

Find Watch Lost
Fifteen Years Ago

PORTLAND, July 12 (AP)—Earlier this week police found the watch that Steve Meek lost 15 years ago while he was working at the Bull Run water system. Then they discovered they had lost Steve.

But today Steve saw the story in the papers and claimed his watch which was recovered in a pawnshop.

Gas rationing has stopped a lot of people from seeing this world—and maybe the next.

Long-Distance Vows Wed Parted Couple

TACOMA, Wash., July 12 (AP)—Josephine Lobacz today is the bride of Captain Joseph Krystosek, an army physician in far-off New Guinea.

The wedding without a bridegroom was performed yesterday at the home of Mrs. Martha Burton, Captain Krystosek's sister. Arrangements began two months ago when an application for a marriage certificate was sent to the captain in New Guinea. The marriage will not be completed under the laws of this state until the has taken similar vows in New Guinea.

Sourness spoils milk—and has the same effect on people.

If you are ever stranded on the road by failure of the condenser in your distributor, try removing the condenser and conveying the butt end of the radiator to tighten the bit.
