100 Per Cent Cooperation Urged in July War Bond Sales by Women's Club

By CORAL J. SABO, BPW Bond Sale Chairman
As you all know by this time, the women of Klamath county are expected to put over the sale of war bonds for the month of July to the tune of about $300,000. CAN WE DO IT???

Professional Women, are asking you to join them in this worth-while task.

Letters are being sent to each women's organization in the county asking its cooperation, and the clubs hope for 100 per cent response. Telephone the chamber of commerce and register your club there and volunteer your services.

We hear repeatedly that this war will be won or lost on the "Home Front." Are we going to lose it for lack of a few hours of concentrated effort to sell the bonds necessary to provide ammunition for our men on the "Fighting Front?" Not if I know the fighting spirit of the women of Klamath county!

Ask yourself, "Am I doing all I can to help the war effort and hasten the return of my boy and my neighbor's boy?" Selling bonds is one way to accomplish that, so let's get out and SELL BONDS. Remember you are not asking a favor when you ask a friend or neighbor to buy a bond. You are doing her or him a service, for it is the safest investment possible.

We are counting on each and every woman in Klamath county, and "KLAMATH COUNTY NEVER FAILS."

Poe Valley

POE VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holzhauser and son Glen, moved back into the valley this spring. They are living with Hank Holzhauser and their mother.

Jane Tucker was a visitor at the Emil Wells' home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lloyd and some friends were visitors here from near Medford over the Fourth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Nork and children and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dock and Lucille, were visitors in the valley from Klamath Falls and Chiloquin over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Glovers were callers in the valley Tuesday from Langell valley.

Louise and Dale Van Meter of Klamath Falls and Crystal Houck of Dorris are spending a part of their vacation here.

Hollie Haines and family finished putting up their first crop of hay this week.

Arbee and Warren Roberts are working for Chet Barton now.

Pauline Roberts went to Oles Tuesday to attend a shower held there for one of the Bruner girls.

Chet Barton is having some of his alfalfa cut down this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bean Tucker and daughter Jean, were callers at the Joe Nork home Thursday evening.

Virgil Holmer is cultivating potatoes this week.

Merrill

Sergeant Richard Schuck, who spent his furlough here with his brothers, Clifford, Victor and Claud Schuck, of Merrill and Tulelake and his sisters, Mrs. Dave Liskey and Mrs. Robert Dehlinger, Klamath Falls, has returned to duty at Camp Davis, N. C., where he is training with the anti-aircraft artillery corps. Mr. and Mrs. Vicor Schuck drove to Reno with the sergeant where he is trained for the south. They were accompanied also by Alverda Wolfe, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ival Wolfe.

Private Ralph Howell has returned to the air base at Frederick, Okla., after spending a furlough at the home of his family near Merrill. He is serving as a mechanic and has the rating of crew chief.

Tanks, Loads of 'Em, Ready for Action

This picture of tanks, tank destroyers, armored carriages, jeeps and other vehicles at the Richmond, Calif., Tank Arsenal—shows more material of its type than the entire U. S. Army had on hand in peacetime. Giant cranes at the plant lift these big boys on and off flat cars as easily as you'd lift a third cup of coffee—if you had it.

Sen. Holman Asks Revision of NLRB

WASHINGTON, July 10 (AP)—Revision of the National Labor Relations Act to thwart "labor racketeers" was advocated this week by Sen. Holman (R-Ore.) before a senate committee on labor and education. He scored what he called "sale of permits to work" on which, he charged, labor exploiters have fattened.

California highways include 1408 bridges, totaling about 100 miles of roadway.

SAD, SAD STORY

NEW YORK, (AP)—David Rappaport fanned out his cards on the table—a royal flush—then let out a war-whoop which immediately was taken up by his poker-playing companions. But the noise brought the police. Disorderly conduct charges were made against the seven players, all pleaded guilty and paid $1 fines. Rappaport never collected on the royal flush.

All vehicles carrying gasoline for the air forces are equipped with gasoline segregators which eliminate water from the fuel.

MPs Patrol Medford Streets to Make Safe for Women

MEDFORD, July 12 (AP)—Military police from nearby Camp White again are patrolling the streets of Medford, following complaints by women that they had been molested by soldiers and a warning by Police Chief Clatous McCredie for women to stay off the streets at night unless escorted.

McCredie said he expected reestablishment of M. P. patrols to ease the situation.

Even White House in Dark As Allies Land in Sicily

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Allied invasion of Sicily caught the capital of the United States by surprise in the early morning hours Saturday shrouded so well in secrecy that usual sources of such information knew nothing about it in advance.

The technique was as perfect as that employed when General Dwight D. Eisenhower led amphibious operations as allied commander in the invasion of Africa.

Then, mum was the word until the lightning hit, and so it was Friday night.

Shortly before midnight, the war department was the scene of unusual activity for that hour. The men who "cover" the army here sensed something behind the tension.

This buzz over only possibilities was confined to a small area. The White House was quiet, and this tranquility, instead of being ominous tended to allay any fears that "something was up."

The feeling of impending events continued in spite of that, and in the face of assurance of the office of war information that nothing unusual was happening on the foreign cable circuits.

McCredie said he expected reestablishment of M. P. patrols to ease the situation.

summoned the press and gave out a terse 50-word communique that Sicily had been stormed. The announcement culminated weeks of expectancy. The drive against Europe was on!

It hit only four days before axis-held France ordinarily would celebrate her independence day—they call it Bastille Day commemorating the fall of the hated prison 134 years ago.

Soviets Tell Nazis Of Sicily Invasion

NEW YORK, July 12 (AP)—The Russians have set up loud-speakers along the eastern front to inform opposing German troops of the allied invasion of Sicily, the British Broadcasting corporation said today in a broadcast reported by U. S. government monitors.

The broadcast, directed to Germany in the German language, also declared that soviet planes were dropping leaflets over the Nazi lines announcing the invasion, the office of war information said.

It cost $35,000 to get this man a job

1. Mike is a Union Oil well-puller. He makes $1.10 an hour. Like any other skilled workman he has to have tools. The principal "tool" in his case is a portable derrick, which pulls the pipe out of the wells. Without that derrick, Mike's just another guy with two hands.
2. So in order to use his skill, Union first had to buy a portable derrick that cost $35,000. At first glance, this may seem like a lot of money. But it takes almost exactly that much to provide the working equipment for every employe in the Union Oil Company.
3. Of course, it only takes a $60 typewriter to put a stenographer to work. But on the other hand, it takes a $4,000,000 refining unit to make jobs for just 25 stillmen. And if it weren't for the refining unit, the stenographer wouldn't have anything to write letters about.
4. So the Union Oil stockholders have actually invested $35,696 (in refineries, ships, tools, rigs, machines, oil lands, etc.) for every one of the 8,192 employes in the company. This figure shows how drastically the machine age has altered American life.
5. Only 30 years ago, 99 men out of 100 could practice their trade with tools they bought themselves. Then came our great flood of modern inventions. At hand tools gave way to power tools, and machine followed intricate machine, industries changed almost overnight.
6. Many, such as oil, began to require such an investment in equipment that no one man, employe or employer, could furnish the "tools" by himself. The only answer was multiple ownership. Large groups of Americans began to pool their money in corporations.
7. That way, they could put up enough money relatively to buy the equipment Mike needed and, at the same time, preserve competition—that all-important incentive government ownership can never provide. The efficiency of this system startled the world.
8. In two generations, we achieved the highest standard of living, and the greatest capacity for war production, ever known. The corporation, of course, is not the only phase of our Free Enterprise system that made this possible. But without it, the job could never have been done.

The company that became Union Oil was founded in 1886 out of the personal savings of nine Santa Paula, California business men.

Today, it is owned by 31,652 people, most of whom live right here in the West—3,628 in San Francisco, 494 in Seattle, 7 in Grants Pass, Oregon, 274 in San Diego, etc.

The Company's profits which, in 1942, amounted to 3.8% on capital invested, are shared among these people.

Last year this net profit amounted to $174.94 per stockholder. Of this sum, $147.42 was paid out in dividends—$27.52 was left in the business.

In return for these profits, the 31,652 owners have financed the tank ships, oil wells, refineries and service stations that make Union's operations possible.

This is the story of most American corporations. By pooling the money and talents of a lot of people, we are able to do a job collectively that we could never do alone.
