EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS AT BIBLE BAPTIST

Dr. Arthur I. Brown, M.D., F.R.C.S., begins his evangelistic Bible conference at the Bible Baptist church, located on Ward street at South Sixth, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock service.

Dr. Brown will preach at all services Sunday and each day Monday through Friday on the following subjects:

Sunday, July 11, 10 a. m., "Our Lord in Hell"; 3 p. m., "The Amazing Jew and the World Crisis"; 8 p. m., "The War—Its Cause, Meaning and End."

Monday, July 12, 8 p. m., "Behind the Scenes with God and the Devil."

Tuesday, July 13, 8 p. m., "Why Jesus Christ Must Return."

Wednesday, July 14, 8 p. m., Dr. Brown's life story, "From Operating Room to Pulpit."

Thursday, July 15, 8 p. m., "The Devil's Superman Soon to Appear."

Friday, July 16, 8 p. m., "Great Events of the Near Future."

Pastor Wheatley says of Dr. Brown's ministry: "It is a fascinating and unique ministry. In the sweetest spirit with meekness and humility and with no attempt at cheap sensationalism, Dr. Brown answers questions, solves problems of faith, delivers death blows to doubt, establishes Christian faith and winsomely lays the claims of Jesus Christ upon human hearts as he preaches the word of God. His faithfulness to God's Word is a compelling factor in his work as is his earnest, passionate intelligent zeal to win men to his Lord. Dr. Brown must be heard to be appreciated."

First Church of Christ Scientist

Tenth and Washington streets. This church, a branch of The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. "Sacrament" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 11.

The Golden Text will be "We being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread" (I Corinthians 10:17).

Among the citations which will comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it" (Matt. 26:26-27).

The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The true sense is spiritually lost, if the sacrament is confined to the use of bread and wine. The disciples had eaten, yet Jesus prayed and gave them bread. This would have been foolish in a literal sense; but in its spiritual significance, it was natural and beautiful" (pg. 32).

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. A meeting which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing is held every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A free Christian Science reading room is located at 1023 Main street, where the Bible, writings by Mary Baker Eddy, and authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

All are cordially invited to attend the services and use the reading room. Radio program KFJI, 2 to 2:15 p. m. each Monday under the direction of committee on publication for Oregon.

Apostolic Faith

Sunday, 9:30 a. m., Sunday school with classes and efficient teachers for all ages and grades. Morning worship, 11 o'clock. 7:45 p. m., special orchestra selections with Evelyn Craig directing, also selected vocal numbers followed by personal testimonies. Concluding with a fundamental gospel sermon by spirit-filled ministers.

Wednesday and Friday, 8 p. m., regular services. Cordial invitation to all services is extended the public. Collections are never taken. Come as you are!

"Glamour Girl of Babylon," Subject at First Baptist

"The Glamour Girl of Babylon" is the subject upon which the Rev. C. C. Brown will speak Sunday night at the First Baptist church, Eighth and Washington streets.

The pastor states that he will discuss the apostate religious trends of the day, the unscripturalness of the Federal Council of Churches, and the menace of the modern move toward a universal, world church. The corresponding political move interlarded with the religious "isms" will also be pointed out by the speaker.

Mr. Brown will use the "Scarlet Woman Upon the Colored Beast" as the basic text for the prophetic of the religious blasphemy and abominations now current throughout the world. He says that the present idealism of an United States of the world is an indication of man's failure, and a willingness to accept Satan's program for the culmination of the gentile age in a last effort to save a corrupt and condemned society.

Who is the scarlet woman? Who are the kings? Which city is the Babylon of this prophecy? These are questions to be answered. The pastor's message will be prophetic. It will be timely. It will be pertinent and pungent. It will amaze many who hear it. The public is cordially invited to hear this prophetic discussion.

First Presbyterian

The First Presbyterian church is located on North Sixth and Pine streets, at the very heart of the city. The pastor is the Rev. Theodore Smith, 435 North Second street, and telephone at the residence 5477 and at the church 7311. Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchellmore is the organist for the summer months.

The morning worship is held at 11 o'clock and opens with the organ prelude, "Communion," by Guilmant. The procession is "Fairest Lord Jesus," arranged by Willis. The choir response to the pastoral greeting is Clennahan's "Grace and Peace." Following the call to worship both congregation and choir unite in singing "The Doxology." After the invocation and Lord's prayer, both sing "The Gloria Patri." The period of special prayer for our armed forces opens with the choir singing "Hear Our Prayer, O Lord" and closes with congregation and choir singing "Our Fathers God to Thee, Author of Liberty." The choir offertory is Schumann's "We Give Thee But Thine Own" and the organ offertory is "Andante in E Flat" by Beethoven. There will be a special musical number suitable for communion. The pastor will give a brief communion meditation, before the sacrament is administered. The service closes with all singing "Jesus, I Come," with the choir dismissal, "Threelord Amen" and the organ postlude "Postlude," by Merkel.

The evening worship is held at 8 o'clock and opens with the organ prelude, "Evening Song," by Schumann. The offertory is "In Heavenly Love Abiding," by Mendelssohn. The pastor will deliver the evening sermon. The service closes with the organ postlude, "March," by Henry Smart.

The Bible school is held in the morning at 9:45 o'clock with the general superintendent in charge of the main school and the departmental superintendents in charge of their respective departments, beginners, primary, and junior. All classes are being maintained throughout the summer. Immediately preceding the opening of the school a pre-prayer service is held in the pastor's study at 9:40. To this all interested, as well as the teachers, are cordially invited.

The Christian Endeavor societies meet at 7 o'clock in the evening. To these all young people are cordially welcomed.
