

White Sox Steal Bases For Victory

Use Your Feet, New Policy of Chicago Team As They Advance to Third Place

By ARNOLD DERLITZKI
CHICAGO, July 8 (AP) — If bats won't break up a ball game, use your feet. That is the policy with Chicago's White Sox who are running wild on the bases and getting away with it. They got away with it again yesterday—a cute steal of home in the 14th inning by Wally Moses with two out and the bases loaded—to continue their dazzling dash up the American league ladder.

Just 17 days ago the harum-scarum hose were tied for last place. Today they are in third, four games behind New York's pace-setting Yankees. Tonight they get around to the Yankees, in the first of a five-game series. Victory would be the 11th in their last 13 games.

Yesterday's stolen base, which brought a 3 to 2 win over Boston, was the 72nd of the season for the fidgety-footed Sox whose only rivals in this matter are Washington's Senators and their George Case. It was the third time this year the Sox have stolen their way home and the second time Moses has accomplished the trick.

He did it first on May 5 against Cleveland in the 11th inning after the Sox already had scored twice. Don Kolloway scored on June 3 at Boston in a ninth inning triple steal with Luke Appling and Joe Kuhel. Moses is leading the parade of White Sox base stealers with 18—two more than he's ever accounted for in a full season previously. Then comes Thurman Tucker with 16, Appling with 11, and Kolloway with 10. They're not all kids, either. Moses is 32 and Appling 34. Even Joe Kuhel, age 37, has swiped seven bases.

Portland Firemen Certain to Enter Semi-Pro Finals

PORTLAND, July 8 (AP)—The Portland Firemen today were certain of a spot in the finals of the Oregon semi-pro baseball tournament.

The Firemen edged the Coast Guard, 1-0, last night in the tournament's best pitchers' battle. Dick Sinovich took the decision from Johnny Lewis of the guardsmen, scoring the only run himself. Each hurler permitted five hits. The Firemen will meet the winner of Monday night's game between Camp Adair and the Army Engineers.

Fourth Place Senators Tumble Back to Earth

Washington Wonder Team Was Tied for First in the American With Yankees

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The honeymoon seems to be over for the Washington Senators.

Before the start of the double-headers on the Fourth of July Washington still was a wonder team and was in a virtual tie with the New York Yankees for first place in the American league.

Today the Senators are in fourth place as the result of losing five of their last six games and even though they are only a single percentage point out of third place their prospects of again threatening for the lead are not bright.

The Senators' present plight may be traced to weaknesses that were apparent even before the club collapsed on its current western trip. They had a problem at third base that was so hopeless that Manager Ossie Bluege in desperation finally installed Veteran Outfielder Bob Johnson at the hot corner.

Moreover, the Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox have taken advantage of the Senators' slump to put on two of the fastest spurts of the season in the American league. The Tigers, who moved into second place yesterday by beating Washington 9-1, have won nine of their last 11 games and the Sox have won eight of 10.

Hal Newhouse, the Tigers' slim southpaw star, pitched five-hit ball in beating the Senators.

The White Sox nosed out the Boston Red Sox 3-2 when Wally Moses stole home with the bases loaded and two out in the 14th inning. It was his 18th stolen base of the season.

New York's Yankees completed a sweep of their four game series at St. Louis as Spud Chandler shut out the Browns 2-0 on six hits.

The only other teams to get into action yesterday were Cincinnati and Boston in the National league. They divided a doubleheader with Elmer Riddle pitching three-hit ball as the Reds won the first game 5-1 and Manny Salvo coming back with a five-hit performance for a 4-2 decision in the nightcap.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Al Buck, New York Post: "Smart baseball executives wonder, in their idle moments, if Dizzy Dean broadcasting from Sportsman's park has not become a bigger attraction than the Browns. There is no doubt that when Diz first started he interested women in the game and brought them to the ball park. Now people may find Dean's mouthy reports more interesting than the Browns themselves."

REWRITING THE BOOK
Roy P. Drachman of the Tucson, Ariz., Semi-Pro Baseball league relays this report of a recent game between the Davis-Monthan and Marana air bases. . . . Bill Clemensen, who once toiled for the Pittsburgh Pirates, is the Davis-Monthan manager and victim of the mellerdrummer. . . . After three innings Bill's team was leading 15-2, but Marana scored seven runs after two were out in the seventh and repeated the same stunt in the ninth to tie the score. . . . Clemensen put himself in to pitch the last few innings and after each team had scored in the 15th he felt so sure of winning that he allowed a Manana pitcher, Ivancich, who had been knocked out in the ninth, to return to the hill rather than call the game because the other team had run out of hurlers. . . . Davis-Monthan pounded Ivancich for two runs in the 16th, but Marana got to Clemensen for three and won the ball game, 21-20.

Angels Help Rainiers to Sixth Place

Seattle Cuts Padres' Win Streak at Four Games As Oaks Drop Two to LA Men

By The Associated Press
Move Seattle into sixth place in the Coast league standings today and credit the magnanimous Los Angeles Angels with an assist.

The Rainiers snapped San Diego's winning streak at four games yesterday, winning handily 13 to 2, as the Angels casually grossed 20 hits and 15 runs to sweep a doubleheader from Oakland, 5-2 and 10-1.

The combination pushed the Oaks back to the seventh slot and eased Seattle one notch up.

The Rainiers drove the Padres' Charley Schanz to cover in the second inning with a deluge of nine hits and seven runs. Joe Dobbins, a San Diego boy, made three hits for the Rainiers to lead both sides at bat. Joe Moran gave the Padres their two runs in the first inning and blanked them the rest of the way, allowing only seven hits.

Portland, the league's No. 4 team, split a twin bill with last place Sacramento, the Beavers taking the opener 7-6 and dropping the nightcap 5-2. Ted Gullic's pinch homer with two out in the first of the ninth rescued the first game for the Beavers.

Utah's Golf Open Shapes Up Better

SALT LAKE CITY, July 8 (AP)—Amidst a general wartime curtailment of sports events, the 18th annual $1200 Utah open golf tournament, beginning tomorrow, is shaping up as better than ever.

Lloyd Mangrum, Ryder cup star from California; Ellsworth Vines, ex-tennis pro; Al Zimmerman of Portland; Sid Harman of Walla Walla, Wash., and John Rogers of Denver are among the professionals who'll try to grab the title big Ed Dudley won last year.

Dudley, Professional Golfers association president and summer professional at the Colorado Springs Broadmoor course, was due today or tomorrow.

The pros will split up $1000 in prize money with the winner collecting $350. The balance is made up of war bonds going to the leading amateurs.

GOING TO SEATTLE?

Go early in the week!

ALL Seattle is overcrowded week-ends. To avoid disappointment we earnestly advise that you plan your trip as early in the week as possible—Monday and Tuesday are best. Your cooperation will effectively push the war forward, too. Because we know you'll agree it's important to accommodate military personnel first.

SEATTLE, July 8 (AP)—Matchmaker Tony Palazolo was hard at work today lining up matches to support Monday night's 15-round title fight between Bantamweight Champion Manuel Ortiz and Joe Robledo of Pasadena, Calif.

Two six-round bouts were announced yesterday. They will pit Earl (Babe) Bergstrom, Seattle featherweight, against Al Cella of Brooklyn in the semi-final, and Leo Romanello, Chicago, against Johnny Benjamin, Portland.

A suitable opponent is being sought for another six-rounder with "Speedy" Cannon of San Diego.

Golfers Get More Distance From Despised Balata Ball

DETROIT, July 8 (AP)—The balata ball that baseball men came to despise is by some tests giving the golfer more distance this summer on his booming drives.

This was on the authority today of dapper Jimmy Demaret, Texas-born Detroit pro, whose thorough tests have changed doubting buffers into cheerful contributors of old golf balls into the reprocessing hopper.

Before club members at his Plum Hollow course where next month's Ryder Cup matches will be played, Demaret stepped to the tee with half a dozen balls—three from the pro shop shelves and three reprocessed numbers. His longest drive of 255 yards was with the old pellet. The reprocessed ball averaged eight yards more in distance.

A few days later Demaret repeated his experiment and got the same eight-yard difference. As a pure scientist, Demaret expressed hopes that his experiment would swell the flow of old golf balls from lockers and golf bags into the repairman's kit. He says golf people claim there are 12 million dozen pellets that could be turned back into play.
