

Major War Relief Tilts Score High in Baseball, Low in Box Office Intake

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Major leagues scored 100 per cent for entertainment on the first of their two war relief days yesterday, but they failed to get more than a bare passing grade at the box office.

An assortment of doubleheaders, twilight and night games in eight cities drew 134,578 fans who paid $147,391 into the treasury of National War Relief, Inc., and this might seem like a lot of people and a lot of money except that games for army and navy relief in the same cities last year netted $289,412, or approximately twice as much.

Under last year's arrangement, when clubs were permitted to pick their own rivals and choose their own dates, the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants played each other and wrote out checks for $60,000 in Brooklyn and $73,000 in the polo grounds.

This year's plan of having all its good points, but it resulted clubs meet on the same day had in a gate of $32,000 at Brooklyn and $17,000 at New York.

At Brooklyn, before a crowd of 26,893 that was mesmerized by the tenor solos of Dixie Walker, the Dodgers handcuffed the Cincinnati Reds twice 5-0 and 11-5.

This boosted Brooklyn half a game ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league standings. Although the Cards retained a slender percentage advantage of dividing a doubleheader with the New York Giants, Mort Cooper, appearing in relief, was beaten in the tenth inning of the first game 4-3, but Lefty Howie Pollet pitched a six-hit 5-0 shutout in the second session.

The Chicago Cubs captured two games at Boston 6-2 and 5-2. The New York Yankees reinforced their hold on the American league with a 3-1 triumph in ten innings at Cleveland in a night game as Nick Etten made three of the Yanks' five hits off Jam Bagby.

Orval Grove, rejected by the army yesterday, achieved his fifth victory without defeat for the Chicago White Sox last night 7-1 by holding Washington to five hits before the biggest of the relief turnouts, 29-495.

John Niggeling pitched a three-hitter as the St. Louis Browns beat Philadelphia 3-1 and dumped the Athletics into the cellar.

Ninth inning homers by Bobby Doerr and Pinky Higgins caused the Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox to finish in a 3-3 twelve inning tie in a twilight game.

Pittsburgh and the Phillies also played to a 3-3 deadlock which was halted by the mid-night curfew after 11 innings of their night game.

"Babe" Dahlgren Picked From Phillies for Major All-Star Go

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—A new chapter in the baseball life of Ellsworth "Babe" Dahlgren, the player no one wanted until he joined the Philadelphia Phillies, will be written in Philadelphia's Shibe Park the night of July 13.

The Babe, leading National league hitter, was one of a squad of 25 picked yesterday to represent the senior circuit in the annual all-star baseball game that night against the American league all-stars.

It is the first time that Dahlgren has been named for the midyear classic.

The selections, made by a poll of the managers, were announced by Manager Billy Southworth, of the Cardinals who will lead the team, after a conference with League President Ford Frick.

The squad is dominated by eight members of the world champion Cardinals. Eleven, including six of the eight Cards, are newcomers. The veterans are Mel Ott of the Giants, and Billy Herman of the Dodgers, who will be playing in their tenth classic since the "dream game" was started in 1933.

The team roster:

Pitchers—Morton Cooper, Max Lanier and Howard Pollet, St. Louis; Truett "Rip" Sewell, Pittsburgh; Claude Passeau, Chicago; Johnny Vander Meer, Cincinnati; and Al Javery, Boston.

Catchers—Walker Cooper, St. Louis; Mickey Owen, Brooklyn, and Ernie Lombardi, New York.

Infielders—Babe Dahlgren, Philadelphia; Frank McCormick, Lonnie Frey and Eddie Miller, Cincinnati; Martin Marlin and George Kurovski, St. Louis; Billy Herman, Brooklyn, and Stanley Hack, Chicago.

Outfielders—Stan Musial and Harry Walker, St. Louis; Vince Di Maggio, Pittsburgh; Billy Nicholson, Chicago; Mel Ott, New York; Fred "Dixie" Walker and Augie Galan, Brooklyn.

Batting practice pitchers—Si Johnson, Philadelphia and Clyde Shoun, Cincinnati.

Batting practice catcher—Virgil "Spud" Davis, Pittsburgh.

Coaches—Mike Gonzales, St. Louis, and Frankie Frisch, Pittsburgh.

Lady Golfers Move on to Semi-Finals

Catherine Fox, Dorothy Germain Play Berg, Kirby In Women's Open Tourney

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—Two young girls from the east who used to dream of playing in golf's "major league" tee off today in the semi-final round of the women's open tournament, with their dads cheering them on from the sidelines.

Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., 18-year-old daughter of Jack Fox, honorary president of the New Jersey PGA and a former pro at Kidderminster, England, golf club where Katy was born, drew the gallant come-backer, Patty Berg of Minneapolis, as her opponent.

Dorothy Germain, 19-year-old daughter of a Philadelphia glue manufacturing executive, was matched with Dorothy Kirby, a consistent challenger from Atlanta, Ga.

Led by redheaded Patty, making her first competitive appearance since injuring her knee in 1941, this quartet of stars advanced to the semi-final round during yesterday's scheduled 36-hole grind which reduced the banner field from 16 to these remaining four.

Miss Germain, a sophomore at Beaver college in Philadelphia, carded a total of five birdies and wound up her efforts through 30 holes yesterday only one over par in disposing of the 1942 runner-up, Phyllis Otto of Atlantic, Ia., and Kay Byrne of Rye, N. Y.

Miss Fox, who lettered in high school as captain of the boys' golf team, rushed into today's round with victories over sports writer Margaret Russell of Detroit and Mrs. O. H. Romadka, a metropolitan match play veteran of Rochester, Minn.

Although Patty Berg was limping noticeably after playing the most holes since injuring her knee in an auto accident 18 months ago, she eliminated two Michigan stars, Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee and Majorie Row of Detroit, in a sizzling burst of par shooting. She was only one over regulation figures during her 29 holes of competition.

be staged July 28 with the clubs which were away from home yesterday appearing in their own parks.

Sports Briefs
By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Just to start something, what was the fastest nine-inning baseball game ever played? . . . The major league record stands at 51 minutes by the Giants and Phillies in 1919, but we've just come across a game played by Mobile and Atlanta on September 19, 1910, which was finished in exactly 32 minutes. . . . Summary of Columbia football prospects by Athletic Director Ralph Furey: "We still have our schedule; we still have our coach; we still have our field—and we hope next fall we will have some players to go with them."

Wally Ulrich Wins College Golf Title

Carleton Man Puts Small School on Links Map for First Time; Joins Marines

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—Wally Ulrich found a junked putter in an ash can in Austin, Minn., liked the game of golf so well he invested $4.87 in a set of mail order house clubs—and became the national intercollegiate links champion.

Not in quite that swift order, however. He was only 9 when he salvaged the putter, and he was 21 yesterday when he won the National Collegiate Athletic association's 46th golf tournament at Olympia Fields, representing Carleton college at Northfield, Minn.

He put a little school on the nation's collegiate golfing map for the first time, for in all previous NCAA meets it has been players from the Ivy league, Big Ten, Pacific Coast and Southern conferences who coped the laurels.

It led one of the locker room gang to remark it's fellows like Wally Ulrich who become marines and help the United States get back on some portions of the map where it's been missing recently. For Ulrich becomes a marine private at Oberlin college in Ohio today.

Bill Roden, the good-natured, red-haired Texas university senior who lost to Ulrich in yesterday's final, 4 and 2, drew a lot of praise, too, for the way he conducted himself through this star-laden tourney to the finals. Roden also goes into the marines shortly.

lieutenant to captain, he celebrated in the guard house. Reason: He was officer of the day. . . . Lieut. Jesse Hill, former Yankees, Senators and Athletics outfielder, is due for a transfer from the Del Monte navy pre-flight school to a mid-western naval air station, but he won't be forgotten soon. His batting average for the navyators is .482. . . . Hill's successor as baseball coach at Del Monte will be Lieut. Willard Bronson, former Nebraska U. athlete.

RECLASSIFIED

During the Pirates' batting practice the other day, a groundsman took a bad hop and smacked First Baseman Elbie Fletcher on the left ear. . . . Manager Frank Frisch hurried down to first asking, "Are you all right, Elgie?" . . . "I'm still 3-A," replied Fletcher as he ruefully rubbed his ear, "but for a minute I thought I was 4-F."

SCRAP COLLECTION

It took Frank Kelleher, Syracuse outfielder, a full year to hit a single in the Buffalo ball park. During his 1942 appearances and until June 24, 1943, he socked nothing but doubles and homers there. . . . Nat Fleischer's personal copy of his ring record book is getting quite a workout these days. Nat gets an average of 40 letters a day from service men and most of them want him to settle arguments about boxing. . . . And did you know that Monday will be the ninth anniversary of Joe Louis' debut as a pro fighter?

Q. AND A. DEPT.

In answer to west coast queries, Alsab beat Whirlaway in two of their three clashes, starting with their match race at Narragansett Park last September. Whirly reversed the decision in the Jockey club gold cup race October 3 and Alsab took the odd one in New York handicap a week later. . . . And in case you're still disposed to argue, turf expert Sid Feder claims the only truly run race of the three was the one Whirly took.

HAND-TO-HAND

Navy Lieut. Denny Myers, instructor in hand-to-hand combat at the Iowa navy pre-flight school, can offer concrete proof of the value of his teachings. . . . Coming out of the shower room the other day, Denny started to skid and only a "judo" grip on Lieut. Bill Reed, who happened to be right there, kept him from falling flat. . . . "Gad, boy," panted Denny as he pulled himself erect, "I'm glad you didn't go home early tonight."

SERVICE DEPT.

When D. Winnett Pinneo, former Michigan State basketball and tennis captain, and post intelligence officer at Fort Sheridan, Ill., was promoted from

War Relief Fund Increased $147,391 From Baseball Tilts

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Baseball games played in the major leagues yesterday for war relief attracted 134,578 fans who paid more than $147,391.48.

All the proceeds will be turned over to the National War Relief, Inc., which helps support 16 war charities.

Another war relief day will

Haegg Too Good to Draw Crowd to Chicago Meet

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—Midwesterners whose curiosity about Gunder Haegg, the Swedish running phenomenon, has been stirred up by his invasion of the United States, get their chance to see him in action tomorrow night in the Central Amateur Athletic union meet. But track fans haven't become over-enthusiastic about the program and it's doubtful if mammoth Soldier field will feel much of a bulge.

Owing to reports that during a race the only thing Haegg worries about catching is his breath, the local track fans feel it's only a gesture the Central AAU people are making in sending Gil Dodds, Jerry Thompson, Forrest Efav and Roy Phillips onto the track at the same time Haegg unwinds his legs.

But after all this is only Haegg's second competitive ap-

TRUCKS FOR RENT

You Drive — Move Yourself Save 1/2 — Long and Short Trips

STILES' BEACON SERVICE Phone 8304 1201 East Main

When in Medford Stay at HOTEL HOLLAND

Thoroughly Modern Joe and Anne Earley Proprietors

WE BUY USED CARS for CASH

WE SELL NEW AND USED CARS

H. E. Hauger 1330 Main

BUY WAR BONDS

SEATTLE BREWING & MALTING CO. Since 1878 ★ Emil Sick, President

THE STANDINGS

By The Associated Press

COAST LEAGUE
W.	L.	Pct.
Los Angeles	54	19	.740
San Francisco	42	30	.583
Portland	34	35	.493
San Diego	38	37	.493
Hollywood	34	40	.458
Oakland	33	39	.458
Seattle	31	41	.431
Sacramento	23	46	.333

Results Yesterday
Los Angeles 5-1, Seattle 0-2 (second game seven innings.)
San Francisco 4, Portland 2.
San Diego 3, Portland 1.
Hollywood 5, Sacramento 3.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
W.	L.	Pct.
New York	34	24	.586
Washington	34	29	.540
Boston	32	31	.508
Cleveland	30	32	.484
Chicago	28	30	.483
Detroit	27	30	.474
St. Louis	27	31	.466
Philadelphia	30	35	.462

Results Yesterday
New York 3, Cleveland 1 (11 innings.)
St. Louis 3, Philadelphia 1.
Boston 3, Detroit 3 (tie).
Chicago 7, Washington 1.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	38	23	.623
Brooklyn	42	26	.618
Pittsburgh	32	28	.533
Philadelphia	30	31	.492
Cincinnati	30	31	.492
Boston	28	32	.467
Chicago	25	38	.397
New York	24	40	.375

Results Yesterday
New York 4-0, St. Louis 3-5.
Brooklyn 5-11, Cincinnati 0-5.
Chicago 6-5, Boston 2-4.
Pittsburgh 3, Philadelphia 3 (tie).

Backsliding Angels Split Rainier Tilts

Seals Threaten to Knock Beavers From Third Place In Coast League Flag Race

By The Associated Press

Los Angeles ran into a pitcher duel yesterday and skidded a half a game in its Pacific Coast league leadership while runner-up San Francisco was threatening to knock Portland out of third place in the standings.

The Angels allowed the Seattle Rainiers only seven hits in two games but couldn't get better than a split. In the first game Jodie Phipps gave only three safe blows and the Angels blanked the Suds for the fifth time this season, 5 to 0. It was Phipps' tenth win of the year.

Veteran Syl Johnson held the Angels to five hits as the Rainiers won the seven-inning nightcap 2 to 1 but his opponent, Pete Mallory, outpitched him at that — issuing only four safeties. Two errors helped Seattle.

San Francisco's Seals, home after a disastrous series with the Angels, made two straight over Portland's Beavers, picked on their recent power surge by some observers as the team to press Los Angeles for the pennant. The home team touched off two late inning rallies on as many visiting pitchers to score 4 to 2.

San Diego tied Portland in the standings as Charlie Schanz hung up his 12th win of the season, beating Oakland 3 to 1. He held the Oaks to seven hits and had them shutout until the ninth inning.

The Hollywood Stars pushed Sacramento further back in the cellar, 5-3. The Solons now are trailing seventh-place Seattle by nearly 100 percentage points— .333 to .431.

American Leaguers Use Yanks, Indians for All-Star Battle

By DAVE HOFF

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—An American league all-star team heavily laden with New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians was created today from nominations submitted by the eight managers for the 10th annual game with the National league Stars July 13 in Philadelphia's Shibe park.

The Yankees and Indians each placed six players on the 25-man squad, which will be directed by Manager Joe McCarthy of New York, leaving 13 spots for men on the other six clubs.

Those were taken by four Washington Senators, three Boston Red Sox, two St. Louis Browns and two Detroit Tigers, and one each from the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox.

Thirteen members of the American league team which beat the Nationals last year in the New York polo grounds, 3 to 1, placed again, including New York Catcher Bill Dickey, nominated for the 10th straight time—he's been named for all of them—and Yankee Second Baseman Joe Gordon, for the fifth time. Dickey did not play last year because of injuries.

These were the manager's selections for 1943:

Pitchers—Spurgeon Chandler and Ernie Bonham, New York; Tex Hughson and Oscar Judz, Boston; Emil Leonard, Washington; Harold Newhouser, Detroit; James Bagby and Al Smith, Cleveland.

Catchers—Bill Dickey, New York; Buddy Rosar, Cleveland, and Jake Early, Washington.

Infielders—Ken Keltner and Lou Boudreau, Cleveland; Rudy York, Detroit; Joe Gordon, New York; Vernon Stephens, St. Louis; Dick Siebert, Philadelphia; Luke Appling, Chicago, and Bobby Doerr, Boston.

Outfielders—Charley Keller and John Lindell, New York; Chet Laabs, St. Louis; George Case and Bob Johnson, Washington, and Jeff Heath, Cleveland.

Coaches will be Lena Blackburne of Philadelphia and Art Fletcher of New York. Dave Keefe of Philadelphia was selected as pitcher and John Schulte of New York as catcher for batting practice. Eddie Froelich of the Yankees was designated as trainer.

Nine of the 1942 American league all-stars now are in the service, thus explaining some of the new faces in this year's team. Gone are Pitchers Red Ruffing of New York, Al Benton of Detroit and Sid Hudson of Washington; Catcher George Tebbets of Detroit; Infielder Phil Rizzuto of New York, and Outfielders Ted Williams and Don DiMaggio of Boston, and Joe DiMaggio and Tom Henrich of New York.

Henrich's entry into the service breaks up the American leaguer's great hitting punch combination which won the 1942 game. The junior circuit made all its runs when Boudreau, the Cleveland Indians manager, homered on the second pitch of the game, with Henrich following with a double and York scoring Tommy with a home run.

Snell Proclaims National Forests Closed in Oregon

SALEM, July 1 (AP)—Governor Earl Snell issued a proclamation Wednesday providing for regulated closure of all national forests. The proclamation was asked by the U. S. forest service.

Persons traveling in national forests, except on regularly traveled roads, will have to carry an ax, bucket and shovel, build fires only in posted camp grounds, have permits for any fires, and to refrain from passing through timber.

About 820 youths now are working in the forests under supervision of the state forester.

Classified Ads Bring Results.

627 Main St. NOW!

WILDLIFE EXHIBIT

STUPENDOUS COLLECTION OF BIRDS AND ANIMALS 200 SPECIMENS 100 VARIETIES WORLD'S FINEST COLLECTION FAR BIGGER AND GREATER THAN EVER!

FOR CUPPING PURPOSES OF THIS EXHIBIT IS TO CREATE INTEREST IN OUR WILD LIFE. YOU WILL SEE ANIMALS FROM THE CAT, WHITE, ARCTIC FROM THE WASTE TO THE GRAND-ALL-ALIVE. HELP US PROMOTE AND PRESERVE OUR DOMESTIC WILD LIFE. FIRST TIME HERE! WORTH TRAVELING MILES TO SEE. BRING THE CHILDREN.

Get Your Cowboy Riding Boots Now For the Fourth In Stock Olsen - Stelzer, Hyer, Nocona, Buckhert Boys, Ladies, Men's Sizes 4 1/2 to 12 DREW'S MANSTORE 733 Main

Now as Always . . . THAT Famous BEER FROM SEATTLE

Emil SICK'S SELECT BEER

Alcohol Content Not over 4% By Weight

SEATTLE BREWING & MALTING CO. Since 1878 ★ Emil Sick, President

WE BUY USED CARS for CASH WE SELL NEW AND USED CARS H. E. Hauger 1330 Main

When in Medford Stay at HOTEL HOLLAND Thoroughly Modern Joe and Anne Earley Proprietors

TRUCKS FOR RENT You Drive — Move Yourself Save 1/2 — Long and Short Trips STILES' BEACON SERVICE Phone 8304 1201 East Main