

Miss Constans Is Recent Bride

Klamath Girl Weds Lieutenant Loft in Ceremony Read in Sacramento on Wednesday

Miss Margaret Constans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Constans of 1931 Huron street, became the bride on Wednesday, June the twenty-third, of Lieutenant Rodney Loft of the United States army air corps in a ceremony read in the chapel of the Methodist church in Sacramento.

The service was read at half past seven o'clock with only members of the immediate families present.

Miss Constans wore a blue suit and matching hat for the occasion and a corsage of roses was fastened to her shoulder. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride had no attendants and her brother, Willard Constans, Jr., was the best man.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Loft and the two families have been long-time friends.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Constans wore a dark blue suit with a matching hat and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Loft also chose a dark blue suit with a felt hat, and she, too, wore a corsage of gardenias.

The chapel was decorated for the wedding with soft lighted candles and flowers.

After the ceremony, members of the two families enjoyed a wedding dinner in a dining room of the Senator Hotel in Sacramento.

After the dinner the couple left for Minneapolis, Minnesota, but later will make their home in Rapid City, South Dakota, where Lieutenant Loft is stationed.

Mrs. Loft graduated a few years ago from Carleton university in Minnesota.

MRS. WILBUR JONES RETURNS AFTER VISIT

Mrs. Wilbur Jones of 203 High street returned on Sunday after spending eight days visiting her children and grandchildren, the Lawrence Mehaffys of Antioch, California, and the Carl Newburys at Walnut Creek, California. Mrs. Jones made the trip south with her son Wilbur W. Jones and his wife who had been guests at the Jones home here for a week.

On her return to Klamath Falls, Mrs. Jones was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Mehaffey, her granddaughter, Miss Nancy Newbury, and her grandson, Donald Colver Newbury. Donald completed his sophomore year at the University of California in Berkeley in May and is now in the US navy reserve. He will report back to the university on July the first for the navy college training course.

Mrs. Jones and her guests spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Medford where they were guests of another son, Attorney Don Newbury and his family. Mrs. Mehaffey, Donald and Nancy left by train Thursday morning for their California homes.

FORMER KLAMATH MAN MARRIES IN PORTLAND

Of interest to many of his friends in Klamath Falls and Modoc Point is the news of the marriage of Mr. Eugene Frederick Grant, now living in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to Miss Evelyn Mildred Dully of Portland.

The double ring ceremony was read in the Moreland Presbyterian church in Portland. Rev. John MacLaine Paxton officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Dully, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white lace and marquisette dress with a fingertip veil and carried a nosegay of gardenias.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Charles Grant of Modoc Point. He is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and has lived here and in Modoc Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant are now at home at 100 West Hutchinson street, Edgewood, Pennsylvania.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN FOR MRS. CARL SWANSON

Mrs. Carl Swanson was honored at a luncheon on Sunday, June the twentieth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Patty on Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Swanson left Tuesday to make her home in Alameda, California, where Mr. Swanson is now working. They formerly made their home on Oregon avenue.

The luncheon was held at four o'clock and those honoring Mrs. Swanson were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lekberg, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Waldin, Marjorie Rukhala, Valerie Saurberg, Mrs. Lena Johnson and Mr. Floyd Patty.

Miss Johnson In New York

Klamath Girl Enjoys Festivities of June Week at Annapolis

Interesting news comes home from Barbara Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, who is staying on in New York and working there for a time.

Barbara left in May for Annapolis to enjoy all the thrills of June Week at the United States naval academy. She was the houseguest of Mrs. H. G. Maison of Salem and daughter, Mollie Jean, who have been living in a perfectly lovely old home, built around 1774, and overlooking Chesapeake bay. The admiral, who leased the residence to Mrs. Maison, is on duty in the Pacific.

Following June Week, Mrs. Maison chaperoned her daughter and son, Ensign Mack Maison, and others, including Barbara to make up a party of seven to have a whirl in New York before Mack left for active duty. Among the party was Florence Duffy, also of Salem. While in New York, Mollie Jean Maison and Barbara took an apartment and found themselves jobs. The apartment, right across from that of Mayor LaGuardia, is in an interesting part of New York. Mrs. Maison saw the two comfortably installed before she returned home.

MRS. REED HOSTESS FOR LUNCHEON

Mrs. Nelson Reed was hostess at a buffet luncheon in the Pelican party room at one o'clock Friday afternoon, the affair complimenting Mrs. Alfred Reed of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Wilbur Telford, a recent bride.

Guests were seated at small tables which were centered with summer flowers. Some thirty five were invited to greet Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Telford.

MISS COLLIER IS BRIDE OF TODAY

A four o'clock this afternoon, Saturday, in the chapel of the Presidio, San Francisco, Eleanor Collier, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier of LeRoy street, became the bride of Captain Frederick Ehlers, United States army.

The Collier family is expected home the first of the coming week with all the thrilling details of the wedding.

Mrs. E. D. Lamb Attends Meeting

Winter Food Conference Held in Portland on June 19 Emphasizing Food Production

Attending the winter food garden conference held in Portland on June the nineteenth was Mrs. E. D. Lamb, who went in her capacity as president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs. The conference was held in the Portland-Multnomah county defense headquarters and included delegates from Oregon and Washington.

Opening the meeting was Frank S. Gaines of Oakland, California, who attended the national food conference in Hot Springs, South Carolina, last month.

Emphasized at the meeting was the fact that every person should produce as much of his own food as possible in order to avoid a serious food shortage. The meeting was devoted to subjects related to food growth and preservation. Features of the convention were the reports given by victory garden councils and state extension services.

Near the end of the program Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Emma Haag Gorham, president of the Washington state Federation of Garden clubs, gave their reports on what the women of the garden clubs have been doing to conserve and preserve food supplies.

Mrs. Lamb reported that the Oregon Federation, which is made up of 3000 members, last year canned and other-

LETTIE STEWART

Lettie Stewart left for Iowa State university this week to start work on her master's degree. She recently graduated from Oregon State college. —Kathleen Livingston

Reames Party To Be Tonight

Reames Members and Guests to Be Entertained At First of Summer Parties

One of the first parties of the summer season is to be given tonight at the Reames Golf and Country club at the clubhouse. Reames members and their guests will be entertained at a dinner dance and a four-piece orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

Chairmen of the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swanson and they are assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Rugh, and Dr. and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter.

The party will start at about half past seven o'clock and dinner will be served then.

Tables will be arranged about the edge of the room in cabaret style where guests will be seated at individual tables. Bridge will be enjoyed by a few during the evening. Decorations will be bright colored spring flowers around the room.

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET AT O'CONNOR RANCH

The Klamath Falls Garden club is going ahead with plans to meet at the Hugh O'Connor ranch on the Merrill road on Monday, June the twenty eighth. Half past twelve is the hour set for the meeting.

All those women who are planning to attend and have extra room in their car or those who need transportation are asked to call Mrs. Horace Getz. Also those going are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Getz immediately.

Mrs. Steiger Is Winner

Final of Lamm Tournament Played Friday At Reames Golf Club

Mrs. J. J. Steiger emerged as the winner of the Lamm tournament in the finals played Friday afternoon at Reames Golf and Country club. Runner up was Mrs. Martin Swanson.

In the first flight, Mrs. Charles V. Rugh was the winner with second place going to Mrs. P. A. Albertson. The guest prize of the afternoon went to Mrs. Carl W. Huson. Last week this prize was awarded to Mrs. William J. Grove and Mrs. P. A. Albertson.

Yesterday's game ended the spring tournaments for the season. The next one will be started in September.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson and Mrs. Lafayette Stevens.

OPA PARTY GIVEN AT LOMBARD HOME

A combined going-away party for Miss Lillian Davis, who left Thursday night for a visit to Seattle, and a "Farewell OPA" party was held Wednesday night at the home of Miss Ruth Lombard, 2318 Garden.

The guests played cards, with high prizes going to Mrs. Ella G. Hilton, and Mrs. Doris May, and low prizes to Mrs. Mildred Kissler and Mrs. Lavinia Shellhorn. Refreshments were served.

Guests attending the party were Mrs. Ella Hilton, Mrs. June Baughman, Mrs. Alice Triplett, Mrs. Mildred Kissler, Miss Lillian Davis, Miss Margaret Lavin, Miss Virginia Tyrrell, Miss Betty Lombard, Miss Shirley Davis, Miss Geneva Obrist, Mrs. Doris May, Mrs. Lavinia Shellhorn, and the hostess, Miss Ruth Lombard.

Mrs. Charles Hovey and Mrs. Maurice Spatz and two children, Tommy and Marty, have been recent visitors in Klamath Falls. They are now visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Elliott of Klamath Agency. Mrs. Spatz and her children are from Medford and are well-known here. Mrs. Hovey has just returned from Yamhill where she has taught school for the past year.

Miss Stewart Goes East

Klamath Girl to Attend Iowa State University To Obtain Degree

Leaving this past week for Iowa City, Iowa, was Miss Lettie Stewart of Klamath Falls. Miss Stewart plans to begin work on her master's degree while attending Iowa State university. She will be working at the university hospital there.

Miss Stewart graduated earlier this month from Oregon State college where she majored in and received a bachelor of science degree in home economics.

She will be stationed at the Iowa college for a year and her course will be a dietetics internship.

After returning home from college, Miss Stewart stayed at the Arthur Wilson home on Washington street until her departure for the middle west.

MRS. PORTER HONORED AT WEST HOME

MERRILL—Honoring Mrs. Robert Porter, formerly of Klamath Falls and now residing in Washington, Mrs. Dale West on Friday evening invited a number of guests from out of town and from Merrill for a social hour. Sharing honors with Mrs. Porter were Mrs. Rex Robinson of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, the former Margaret Turner, who, with her daughter, Judith, has been visiting friends in Klamath Falls and Merrill and with her mother, Mrs. H. D. Turner of Medford.

Present also were Mrs. Don Holloway and son Don, Mrs. Karl Urquhart and Mrs. Neil Black, Klamath Falls, Mrs. E. T. Crawford, Mrs. Louis Stewart and Mrs. Theron Jones, Merrill.

MRS. KESSLER HONOR GUEST FRIDAY EVENING

Mrs. W. J. Kessler was the honor guest at an informal party given at the home of Mrs. G. C. Lorenz on Friday evening of last week. Because the Kesslers observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, a gift of silver was given to Mrs. Kessler from the group.

Present were Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. Charles Fairall, Mrs. M. P. Lanken, Mrs. Roy Pickett, Mrs. Floyd Hendry, Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. R. C. Dale, Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mrs. Elmer Hosking, Mrs. Arthur K. Bryant, Mrs. W. J. Kessler, Mrs. George Doran, Mrs. Dan O'Leary, and Mrs. Lorenz.

ST. PAUL'S AUXILIARY HAVE LUNCHEON

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church held their last meeting of the summer on Thursday afternoon, June twenty-fourth at the parish hall. They met for a pot luck luncheon at one o'clock and the business meeting was held later.

After the business meeting, Mrs. F. C. Wissenbach gave an interesting report on their attendance at a synod in Santa Rosa.

The next meeting will be held on the third Tuesday in September, or September the sixteenth.

Guests this weekend at the home of Mrs. Albert Roenicke of Portland street are Mrs. Roenicke's sister, Mrs. Allen Welch Smith of Portland, and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Willis. They are on their way to southern California where they will see Lieutenant Charles Willis who is an instructor in the army air corps.

Calling All Women!

by

Eva Lea Long

Special Representative

of

Oregon Mutual Life Insurance Company

"Let me assist you in arranging your future financial independence. I specialize in insurance service to women and children."

Phone — Office 7176 — Home 6856

118 North 7th St.

Summer Homes Opened at Lake

Many Families Beginning to Enjoy Summer Activities at Lake o' the Woods This Year

The summer season is starting at Lake o' the Woods this year and many summer-home owners are taking advantage of the weekend holidays to travel there. The water is considerably higher at the lake this year and the snow is entirely gone.

Among those opening up their cabins are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers. They reported that their cabin is in excellent condition after the winter snows. Later in the summer they plan to have many guests up to enjoy the summer activities.

Mrs. E. D. Johnson also has opened their home there for the summer.

Plans for a houseparty to be held at their summer home this weekend are being made by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Geary. They have invited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver, and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel to enjoy their home there this week.

The C. H. Underwoods have opened their cabin for the summer and will soon be traveling there to take advantage of the water sports and the lake scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart and children, Sara and Angus, are planning to open their cabin there on the fourth of July weekend.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Stearns have opened their cabin and spent part of June there with their children Frances and "Perky".

The A. G. Proctors have sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bennet and the Bennets have already been to the lake this summer. Their home is on the east side.

Opening their home on the west side of the lake have been Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Martin and family and also Mr. E. B. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lockwood of Portland, former Klamath residents, were greeted here this week by many friends. They left Friday for their home in the north.

13 Years Of Negatives On File

Since 1930 Kennell-Ellis Has Kept All Negatives On File For Your Convenience Come In... Look Them Over And Order From Those Old Proofs You May Have Forgotten!

Kennell-Ellis

U. S. Nat'l Bank Bldg. Main and 8th Phone 3252

Girdle-Type with real control for Hips, Thighs!

Gale SCIENTIFIC SUPPORT $5.98

For General Wear and War Workers

Proper boning, and two sets of cluster back lacing work the magic... turn out a well proportioned figure while giving genuine pelvic support. Relieves back strain. For general or post-operative wear.

Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Phone 5188 133 South 8th St.