

MR. AND MRS. RAHLEN C. HASTINGS AND SON BEN

S
O
C
C
I
E
T
Y
BY NADINE
PALMERTON

MR. AND MRS. A. G. PROCTOR AND SON GEORGE

Garden Clubs Have Meeting

Merrill and Klamath Falls Groups Meet in Joint Session at O'Connor Ranch Monday

MERRILL—The Klamath Falls Women's Garden club and the Lost River Garden club met in a joint meeting at the Hugh O'Connor ranch near Merrill on last Monday, June the twenty-eighth.

Luncheon was served at the outdoor barbecue in the corner of the lovely garden. Mrs. O'Connor was assisted in serving by her daughters, Kathleen, Mary Lou, Patsy and Mrs. Jerry Ahern. Mrs. Horace Getz, president of the Klamath Falls club, shared honors during the afternoon with Mrs. Lewis Kandra, president of the Lost River Garden club.

During the afternoon, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, president of the state federation of Garden clubs, and Mrs. A. G. Proctor, state secretary, gave reports on the recent state convention held in Pendleton.

Those from Klamath Falls attending the meeting were Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. Paul Edwards, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. K. G. Cummings and her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Reeves, Mrs. J. F. Kimball, Mrs. F. O. Small, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. H. McPherson, Mrs. E. B. Redmond, Mrs. Ralph Porter, Mrs. Harry Goeller, Mrs. R. E. Oakes, Mrs. F. W. Hamilton, Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook, Mrs. William Scott, Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. T. B. Waters and her mother, Mrs. E. H. Mason, Mrs. T. A. Sandoe, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson and Mrs. Horace Getz.

MRS. TAYLOR COMPLIMENTED ON MONDAY

Complimenting her sister, Mrs. Henry W. Turner of Olympia, Washington, Mrs. Truman Berg was hostess at a dessert bridge party on Monday evening, June the twenty-ninth at her home on Leroy street.

Summer flowers were used as decorations for the house and the tables. Contract bridge was played with high score being won by Mrs. Edward Goeckner, second by Mrs. Arthur Moore. Mrs. Turner also received a gift.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Innis Roberts, Mrs. Harold Palmer, Mrs. Thomas Orr, Mrs. Edward Goeckner, Mrs. Howard Hardesty, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Richard Hibbs, Mrs. George Sprague, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Turner and the hostess.

MISS JONES IS VISITOR HERE THIS WEEK

Miss Mildred Jones of Spokane, Washington, near Spokane, is a weekend visitor this week of Dr. and Mrs. George Merryman of Pacific Terrace. She arrived in this city on Friday morning and left with the Merrymans on Saturday for the Merryman home at Lake o' the Woods.

Miss Jones, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Jones of Sprague, plans to go east in late July or early August to wed Dr. John D. Merryman in Madison, Wisconsin.

Ruth Melaas Marries

Klamath Girl Weds in Orlando, Florida, in June Ceremony

The First Presbyterian church of Orlando, Florida, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ruth Beverly Melaas of Klamath Falls to Lieutenant Keith Jay Lindsay of McMinnville. The ceremony was read at three o'clock on Sunday, June the thirteenth. Dr. Marshall Dendy read the vows for the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a magnolia colored crepe afternoon frock and carried a small brown army testament, a gift from Dr. William G. Everson, president of Linfield college for whom she served as secretary. Her corsage was of gardenias and red rose buds.

Mrs. T. B. Westcott of Philadelphia, the bride's only attendant, was costumed in yellow crepe with a matching hat. Lieutenant Thomas Larkin of New York city acted as best man. Captain T. B. Westcott gave the bride in marriage.

Mrs. Lindsay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Melaas of this city. She was graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1939 and from Linfield college last May. She is affiliated with Lambda Sigma sorority.

Lieutenant Lindsay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsay of McMinnville. He also attended Linfield college and was a member of Alpha Gamma Nu fraternity.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Lindsay will make their home in Orlando while he is stationed there at the army air forces school of applied tactics.

EVELYN ROMBERG GIVEN PARTY THIS WEEK

A farewell party for Evelyn Romberg, who is leaving for Los Angeles this week, was given on Wednesday, June the thirtieth, by Lois Bethune at her home on Washington street. A seven o'clock dinner was served and later bridge was played.

Those honoring Miss Romberg were Mrs. Bert Spencer, Mrs. Roy Whittlach, Mrs. Audrey Smith, Mrs. W. F. Bethune, Nora McAuliffe, Barbara Lee Jacobs, Jean Acterson and the hostess, Lois Bethune.

MR. AND MRS. FRED D. FLETCHER AND SON JOHN

BUFFET SUPPER AT BOGATAY HOME EVENT

A delightful event of the past week was the buffet supper given by Mrs. Frank Bogatay at her home on Manzanita street last Sunday evening, June the twenty-seventh, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Matthew Dorobis of San Pedro, California. Mrs. Dorobis has been here for several weeks and before she came here was a guest of her mother, Mrs. Emily Zest of Seattle.

Co-hostess with Mrs. Bogatay was Mrs. Eldred Putnam. Gin rummy was enjoyed during the evening with high score going to Mrs. Richard Hibbs, and low to Mrs. Rudy Jacobs.

Guests honoring Mrs. Dorobis were Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, Mrs. Richard Hibbs, Mrs. Rudy Jacobs, Mrs. Mark Sanders, Mrs. Donald McKay, Mrs. Howard Hardesty, Mrs. Edward Goeckner, Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. Robert Fulton, and Mrs. L. K. Mays.

A gift was later presented to Mrs. Dorobis.

DIRECTOR IS GUEST AT POOLE HOME

A guest at the home of Mrs. Rose M. Poole on Center avenue is Marilyn Merck Lewis of Spokane, regional director of the Northwest region of Soroptimist club. Mrs. Poole is president of the Klamath Falls club.

Also here is the visitor's mother, Mrs. C. D. Weightman, also of Spokane. The two were guests of the Soroptimist club in Lakeview on Friday.

Local Boys Now Training For Naval Duty

Klamath's young men are rapidly disappearing from the city to go into various branches of the armed forces. On our page today we have three young men who have gone into three branches of naval reserve training.

Ben Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rahlen C. Hastings, left on Friday, June twenty-fifth, for Fayette, Missouri, where he will enter Center college in the V-7 program of the navy. This program trains reserve officers.

George Proctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Proctor, left last Sunday evening for Crawfordville, Indiana, where he will enter Wabash college for V-5 training for officers in the naval air corps.

John Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Fletcher, also left last Sunday for Boulder, Colorado, where he will enter school under the V-12 program. He is training to be a deck officer.

Mrs. George Corneil Honored With Shower at Howard Home

Virginia Howard and Nelle Gardner were hostesses on Monday evening, June the twenty-eighth, at Miss Howard's home on East Main street for a stork shower for Mrs. George Corneil (Allie Lee Dean). Clever decorations were used about the room and colors were in pink and blue.

During the evening games were played and later refreshments were served. In the center of the table was a white cake decorated with pink and blue roses, and pink lemonade and pink ice cream

MISS RAKESTRAW, TO TRY FOR WAAF TRAINING

Attractive Peggy Rakestraw is hoping to be the first Klamath county girl to enter the women's auxiliary air force, known to the nation as the WAAFS.

Peggy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Rakestraw of Eldorado Heights, returned home Sunday morning from Oakland, California, where she has been employed for the past nine months in the transportation division of the quartermaster depot, United States army. Right now Peggy is trying to get in thirty-five hours of training at the Klamath airport in order to submit her application to the WAAFS. That amount of training is required by the government. Peggy has passed her government examination. She is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and attended the University of Oregon where she is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

The romance for Jimmy and Joan had its beginning at the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega, and he with Theta Chi. The bride is a sorority sister of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Howard Davis of Glendale, California. She is known to the school set here and visited in Klamath Falls last summer when she was a guest of the Lyles at their summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

Sergeant and Mrs. Lyle are at home at 203 North Third avenue in Jacksonville. He is an instructor in instrument flying at the Jacksonville air base. His bride, following her graduation from the University of Oregon, was with United Airline in Portland but has been transferred to the Jacksonville office.

MAE GIBSON MARRIES IN NORTH

Friends may be interested to know of the marriage of Miss Mae Gibson, formerly of Klamath Falls, to Mr. David Saseen, on last Sunday, June the twenty-seventh in Portland. Mrs. Saseen is the daughter of Mrs. Sara Gibson now of Portland, and the late Archie Gibson.

Lionesses and Lions Install

Mrs. Nicodemus and Myrtle Adams Installed As Leaders of Local Organization on Tuesday

The Lioness club installed its officers for the new year at a ceremony held at the Reames Golf and Country club last Tuesday evening. It was a joint installation with the Lions club and later dinner and dancing were enjoyed. A cocktail hour was held at eight o'clock.

New president of the organization is Mrs. M. E. Nicodemus. Installed as vice president was Mrs. A. P. Heup, and Mrs. Clifford Voigt was installed as new secretary.

Liaison officer is Mrs. Myrtle Adams and directors are Mrs. Herrick Wheeler, Mrs. Carl Mason and Mrs. Vernon Moore.

Mrs. Paul Skeen was the installing officer and was assisted by Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. Ed Robinson, the outgoing president, was given a gift of glassware.

The Lions installed as their president, Myrtle C. Adams. Installing officer was Clarence Humble, district governor of southern and western Oregon.

Other Lions Installed were Paul Skeen, vice president; E. C. Vanderpool, secretary-treasurer; Hans Norland, lion-tamer; Elton Dishier, tail-twister; Wes D. McNeer and M. E. Nicodemus, directors for two years.

W. A. Constans, past president, was toastmaster for the evening.

MRS. HARDESTY COMPLIMENTED WITH TEA

Mrs. Richard Hibbs entertained on Wednesday afternoon, June the thirtieth, at an informal tea at her home on North Fifth street honoring Mrs. Howard Hardesty, who left here Thursday with her family to make their home in Portland. Guests were invited to come at half past three o'clock and as each arrived they presented Mrs. Hardesty with a handkerchief.

The house was bright with early summer flowers. Mrs. Frank Bogatay presided over the coffee service and Mrs. Edward Goeckner poured tea.

Those who came to bid Mrs. Hardesty goodbye were Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Frank Bogatay, Mrs. Mark Sanders, Mrs. William VanBuskirk, Mrs. Edward Goeckner, Mrs. Truman Berg, Mrs. Wendall Smith, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Mrs. Harold Schaffer, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. C. S. Dahlquist, Mrs. Joseph Hicks, Mrs. Charles Van Doren and Mrs. George Sprague.

REAMES TOURNEYS COMPLETED

At Reames Golf and Country club yesterday there were about twelve women playing golf. Since tournaments are over for the summer there will be no hostesses until September.

Members are reminded that they may turn in their five best eighteen-hole scores during the summer until tournaments are started again in September.