

Logging Truckers Receive Warning

SALEM, June 9 (AP)—The state highway commission today warned logging truckers that they will have their permits cancelled if they do not comply with restrictions on loads. The commission said logging trucks have been causing considerable damage to highways.

State Store Wine Measure Referred

SALEM, June 9 (AP)—Completed referendum petitions containing more than 10,000 signatures were filed in the state department late yesterday against the 1943 legislature's bill to give state liquor stores a monopoly of the sale of fortified wines. The bill will be on the 1944 general election ballot. Only 9408 signatures were needed.

LOVE ME, LOVE MY DOG

MARTINEZ, Calif., (AP)—Thomas Heaton of the planning commission staff wants the federal public housing authority ruling against dogs in government trailer camps rescinded. The two government camps are only 30 per cent occupied, he complains—while private camps, where dogs are welcome, are filled to twice their planned capacity.

HE WON, ANYWAY

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—The state supreme court's decision affirming a $179,461.07 verdict for 382 present and former city employees seeking back pay brought some cheer to George Anderson, city hospital employee. Some, but not much. He sued for $300 and he gets 92 cents.
