $5, "right down to 'one sack oats, $3.65 and one shank, $1.' . . . 'That totals $47.65 and I'll throw in a tub and a bucket,' Jack offered. . . . 'But what will you take for the horse?' Bill asked. . . . 'Oh,' Meier explained, 'Tabellarius goes with the shank.'"

STRANGE MUSIC—If the Sphinx could hear, he probably would be amazed at the strange music being played by Peggy Iris and Margaret Fraser of the English Dagenham Girl Pipers during a tour of Egypt's Western Desert battle zones.

LESS DRIVING—MORE SERVICE?

In many cases, the effect of wartime conditions on car driving is a considerable reduction in the distance a car travels every month.

And the strange effect of this is that it can happen that less driving may create a need for more service.

Official sources have said that any car which travels less than 90 miles a month does not get enough "exercise" to keep in good "trim." While this low mileage may not always prevail here, the same kind of logic calls for a recasting of ideas about servicing.

That's why it is a smart move to go into the details of possible special servicing requirements resulting from wartime driving. A good car dealer is always glad to talk over problems concerned with car care and driving habits, and is always glad to give helpful advice.

If the way you use your car now is changed to any extent from peacetime habits, it may have made necessary a new slant on the attention you give it. It pays to know about such possibilities and make sure your car is getting the proper attention whether it results in more service or less.
