

Exciting Visit In Mexico City

Three Klamath Girls Report Having Wonderful Time in Mexican University at Summer Session.

Exciting word comes from Mexico City where three Klamath Falls residents are going to school. Phyllis Foster, Janice Bubb and Mrs. B. B. Blomquist are attending the University of Mexico in Mexico City this summer and have been doing a goodly amount of sight-seeing on the side.

The three are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Grisi. Mrs. Grisi is a former United States girl and is a graduate of a college here in the States. Mr. Grisi is a lawyer in Mexico City.

They have had exciting times at both bullfights and rodeos so far. However, the bullfights they did not especially care for.

They have reported, though, that the rodeos are the most wonderful they have ever seen, with each performer in a brilliant costume and having an individual act. At one of the bullfights, the women were thrilled to be able to see the president of Mexico and also of another South American country who happened to be visiting in Mexico at the time.

Later this month they have been invited to a reception for the President of Chile.

The attendance at the summer session is very large, according to letters received. The trio plans to return to the States the latter part of the summer.

Phyllis graduated this year from the University of Oregon and Janice is a junior student at Stanford university in Palo Alto. Mrs. Blomquist will return to her teaching position at Klamath Union high school when their trip is over.

GILVIE SISTERS come through with a magician's bag of tricks. Never have we had such a wonderful array of summertime preparations. Out of the magician's bag come—

THE NEW CREAM HAIR PACK—a velvet benison for every type of hair. A wonder-thing to counteract drying, devitalizing effect of summer sun and wind. It's especially welcomed in these rush days, because it's quick, reliable and guarantees glamour for gala summer evenings and sunny days.

PROTECSUN—a film of security for hair—a kind of gilt-edged security against the ravages of sunburn. It's good for skin, too, an economy worth noting.

CREME-SET—magic make-up for the hair. For shine, for sheen . . . for gleam and beam . . . for dancing satin ringlets when you dance.

CASTILE SOAP SHAMPOO—cleaner, purer—a vacation must for every member of the family.

HAIR FRAGRANCES—the popular "Aura" and "Swing" make anyone a dream girl, to haunt a soldier's memory during the long, tiresome days at camp. Especially valuable now as it's definitely uplifting to the spirits.

IN spite of everything, keep your spirits up. Cosmetics pep up your morale.
