LOCAL YOUTHS JOIN OREGON GREEN GUARD

Young people from this county who are not yet old enough to work in war industries, but who still want to contribute something to winning the war during the summer vacation, are turning to the Green Guard youth division of the Keep Oregon Green association as a chance to do a real job.

Many of the youth of this county were members last year. These people are asked to contact headquarters so they may be sent service stripes to wear with their Green Guard emblems. Among the newest members of this state-wide forest fire prevention group to sign membership cards are 4-H club boys and girls who enlisted at their annual summer school in Corvallis. Those who enrolled from this county are Dorothy June Peugh, Charles Deer, Daniel E. Hoffman, Andrew Bergloff, all of Klamath Falls; Colene Herrick of Merrill, Sally Zadow of Sprague River, Helen Gowen and Donald Clark of Bonanza; Ted Thoreson, Doris Ethridge, both of Klamath Agency.

VEST-SAVER, TOO
LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Rationing has helped linen concerns, says S. K. Miller, secretary of the Southern California Linen Supply association.

She explains it has resulted in a decrease of 20 to 30 per cent in fruit and juice stains on dwindling supplies of table cloths and napkins.

NO SOUVENIRS?
LOS ANGELES, (AP)—It was something like a rodeo, after the cattle truck caught fire.

Spectators quickly gathered, and managed to corral the eleven cattle freed from the truck. The owner took them all away.
