CRUSADE TO END MEETINGS SUNDAY NIGHT

The Klamath Revival Crusade is scheduled to close with the Sunday night service, according to the Rev. C. C. Brown.

The attendance has grown daily since the beginning of the crusade. The audiences have been delighted with the Rev. Tidwell's ministry in the city. Mr. Tidwell is an old-fashioned evangelist in a modern world, and the congregation likes his messages and his manner of preaching," Mr. Brown states.

It has been decided to conduct a Saturday night service for the benefit of many who cannot attend during the week. All service men, business men and working men are urged to hear the Rev. Tidwell speak on "The Kind of Religion I Want."

"The Great Supper" is the subject for Friday night. Sunday at 11 a. m. the services will be conducted at the church, Eighth and Washington streets. The subject for that service is, "The Man of Sorrows." At the closing service Sunday night the evangelist will speak on the subject, "What Think Ye of Christ?"

The public is invited to attend the closing services of the Klamath Revival Crusade.

For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it will tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.'" (Hab. 2:2,3).

The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Science derives its sanction from the Bible, and the divine origin of Science is demonstrated through the holy influence of Truth in healing sickness and sin. This healing power of Truth must have been far anterior to the period in which Jesus lived. It is as ancient as 'the Ancient of days.' It lives through all life and extends throughout all space."
