

Pelicans Crack Newell's Army Team, 14-7 Sunday

Local Team Takes Off In First Inning; Redding On Slate for Next Sunday's Game

The Klamath Pelican Baseball club won a decisive victory over the Camp Newell army baseball team by thoroughly trouncing them 14 to 7 on their home field Sunday afternoon.

Led by Romo "Creepy" Crespi, Floyd Shipman, Hi Hatfield and Orlo Oakes, who each connected for two safe blows, the Pelicans started the fireworks in the first inning when six runs crossed the plate and were never again overtaken.

Leading army hitters were Chrisman, Cox and Sullivan. Cox and Chrisman connected for doubles while Sullivan got two safeties.

Bill Jones and Floyd Shipman got the only extra base blows for the Pelicans. The Pelicans play field was sparked by "Scotty" Smith, who went over behind first base to snag a ball which was deflected off the glove hand of Jim Bocchi and retired the runner by whipping the ball back to Bocchi.

The next Pelican game will be against the Redding team at Redding this coming Sunday.

Tom Michom managed the club successfully in Sunday's game, bringing home the second Pelican victory of the year.

Haegg and Rice Expected to Run In 5000-Meter

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—Gunder Haegg's decision to try for the 5000 meter title Sunday in the National AAU track championship's virtually sets up the first of his awaited duels with Greg Rice.

"Rice hasn't formally entered but is expected to do so shortly, despite the long and loud lament concerning his condition. Both Haegg, who established seven world records in Sweden last summer and now is in training at Hanover, N. H., and Rice, winner of 65 consecutive races, have complained of their poor form with such ease and regularity in the past week that AAU officials are positive neither could be winded in a mere 5000 meters. That's three miles plus 188 yards in U. S. measure.

Rainiers and Beavers Cut Double Bill

Portland Drops Back After Bid for First Division Spot; Angels Win Twice

By The Associated Press. Although they may be but a weak echo of some of the Seattle teams of the past, the Rainiers still can turn it on when they meet Portland.

The arch rivals wound up a series yesterday at Seattle, splitting a twin bill by identical scores, 2-1, thereby giving the Rainiers the series, four games to three.

The series win lifted the Rainiers a little further above last place Sacramento and pulled the Beavers down into sixth place after a determined bid for a first division berth had boosted them up to fifth.

Hal Turpin hurled a neat six-hitter in the first game, but the Beavers found the range on Ed Carnett in the second. Despite the closeness of the scores, both games were ragged, with Seattle in particular failing to take advantage of scoring opportunities offered by a total of 17 hits in the two games. The Rainiers won twice on Saturday, 4-0 and 5-4.

The Los Angeles-San Francisco doubleheader was something of a donnybrook with Seals and Seal fans bickering noisily with the umpires as the Angels took two contests, both by 7-2 scores. Manager Lefty O'Doul was banished from the first game and Seal supporters put on a bottle bombardment. Second Sacker Del Young argued too long over a decision in the second, was banished and another bottle shower ensued. Neither demonstration had any noticeable effect on the Angels first place 7-1 game lead. The Seals won Saturday, 3-2 in 11 innings.

San Diego also took a pair from Sacramento, both shutouts, 1-0 and 3-0. Charley Schanz pitched the first victory and Frankie Dasso the second. The Solons won both Saturday games.

Fifth place Hollywood narrowed its option on an upper division berth to half a game by splitting a pair with Oakland. The Stars dropped the first 4-3 but took the second 3-1 to grab series honors four games to three. Hollywood won Saturday, 6-2.

Rotary-Sponsored Utah Lad Makes Mark at NCAA Event

EVANSTON, Ill., June 14 (AP)—Although three of four defending champions retained their titles in the national collegiate track and field meet, it remained for a freshman—Fred Sheffield of Utah—to produce one of the best marks.

The lanky westerner sailed over the 8 foot 8 inch level to win the high jump championship Saturday. This endeavor was several inches shy of the record, but it represented Sheffield's best jump in his career and topped last year's winning leap by 1 inch.

This was the youngster's way of showing his appreciation to members of the Salt Lake City Rotary club who chipped in enough money to sponsor his trip after the University of Utah had decided not to send him. He barely arrived in time to compete.

Only other athlete to surpass a winning mark of last year was Broad Jumper Bill Christopher of Rice with a leap of 24 feet 7 1/2 inches.

Stiff cross winds cut down performances on the track. Hal Davis of California retained his 100 and 220-yard sprint titles and Cliff Bourland of UCLA repeated in the 440. But their times were from two to four seconds slower than those of last summer.

Bill Cummins of Rice, winner of both hurdle races, and Davis were the only "double" victors and shared individual honors with 20 points apiece. Nebraska's weightman, Howard Debus, was third with 19.

Represented by a foursome which scored in five of the 14 events, Southern California rolled up 46 points to win its ninth straight team title and its 12th in 23 years.

California was second with 39 points, but would have edged out the Trojans by taking a second in the two-mile run, next to last event on the program. The Bears' entry, Ralph Dewey, who earlier had finished second in the mile, developed a cramp and had to quit the race after staying on the pace through a mile and a half.

Rice was third with 36 points, followed by New York U. with 32 and Minnesota with 31. From there, the field slipped off sharply Nebraska taking sixth with 19 points.

ROOKIE—Boyd O. Bartley (above), rookie shortstop of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is attempting the difficult task of jumping directly from the college diamonds to the major leagues.

Coast Grid Moguls Meet

Conference Football Sure To Be Continued This Year, Says Prexy

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4 (AP)—Pacific Coast conference representatives tackle a long list of difficult problems as their meeting opens here today, but the No. 1 question has already been decided.

Conference President John W. Olmsted says Coast conference football will continue this fall, despite the war, player shortages, and transportation problems.

The UCLA man called a halt to any discussion of suspending the big loop for the duration by issuing a statement in which he said emphatically, "We are not here to decide whether Coast conference football and other sports shall continue, but how they shall be continued."

Then he added, "They are going to continue because the services themselves believe in their value; because the public, the universities and the colleges believe in their value and because this and other conferences believe in their value."

And in that mention of the "services" President Olmsted hit upon a touchy subject. Conflicting policies of the army and navy make it quite possible that some schools may find some of their own best men playing against alma mater on rival teams.

Ebright to Leave California Berth

BERKELEY, Calif., June 14 (AP)—After 19 years of coaching crew racing at the University of California, Coach Carroll M. (Ky) Ebright will leave the staff July 1 and the sport will be dropped for the duration.

Clinton W. Evans, Associated Students general manager, announced that financial considerations and lack of student time to participate influenced the athletic board in its decision.

Evans said he hoped Ebright would be able to return to his post at California after the war. Germans don't stand still. Brilliant and imaginative German scientists, designers and producers are constantly striving to snatch the lead from us. Our answers are new tactics, new equipment, new training—Sir Archibald Sinclair, British air minister.

Game Commish Tentatively Decides On 6000 Doe Tags For Lake-Klamath

PORTLAND, June 14 (AP)—There'll be more meat on the tables of Oregon hunters this fall if tentative regulations are approved by the state game commission here June 28.

The commission, after appealing to federal officials for additional gasoline and ammunition for hunters Saturday, proposed to liberalize regulations.

An open season on doe deer was authorized for three new areas with 9900 doe tags to be issued compared to 3000 last year.

The pheasant season was lengthened generally from two to three weeks. The antelope season in southeastern Oregon was extended from 7 to 18 days.

Two thousand special cow elk tags were set aside for the Milam, Weneha and North Powder areas of northeastern Oregon.

The deer season was scheduled from October 1 to November 3, a week later than usual.

in an attempt to decrease early autumn fire hazards. Doe tags to be issued for the Stevens mountain area will total 1000, Hart mountain refuge 400, Lake-Klamath county area 6000, and Grant county area, the only doe area open last year, 2500 tags again.

Here's Lake-Klamath Doe Shooting Area

Starting at northeast corner of Klamath Indian reservation (at junction with Klamath-Lake boundary south of Sycan marsh) south to Highway 88 (west of Bly), thence along road to Bonanza, thence following road which comes into Oregon-California boundary at Langell Valley, thence east on state boundary to the road which goes in northerly direction through Adel and Plush and takes off in northwesterly direction 9 miles north of Plush and comes into Highway 393 above Lake Abert, thence south along 395 to Valley Falls, thence northwesterly along Highway 31 to junction of 31 with Fremont forest boundary, thence south on arc to Klamath-Lake boundary and west on Klamath-Lake line to point of beginning at corner Indian reservation.

The antelope season will be from September 18 to October 3. Dates for the western Oregon pheasant season:

Columbia, Multnomah, Clackamas, Washington and Yamhill counties—October 18-22 with the bag limit three cocks a day, six in possession at any one time.
 Polk, Marion, Benton, Linn, Lane and Coos counties—October 18-27 with the limit three a day, eight in possession but not more than one hen in possession at any time.

 Eastern Oregon pleasant dates: Malheur county—October 16-November 25 with the limit six birds a day but not more than one hen or 18 birds but not more than three hens at any one time.

Umatilla, Baker, Wallowa, Union and Hood River—October 16-November 7 with the limit four cocks a day, eight in possession.

Klamath county—November 15-30 with the limit four cocks a day, eight in possession.
 Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, Morrow, Grant, Crook, Deschutes, Harney, Jefferson, Lake and Wheeler—October 16-31 with the limit four cocks a day, eight in possession.

Because of a small crop of birds the season was ordered closed on sooty or blue grouse, but regulations otherwise remained the same for grouse, quail and partridge.

Groggy Giants Lose Three Of 4 Games, Brush Bottom

By JUDSON BAILEY Associated Press Sports Writer. The New York Giants, once the proudest team in baseball, are brushing close to the bottom of the National league and rapidly becoming an object of scorn both for the fans and for rival clubs.

In two doubleheaders over the weekend the Groggy Giants lost three out of four games to the hustling Philadelphia Phillies and dropped within half a game of last place.

Except for Carl Hubbell, they would be there now, too, for the Giants have dropped 11 of their last 13 decisions and Hubbell has accounted for the only two victories they have scored since May 30.

Hubbell, who used to be called Bill Terry's meal ticket, still is the bread and butter man of the Giants. No longer the pitcher he used to be, he nevertheless Shut out the Pittsburgh Pirates on one hit June 5 and yesterday held the Phillies to seven as New York won the first game of a doubleheader, 6-2 before 14,593 paying customers, second smallest crowd of the day in the major leagues.

The Giants gave him plenty of help with 16 hits, three of them homers, but they quieted down in the nightcap which the Phillies won 6-3 with a four-run rally in the ninth. This out-break was climaxed by Babe Dahlgren's double with the bases loaded.

Nate Andrews beat the Dodgers 4-3 in the opener at Ebbets field and Billy Herman decided the nightcap in Brooklyn's favor 3-2 with a two-run homer, his first of the year, in the eighth inning.

At St. Louis the Pirates scored seven runs in the first inning of their first game, in which they made 16 hits to win 10-3, but the second session went 12 innings to a 4-4 tie before darkness fell.

In the other National league affair Cincinnati split with Chicago. The Reds made 20 hits in the first game, rolling up a total of 48 safeties in their first three games against the Cubs, and winning 10-6. But Bill Lee stopped them on seven hits in the afterpiece which the Cubs won 4-1.

The New York Yankees' five-game winning streak was snapped at Philadelphia as the Athletics swept a doubleheader 3-3 and 3-2. A squeeze bunt by Jojo White brought in the deciding runs in the first game and Jim Tyack, who had singled to tie the score in the opener, batted in all three of the A's runs in the nightcap with a triple and a single.

This helped Washington shave a game off the Yankees' lead as the Senators split a pair at Boston. They took the first 16-5 with an 18-hit offensive, but were shut out 7-0 by the fourth hurling of Tex Hughson in the second session.

Detroit took charge of third place by beating the Chicago White Sox twice, 6-4 and 3-2. Tommy Bridges, allowing only nine hits and fanning nine, was responsible for the first victory and Rudy York played a major role in the second, driving in two runs with a pair of doubles.

The Cleveland Indians saved themselves from a complete rout by the St. Louis Browns by winning the second game of their doubleheader after they had lost the first four contests of a five-game series. The Browns took yesterday's opener 3-1 with the Indians capturing the second 2-1 in ten innings.

It will be the little kids' luck for the spinach crop to be a whopper this year.

Armstrong Bout At Portland May Be Called Off

PORTLAND, June 14 (AP)—A Henry Armstrong-Jimmy Garrison bout, originally scheduled in Portland July 13, was in doubt today.

Armstrong was forced to a two-month layoff by a gashed mouth suffered in his fight with Sammy Angott in New York last Friday and the bout here was postponed. The Portland boxing commission tentatively rescheduled it for August.

But another Armstrong fight, one with Willie Joyce in Los Angeles June 26, also was postponed, and the California state boxing commission is demanding that Armstrong appear there in August. New York promoters also are at work on a bout between Armstrong and Beau Jack or Bob Montgomery that month.

Garrison, however, will go in to action this week, fighting Cleo McNeal, a Cleveland negro welterweight, in a double main-event here Friday night.

Joe Kahut, the Woodburn boy recently graduated to main-event class, will be in the other ten-rounder of the evening, meeting Big Boy Hogue of Jacumba Hot Springs, Calif.
