

Eleanor Collier Bride Of Army Captain

Klamath Girl Marries in Ceremony at Presidio in San Francisco to Captain Frederick Ehlers

With all the romantic excitement and glamor of a military wedding, Eleanor Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Collier of Klamath Falls, and Captain Frederick Ehlers, of Redmond, Oregon, were married in a ceremony read at the post chapel at the Presidio in San Francisco on the afternoon of June the twenty-sixth.

The ceremony was read at four o'clock. The bride's only attendant was her younger sister, Dorothy, who was junior maid of honor. Lieutenant John P. Tipper was best man and ushers were Captain Charles D. Y. Ostrum and Lieutenant Ned O. Kirkham.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a long-sleeved white princess gown fashioned of marquisette over satin. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was fastened to a Juliet cap. She carried a shower bouquet of three white orchids surrounded by small white butterfly orchids.

Miss Dorothy Collier wore a blue marquisette gown and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of gardenias.

The Presidio chapel was entirely decked in white. Tall, white tapers were flanked by white snapdragons and stocks banked against the altar and garlands of white stock were fastened to the ends of the pews.

Mrs. Alfred D. Collier, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon gown of powder blue and black complimented by an orchid and a small flower trimmed hat.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the new home of the couple at 1338 Filbert street in San Francisco. Receiving guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers and Mrs. Alfred Collier. Mrs. Guy Page, sister of the groom, assisted in cutting the cake and Miss Georgia Vail presided at the punch bowl. Assisting were Mrs. C. E. Harrington, Miss Peggy Groves, Mrs. Guy Page and Mrs. John Almack.

Guests at the wedding and reception were members of the immediate families and members of the headquarters staff of the Western Defense Command and Fourth Army, and their wives.

For going away, the bride wore a gray tailleur with gray hat, white gloves and black accessories.

Mrs. Ehlers is a graduate of the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. Later she attended graduate school at Stanford university.

Captain Ehlers is a graduate of the University of Oregon where he was a member of Sigma Nu. He is at present bomb disposal officer of the Western Defense Command and Fourth Army stationed at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Dr. Dorothy Collier of Eugene, Mrs. Denton Anderson, New Haven, Connecticut; Dr. and Mrs. John Almack, Stanford university; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Page and Grant Page of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. George Ehlers, Marcola, and Mrs. C. E. Harrington of Modesto.

SEW AND STUDY CLUB MEETS ON JULY 1

The Sew and Study club met with Mrs. L. M. Haines, 1114 Crescent avenue, Thursday, July the first, for desert luncheon at one o'clock. The centerpiece for the table was of red, white and blue flowers flanked on either side by miniature American flags. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Robert Hough describing her visit to various points of historical interest on the east coast, and members spent the afternoon in sewing.

Attending were Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. A. W. Skinner, Mrs. J. K. Reno, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. Glenn Kent, Phyllis Hogan, Mrs. E. C. Stuckey, Mrs. Victor Anderson, Mrs. L. K. Phelps and the hostess.

BRUCE M'KAY HONORED AT BUFFET PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. McKay of 2019 Manzanita street were hosts on Thursday night at a buffet supper honoring Mr. Bruce McKay of Seattle who has been visiting here for the past week.

Flowers decorating the buffet and around the rooms were in red, white and blue.

Cards were played during the evening with high scores going to Mrs. Frank Bogatay and Mr. Bruce McKay.

Honoring Mr. McKay were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orr, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Mayes, Mrs. Frank Bogatay, Mrs. Gerald Thomas and the host and hostess.

Miss Loosley Marries

Ft. Klamath Girl Weds in Portland at St. Stephens Church

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Loosley of Fort Klamath have announced the marriage of their daughter, Frances Dorothy, to Mr. Alan Gilbert Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Horton of Medford, at an early morning mass at St. Stephens church in Portland on June the sixteenth the Reverend A. J. Carmody.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin and illusion net, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, larkspur, and bouvardia. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls.

Miss Carol Jane Loosley was her sister's only attendant. She wore a dress of rose chiffon, with a matching Mary Stuart cup. She carried a bouquet of blue and pink larkspur and sweetpeas.

Ted G. Schopff was best man.

Miss Patricia Neubecker of Seattle was soloist for the wedding ceremony and Miss Eris Strober of Lewiston played the organ.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held at the Roosevelt hotel in Portland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Horton are graduates of Chiloquin high school. Mrs. Horton later attended Marylhurst college in Portland and Mr. Horton was a student at Santa Clara university.

Mr. Horton who is now in the army air corps, is stationed in Bakersfield, California, where Mrs. Horton plans to join him.

Members of Sojourners will meet next Wednesday afternoon at a quarter to two o'clock in the Willard hotel. All those who are affiliated with the club, and newcomers to the city, are invited to attend.

CAPTAIN AND MRS. FREDERICK EHLERS are shown here just after their wedding at the post chapel in San Francisco on June the twenty-sixth. They are now making their home in San Francisco. Mrs. Ehlers is the former Eleanor Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Collier of this city.

Bob Leonards Visit Klamath Friends

Former Klamath Residents Are Here After Wedding in Reno, Nevada, on June 30

Visiting here this weekend are Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Robert Owen Leonard, who were married Wednesday, June the thirtieth, at seven o'clock in the evening in Reno, Nevada. The bride is the former Patricia Wethered, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wethered of 1232 East Twentieth street, Eugene.

The new Mrs. Leonard chose a melon wool suit with a faint plaid marking for her wedding costume and had matching accessories and a shoulder corsage.

Both are well known here among the younger set. Mrs. Leonard was with the Klamath county welfare commission for more than one year, and recently has been administrator with offices in Prineville. After a brief visit here en route to Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard visited her parents in the valley city, returning to Klamath Falls late Friday afternoon. They will leave Sunday evening for Sacramento where they will have a brief visit with Captain and Mrs. William H. Cummings, also former Klamath folks. They were guests at the Cummings home on their way from Reno to Klamath Falls last week. Mrs. Cummings will be remembered as the former Eleanor Weimar.

Mr. Leonard was a member of the editorial staff of The Herald and News prior to going into the armed forces. He has been stationed with a mountain infantry division at Camp Hale, Pando, Colorado. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Leonard of Chicago.

Miss Michelson To Wed Soon

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Michelson Announce Engagement of Daughter to Robert Stewart of Nevada

The month of July was giving the traditional month of June, especially dedicated to brides, a race for news of betrothals and forthcoming marriages. This week another attractive Klamath Falls girl's name was added to the growing list of brides-to-be when Mr. and Mrs. Carl Michelson of 1936 Fremont street, announced the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Robert H. Stewart of Minden, Nevada.

The news is of wide interest to the younger college set and especially to Oregon State people who are home for the summer. Miss Michelson was graduated a year ago from Klamath Union high school and attended Oregon State college one year. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She is spending the summer here with her parents.

Mr. Stewart is the son of Mrs. Grover L. Krick of Minden, Nevada, and is awaiting his call into the United States army. He was graduated from Oregon State college with the class of 1943, and was active in campus affairs. Mr. Stewart is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He visited here briefly en route from Corvallis to his home in Minden this week.

As is the case with many a romance in these days when young men are called into the service, no definite date has been set for the wedding.

No BPW Meeting On Monday

A meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, formerly scheduled for Monday evening, has been indefinitely postponed, according to the president, Mrs. Winnifred Gillen. It is doubtful if any meetings will be held this month due to the bond drive in which the BPW is in charge jointly with the Soroptimists, necessitating numerous committee meetings.

GALLAGHERS CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. John Hugh Gallagher celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Friday, July the ninth, when a few intimate friends were invited in for an open house at the Gallagher home.

A large wedding cake and a white floral centerpiece centered the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher have lived in Klamath Falls for the past fifteen years where Mr. Gallagher has been in business. They were married in the Holy Rosary church in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Tilton and the latter's sister, Mrs. Vera Stephenson of Oregon, California, left Saturday for Lake of the Woods where they will spend a fortnight's holiday, occupying the Rose Poole cabin on the east side of the lake.
