Wallace, Jones Continue Verbal Slugging; Demand For Investigation Renewed

By TOM REEDY

WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—Six-foot-two Jesse Jones, the administration's banker, and Vice President Henry Wallace, who out-wrestles soldiers at the stage-door canteen, apparently were only warming up in their week-long verbal slugging match. Today, their appraisals of each other had hit a new high in recrimination.

The latest explosion—over the policies of Wallace's board of economic warfare (BEW) and Jones' reconstruction finance corporation (RFC)—widened the rift so far that perhaps only the firm and personal touch of President Roosevelt can heal it. His trouble-shooter, James F. Byrnes, failed when he made an initial attempt.

Jones Opens Up

Jones, accused by Wallace of holding up BEW's purchases of strategic war materials, opened up both barrels last night. He used 7500 words to tell what he thinks about Wallace—none of it complimentary. In Wallace's absence, his second, Milo Perkins of BEW, took up the cudgel and shot back that Jones and his RFC had acted like the fabled sleeper, Rip Van Winkle.

Jones addressed his remarks to the senate appropriations committee. Perkins replied in a letter to the same group.

Demand Inquiry There was prompt reaction in the senate. Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) declared he was renewing his demand for an investigation of the exchanges, to be handled by the military affairs committee.

"Congress ought to find out who is right," he said. Bridges' resolution for an inquiry lies in the ranking committee which has indicated little desire to get into the ruckus.

The senate committee on post-war planning may make an exhaustive investigation of the BEW's operations. Senator George (D-Ga.) disclosed, however.

Jones' Arguments The big, placid-looking Jones spoke in this vein: "His (Wallace's) tirade is so filled with malice, innuendo, half-truths and no truths at all, that considerations of self-respect and of common justice to my associates force me to expose his unscrupulous tactics." He took up one by one the vice president's complaints that RFC had held up BEW purchases of beryllium, cobalt, corundum, tantalum, zirconium and quartz crystal and he denied them all. RFC, in fact, is purchasing 37 different metals and the 29 not mentioned by Wallace account for 97 per cent of its dollar commitments and 99 per cent by weight, said Jones.

Perkins Letter Stacked against these contentions was a letter by Perkins of BEW to the same senate committee which accused Jones of throwing up a smoke screen. "He has not proved and cannot prove that he bought what the vice president charged him with not buying," wrote Perkins.

Salem Legion Has Red Face After This Carnival

SALEM, July 6 (AP)—Broken trinkets labeled "Made in Japan" littered a city park today and American Legion officials still had red faces. Soldiers got the trinkets as prizes at a Legion-sponsored carnival last night, smashed them against trees. Children joined in. Legionnaires asked carnival operators to withdraw the offending items.

What to do with your gum!

Here's a word of advice to motorists who go bucketing merrily along thinking their oil filter is straining out the gum and goo that collects in all motor oil. 'Tain't so! After about 8,000 miles your filter ordinarily gets so clogged up that oil can't pass. It sidesteps through a by-pass valve and carries dust, gum and metal particles from the crankcase into your motor. That's an open invitation to repair bills—so ask us to replace your oil filter element every 8,000 miles. It only takes a minute.

Three Great Gasolines

I do a lot of talking about Standard "Unsurpassed," but that sure doesn't mean you should forget Standard's two other grades of gasoline. No sir, for a fellow who wants the power, pick-up and anti-knock performance of a premium gasoline, he can't get better than Standard's Supreme. And for economy value, just stick to Flight.

When your stop goes

Seeing if your stop light has gone out is just about as easy as looking at the back of your neck. To make sure you're getting this mighty important protection, ask any of us at the Sign of the Chevron to check it for you. If the bulb is out, we can install a new one in a flash.

Summertime baking—an economy measure

Kitchen pretty warm these days? Let the oven do most of your cooking work this summer! It's easier—and by the way, summertime baking is really an economy measure. Just think of the ways meat can be stretched with the aid of the oven . . . shortcakes, meat pies, and oh, so many other ways! Use meat drippings for shortening, and let the good flavor carry the meal forward.

BISCUITS—Let those meat drippings get firm in the refrigerator, then use them for making biscuits for meat shortcakes. Creamed hamburger is a grand topping. Or cut link sausages into small slices, fry them and make a gravy from the drippings and serve them over the biscuits.

MEAT PIES—Use the same kind of biscuit dough made with drippings for a covering for meat pie. Use leftover meat or small pieces of precooked meat, vegetables of your choice and enough thickened juice from the meat or vegetables to give moisture to the pie filling. Cover with biscuit dough and bake in a hot oven (450° F.) until the crust is rich, golden brown.

SUMMERTIME STUFFING—Ever think of serving stuffing in place of potatoes . . . even though you haven't anything to stuff? It is really something the family will like. For 3 cups of bread crumbs, add 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper, sage or other seasoning to taste, saute sliced green onions, tops and all, and 1/2 cup meat drippings. Mix and pack into loaf pan or ring mold. (An egg or 1/2 cup of evaporated milk enriches and binds the stuffing together.) Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for about one-half hour or until browned slightly. Serve as a meat accompaniment.

ECONOMY CAKE—Sift 2 cups all-purpose flour with 2 1/2 tps. baking powder, 1 tsp. cinnamon and 1/4 tsp. cloves. Cream together 3 tps. shortening and 3 tps. meat drippings and add 1 cup of sugar gradually, creaming until smooth. Add 1 egg and beat well, then add flour mixture alternately with 3/4 cup milk. Then add 1 tsp. vanilla or other flavoring. Bake in greased layer cake pans or muffin tins in moderate oven (375° F.) for about 25 minutes or until done. Fill layers if desired with chopped raisins and honey mixture.

MOLASSES COOKIES—Use those meat drippings in your favorite recipe for molasses cookies. You'll get an honest-to-goodness old-fashioned flavor. And the cookies make grand accompaniments to fresh fruit.

VICTORY CANNING AND DRYING are current topics of conversation. Julia Lee Wright's article in this week's Family Circle tells you how to go about it. Helpful hints on sun and oven drying and jelly and jam making will make summer canning a pleasure.
