

Marceil Newman Weds M. L. Clark

Ceremony Held in Methodist Church Friday Afternoon Is Event of Early Summer

In a simple ceremony read at the Methodist church on Friday afternoon, Miss Marceil Newman, daughter of Mrs. Phelma Johnston of this city and Mr. Claude Newman of San Francisco, was married to Mr. Maurice L. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Clark of Eugene.

The ceremony was held at one o'clock in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the couple. Reverend Victor Phillips officiated.

Miss Bondell Aubrey was the bride's only attendant and the best man was Mr. Curly Stormont.

The bride was dressed in a rose-colored silk afternoon dress and wore a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia. Her accessories were of navy blue.

Miss Aubrey wore an aqua dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Johnston, mother of the bride, was gowned in light blue with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the Pelican party room with about fifty friends invited. Mr. and Mrs. Clark cut their wedding cake and Mrs. Louis Serruys served. Others serving were Mrs. Carl Schubert and Mrs. Ross Aubrey. Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Gayle Biver, Miss Elinora Karspeck, Miss Mary Trulove, and Miss Barbara Sellers. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Karlene Schubert and Miss Bondell Aubrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark left on Friday evening for a short wedding trip to the coast. They will return on Tuesday. Later they will make their home in Klamath Falls until Mr. Clark is called into the service.

Wedded In South

Winifred Wood and John Laird Marry on June 5

Winifred Evelyn Wood, daughter of Mrs. Luella Wood of Spencer, Nebraska, and Lieutenant John Paul Laird, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Laird of Klamath Falls were married in the chapel of the navigation school at San Marco, Texas, on Saturday, June the fifth.

The wedding took place at high noon with Captain Ben Hoffman, the chaplain officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. The chapel was decorated with large bowls of gladioli in pastel shades.

The bride wore a dress of white marquisette with a corsage of red roses. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Don Modarelli, wore a white jersey dress with tyrolean trimming and a corsage of carnations. Lieutenant Don Modarelli was the best man.

Leaving the chapel, the bride donned an English lace mantilla to match her costume and the bridal party went to the Officer's club for a wedding dinner.

Mrs. Laird, before going to Texas, was employed as a secretary in the foreign operations office, Ferry Command, in Long Beach. Prior to that time she was employed as a secretary in the Redmond insurance and Oliver real estate offices in Klamath Falls for three years.

Lieutenant Laird graduated from Merrill high school and attended Oregon State college. He is affiliated with Phi Kappa Pi fraternity. At the present time he is a senior navigation instructor in the U. S. army air forces school in San Marcos.

The young couple are now at home at 2608 West Eighth street in Austin, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rose and two children, Bonnie and Byron, of Oroville, California, have returned to Klamath Falls to make their home. They are now staying at the W. C. Rose home on Cottage avenue. Mr. Rose is employed by the Great Northern railroad.

Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr. returned Thursday from a month's stay in New York City where she was with her husband, Major Bosworth of the United States army engineers.

BRIDE OF FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Marceil Newman became the bride of Mr. Maurice Clark in a ceremony read at the Methodist church on Friday afternoon.

—Kathleen Livingston

Iris Brown Is Bride

Tulelake Girl Is Married To Donald Calkins, Corporal in Army

TULELAKE — Iris, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brown, Tulelake, became the bride Friday morning, June twenty-fifth at an eleven o'clock ceremony, of Corporal Donald Calkins, stationed at the Ardmore, Oklahoma army air base as a laboratory technician.

The ring service was read in the presence of relatives and close friends of the young couple in the Seventh Day Adventist church, Klamath Falls, by Elder G. A. Thompson, Medford. The wedding party stood before a basket of red peonies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full skirted gown of white slipper satin made with tight bodice and long sleeves. Lace from her maternal grandmother's wedding gown of fifty-one years ago was used on the bodice. Her finger tip veil of illusion net was caught about her head with a wreath of pink daisies. She carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart rose buds.

Margie Brown, sister of the bride was the only attendant. Her frock of pale blue taffeta was complimented by her bouquet of pink sweetpeas.

Ordell Calkins, brother of the groom was best man.

Mrs. Clair Calkins, mother of the groom who with Mr. Calkins, Gaston, Oregon were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown while in Tulelake wore a rose frock with white accessories. Mixed spring flowers were used in her shoulder corsage. Mrs. Brown wore dark jersey with turf tan accessories and a single gardenia.

Mrs. Phillip McLafferty, with Mr. McLafferty at the piano sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony. Mr. McLafferty played the traditional wedding marches.

A wedding breakfast was served immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Brown, at 604 North Ninth street, Klamath Falls.

The wedding cake cut by the bride and groom centered the refreshment table. Tall white tapers added to the central note. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Dorothea Brown, sister of the bride and Miss Margaret Calkins, sister of the groom.

For traveling, Mrs. Calkins wore a three piece ensemble of sheer navy wool with matching accessories. Corporal and Mrs. Calkins left the same day for Ardmore by way of Portland where they will visit for a few days before reporting for duty.

In attendance at both wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Clair Calkins, Margaret Calkins, Ordell Calkins and Francis Calkins, Gaston, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brown, and daughters, Margie, Dorothea, Bette, Norma and Barbara and son Byron.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Meshke, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moore, Robert Moore, Cecil Buell, Miss Maxine and Murlene Buell, Tulelake and Mr. and Mrs. Phillips McLafferty, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Calkins graduated from Tulelake high school in 1938, graduating later from Walla Walla college. For the past year she has taught school at Onalaska, Washington. Mr. Calkins, a pre-medic student also attended Walla Walla college. He flew west from Ardmore to Sacramento for the wedding, completing the trip here by bus.

LANDRUMS HONORED ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Landrum were surprised on Saturday evening, June the nineteenth, when their two daughters, Mary Frances and Clare Ann, entertained with an old-fashioned neighborhood party honoring their twenty-first wedding anniversary.

Games, music and conversation were enjoyed until a late hour after which homemade ice cream and cake were served. The centerpiece on the lace covered table was garden flowers and lighted tapers.

Women Install

Moose Auxiliary Introduces New Officers At Meeting June 22

Mildred Wilkerson, senior regent for the women of the Moose has announced that the following officers were installed on June twenty-second.

Graduate regent, Ruby Bell; senior regent, Mildred Wilkerson; junior regent, Ningon Nyback; chaplain, Marie Pike; treasurer, Laura Baldwin; recorder, Fannie Mae Thompson; guide, Edna Jensen; assistant guide, Maude Hollinsworth; sentinel, Blanche Pike; argus, Carolyn Holbert and musician, Stella Purcell.

The following committee chairmen were named: Moose Haven, Donna Mae Crump; war relief, Lucille Helfer; ritual, Opal Kilgore; publicity, Elizabeth Holland; alumni, Margaret Johnson; social service, Grace Crump; Moose Heart, Dorothy Smith, home-making, Hildegard McClung; college of regents, Blanche Dixon; child care and training, Bonnie Eiting; hospital guild, Mary Calloway; academy of friendship, Kathleen Hepburn; membership, Leola Daily; and library, Zella Blankenship.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, the thirtieth of July.

MRS. KILLIAN GIVEN SHOWER ON WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday, June the thirtieth, Mrs. B. F. Hogue, of Menlo Way was hostess at a shower given for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Killian. She was assisted by Maude Shuey, Nina Nyback, and Lucille Helfer. Pink baby booties tied with blue ribbons were used as favors and a doll carrying a parasol from which were fastened ribbons attached to gifts was the centerpiece.

Attending were Beulah Kandra, Lola Myers, Abbie Landry, Alfreda Steinmetz, Lola Longmier, Anna McCormick, Edna Penny, Fannie and Varna Schendel, Ardell Alexander, Victor and Ruby Alexander, Rita Fulker, Helen Eiting, Mary Jones, Ruth Spetz, Grace Harris, Betty Allen, Kathleen Hepburn, Martha and Lucille Baker, Ruth Brandenberg, Dorothy Coty, Ora Hughes, Leda Williams and Shirley Ann, Ila Simpson and Marian, Ella Mae Ross, Jessie Steel, Billie and Barbara Canine, Estelle Bright, Margie Perkins, Ethel Blake and Melissa, Iva Mae Schendel, Ella Bordin, Ella Pauley, Myrtle Harrison, Grace Nichols and Jesta Taylor, and the hostesses. Games and refreshments made the day a most enjoyable one.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Strand and daughter Sharon and Mrs. C. C. Crowson visited with Mrs. Frank Crowson of Ashland on Sunday.

Mrs. Powers Has Recital

Piano Pupils Presented Thursday Evening at Methodist Church

Piano pupils of Mrs. Thomas B. Powers were presented in a recital held on Thursday evening, July the first, in the parlors of the First Methodist church. The following program was given by the young pupils:

- "Comin' Round the Mountain" Linda Ann Ellis and Robert Rozendal.
- "O Susannah" Foster
- "Home on the Range" Robert Rozendal.
- "Dressing Up Like Mother" Myra Adler
- Linda Ann Ellis.
- "Lightly Row" Folk tune
- "The Party" Thompson
- Betty Vahl.
- "Cello" Blake
- Ronnie Eittrheim.
- "The Man in the Moon" Thompson
- "Stepping Stones" Thompson
- Gloria Highland.
- "There Was An Old Woman I've Heard Tell" Folk tune
- Betty Vahl, Gloria Highland.
- "The Traffic Cop" Thompson
- "Swans on the Lake" Thompson
- Eugene Metler.
- "The Fairies Harp" Thompson
- "Spinning the Top" Bilbro
- Helen Kenaga.
- "A Rose in My Garden" Williams
- Winston Mitchell.
- "Summer Days" Williams
- "Wooden Shoe Dance" Blake
- Winston Mitchell and Douglas Powers.
- "Song Without Words" Streaffog
- Nola Jean Arnett.
- "Fanfare" from William Tell Overture Rossini
- "My Isle of Golden Dreams" Blaufuss
- Douglas Powers.
- "Waltz" from Die Fledermaus Johann Strauss
- "Prelude in A Major" Chopin
- "Dearly Beloved" Claudette Gleason.
- "Blues Serenade" King
- "Anchors Aweigh" Kenneth Ellis.
- "Rain Reverie" Harding
- "Rosie the Riveter" Betty Glidden.
- "Romance a la Mode" Loeb
- "Dizzy Fingers" Confrey
- Bette Eittrheim.
- "Melody in F" Rubenstein
- "Moonlight Becomes You" Kern
- Colleen Schroeder.
- "God Bless America" Berlin
- Betty Glidden.

Also scheduled to be on the program, but unable to be present were Mary Lou Miller, Ronald Sterling and Ramona Kimsey. Several of the numbers were accompanied on a second piano by the teacher, Mrs. Powers.

Rooms were decorated with a profusion of roses and guests enjoyed themselves during the evening by playing games and witnessing a varied program of entertainment.

Mrs. T. B. Powers had charge of the games, which were followed by several musical numbers. Dorothy Laurensen, an accomplished performer on the marimba, gave two selections, there were songs by Winnifred Giljen, contralto, and by Fred Ross, baritone, both accompanied by Mrs. E. S. Veatch, and Douglas Powers accompanied by his mother gave two trumpet solos.

Lawrence Phillips gave the address of welcome to Reverend Phillips, and the pastor responded, thanking the assembly for their help and cooperation during the past four years and stressing the fact that there is great need for spiritual help and spiritual effort in the present world crisis. Later in the evening punch and cookies were served. The young ladies who served were Connie Hunt, Eileen Cornell, Cheri Johanson, Delores Johanson and Beverley Melhase.

PHILLIPS HONORED AT RECEPTION

Reverend and Mrs. Victor Phillips were honored at a reception given in the church parlors of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, June the thirtieth. Reverend Phillips is entering in his fifth year as pastor of this church.

Neither expected to see the other, and a delightful visit was enjoyed.

Mrs. Renney is employed as a secretary to a colonel in the army supply base in Stockton and Mr. Renney reported with the army on July the first. Young Patterson is now a second lieutenant and has just recently completed his flight training at Glenview, Illinois.

Isabelle Milne of Klamath Falls has received word that she has been accepted in the Marines. Her plans are not definite as yet as to when she is to leave for training.

LET
State Farm Ins. Co.
Protect Your Privilege to Drive
J. I. Beard, Agent
1029 Main

Virginia Hooper Becomes Bride

Ceremony at Presbyterian Church of Tulelake Is Event of Last Saturday, June 26

TULELAKE — Before an altar banked with masses of white gladioli and tall white tapers, Virginia Lea Hooper, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hooper, Tulelake, became the bride Saturday evening, June the twenty-sixth, at a candle lit ceremony, of Mr. Jack Martin Liskey, Merrill. Mr. Liskey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Liskey.

The impressive ring service was read at eight o'clock in the Tulelake Presbyterian church by Rev. Hugh Bronson.

Preceding the ceremony, Conrad Schultz sang "I Love You Truly" and "Through the Years" with Mrs. E. Webb Staunton at the piano. Mrs. Staunton with Mr. Staunton at the cello played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a slipper satin gown with full length train, sweetheart neckline and long tight sleeves. Her veil of illusion net in cap effect fell to her waist. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli and bouvardia.

Mrs. Bette Campbell Wilson as matron of honor wore blue net. The bridesmaids, Miss Phyllis Sutton, Tulelake, and Miss June Brown, Medford, wore identical gowns of yellow net. All wore matching bows in their hair and carried old fashioned nosegays.

Mr. William Falvey, Merrill, was best man. Ushers were Randall Pope, Merrill and Herman Turnbaugh, Tulelake.

Mrs. Hooper, mother of the bride, wore a street length frock of cadet blue with a large black lace hat and shoulder corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Liskey was gowned in black. Her corsage was gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Liskey greeted friends and relatives in the spacious home of the bride's parents on the Tulelake-Alturas highway.

The beautifully appointed refreshment table was centered with the tiered wedding cake, garlanded in white gladioli and fern and topped by a wreath of pink roses. After the first piece was cut by the bride and groom the guests were served by Mrs. Dave Liskey, Klamath Falls. The bridesmaids assisted at the coffee urns and with the serving. Crystal table appointments and tall white tapers added to the central note.

For traveling Mrs. Liskey wore a beige ensemble with brown accessories and white gladioli corsage.

Mrs. Liskey is a graduate of the Tulelake high school and for the last two and one-half years has attended Oregon state college. She was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority. The groom also attended Oregon State, being associated with Theta Chi.

Following a brief honeymoon the young couple will be at home in apartments in Merrill until remodeling of their home on Lower Klamath lake is completed. Mr. Liskey is farming on the lake.

House guests in the Hooper home for the wedding were Mrs. Harry Baum, Fort Klamath, Mrs. Blanche Clark, Sacramento, and Mrs. Ila Scott and son Ray, San Francisco. Mrs. Baum, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Scott are aunts of the bride. Present for the ceremony also was the bride's grandfather, Mr. J. D. Hooper, Midland, Mr. and Mrs. John Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hooper and Mr. and Mrs. Max Hooper, all of Midland.

FAMILY HAS REUNION OVER FATHER'S DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Renney arrived from Stockton, California, recently to spend Father's day with Mrs. Renney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Patterson of the Midland district. Arriving at the same time was A. H. Patterson, Jr., who was on his way to San Diego with the Marine air corps.

Neither expected to see the other, and a delightful visit was enjoyed.

Mrs. Renney is employed as a secretary to a colonel in the army supply base in Stockton and Mr. Renney reported with the army on July the first. Young Patterson is now a second lieutenant and has just recently completed his flight training at Glenview, Illinois.

INVEST FOR SAFETY
FARMERS!
2184 of our men in the armed forces lost their lives in the six months of African fighting.
2500 were killed while engaged in farming operations in the same period of time.
For only a few cents daily, you can have the protection of $3000 accidental death
$100 monthly income
$300 hospital monthly income.
CALL 3221
John H. Houston
REPRESENTING THE MUTUAL BENEFIT Health and Accident Ass'n of Omaha
114 N. 7th Phone 3221

RUTH NEWTON HONOR GUEST AT REUNION

TULELAKE — Miss Ruth Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almo Newton, who has been the guest of her parents prior to leaving for the south to assume a new position as director of USO Traveler's Aid at Fayetteville, North Carolina, was guest of honor at a family reunion at the Newton home Sunday, June the twenty-seventh.

Fayetteville is near Fort Bragg, largest military reservation in the United States and in the capacity of director Miss Newton will direct work in connection with the arrival of hundreds of wives of service men and of young women seeking employment, assisting in locating accommodations and in other service.

She has been employed by the state welfare commission in various capacities over the state and for the last three years has been in Portland in charge of the training program for the organization. Her present position is for the duration. She left by train Monday for the east.

Following the picnic luncheon at one o'clock games were played on the spacious lawn at the Newton home, Winema Gardens. Mrs. Newton was assisted by Mrs. Tom Newton. Present to say good-bye were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Colson, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Harvey and son Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Judkins, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Coulson and sons Don and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Porough and sons Kenneth and Harward, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones and daughter Lucy Ellen, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Eickensstaff, son Gary and daughter Corille, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell and daughter Bonny Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Short, son Donald and daughter Arlene, Mrs. Ed Holland, Obie V. Newton and H. E. Golisch.

MRS. HARRIS HOSTESS TO THREE R CLUB

The Three R club met on Tuesday, June the twenty-second, at the home of Mrs. Grace Harris. Cards were played with high score going to Mrs. Jesta Kaylor and low to Mrs. Alfreda Steinmetz. Mrs. Anna Schaffer was also a prize winner.

Other members attending were Mrs. Martha Baker, Mrs. Kate Hogue, Mrs. Frances Killian, Mrs. Anna McCormack, Mrs. Marjorie Perkins, Mrs. Ella Bortis, Mrs. Lucille Helfer, Mrs. Grace Harris, Mrs. Ella Pauley, and Mrs. Estel Bright.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harnden on July the thirteenth. All members are asked to be there as there will be election of officers.

Miss Wilba Miller of Los Angeles, who has been teaching at the Bible school in Yoncalla, spent the first part of the week here visiting at the Herbert Hansen home. Miss Miller is also a cousin of Mr. Herbert Landis of South Sixth street.

NEWLY-WEDS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Calkins (Iris Brown) were married in a Klamath Falls ceremony recently. —Kennell-Ellis.