

Three Charged With Murder in Liquor Store Holdup

SEATTLE, June 24 (AP)—The first degree murder of a Renton liquor store manager in a hold-up in May, 1940, has been charged to a woman and two men, one of them a prisoner in the North Dakota state penitentiary, by Chief Criminal Deputy Floyd M. Relschling. Relschling said extradition from North Dakota had been granted for James Dalton, alias James Dawson. He named the woman as Mrs. Olive Newton Wilson, about 35, who was arrested in Spokane Monday, and the other man as Ernest Throckmorton, also in custody.

GOES FOR A RIDE MIDDLETOWN, Conn., (AP)—"I've just ridden 30 miles from Southington on my bike and bought a pony," said a childish voice on the telephone to OPA official Frank C. Dwyer. "How am I going to get him home?" So to string out what he thought was a gag, Dwyer said it would be all right for the pony to ride if it was a legitimate change of address, but he would have to check on the trip. An hour later a car drew up to his office, a smiling man at the wheel, a grinning boy beside him, and a pony which Dwyer swears was laughing in the back seat. Once more golf fiends are moving heaven and earth to improve their score—mostly earth.
