Leaving Here—Friends of Mrs. Neil Black and her young son, Bruce, will regret to learn that she left Thursday morning for Eugene where she will make her home with her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Hansen Sr., for the duration. On July 19, Mrs. Black and Bruce will leave for Sioux City, Ia., where Captain Black is stationed with the U. S. army air corps. They will remain in Sioux City until Capt. Black receives his overseas orders. He was transferred recently from Wendover, Utah. Mrs. Black will then return to Eugene. Her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Ohms of Hildreth, Neb., has been visiting here and will go as far as Hildreth with her niece. The Black home on Portland avenue will be rented.

Visit Here—Lt. (jg) B. C. Ledyard and his bride, with Lt. (jg) E. E. Georgian, all of Farragut, Idaho, stopped here Wednesday evening to visit Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke at her home on Portland street. The three are en route to their homes in California and the men will report for active duty at sea in the south. They are members of the United States dental corps, U. S. naval reserve, and have been at Farragut for the past eight months. They brought messages to the Roenicke family from Lt. (sg) Roenicke who is stationed at Farragut also.

Return to Texas—Word has been received here that Lieutenant and Mrs. E. E. Prince have arrived home in Gatesville, Tex., after visiting here at the W. C. Kohler residence and also in Tulelake with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prince. Prince is an instructor in the tank destroyer division. Mrs. Prince was the former Lila Mae Kohler of this city. On their return to Texas, they visited in Los Angeles with Marcella Kohler, who is employed in the Douglas aircraft plant.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Vogler of 327 Lincoln street, are on a two weeks' vacation visiting with the latter's parents in Rupert, Ida. Vogler, member of the United States merchant marine, is home from eight months in the South Pacific. He has a fortnight's holiday before returning to sea duty. The Vogler's son, Lewis, is attending the University of Oregon summer session and will continue with his studies until called up for service.

Returns—Mrs. James O'Keefe of Darrow avenue has returned from Chester, Calif., where she spent one week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crapp (Beverly O'Keefe), and their newly arrived son, Larry James. Mrs. Crapp returned from the Westwood hospital several days before her mother returned home.

Plans Trip South—Mrs. Denton J. Rees and young son, Denton Jon, who are spending the summer at their home on Lakeshore drive, are planning to leave this weekend for Sacramento to visit with the parents of Capt. Rees, former Klamath dentist who is held as prisoner in the Philippines.

From Seattle—Ben Lemire returned from Seattle where he was working in the shipyards and attending Seattle college to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lemire, 3356 Altamont drive. He will be in Klamath Falls until he reports for his induction into the army.

Reopens Station—George Williams, who formerly operated the Associated station in Tulelake, has announced that he will reopen the station on August 1.

Moves Here—Mrs. George Hartley, pioneer resident of the Bonanza district, has moved to Klamath Falls where she will make her permanent home.

Plans Vacation—Mrs. Sue Hamilton of Penney's ready-to-wear department, is planning to leave next week for a two week's vacation.

To Lakeview—Lee S. McMullen of the Klamath Production Credit association was in Lakeview on business Wednesday.

On Vacation—Mrs. Angus Newton of the county treasurer's office is enjoying a week's vacation.

JAMES FLOYD BUYS VAN'S CAMERA SHOP

Sale of Van's Camera shop, 727 Main street, to James Floyd Comart studio, was announced Thursday by C. P. Van Doren. The new owner is taking over July 15, but the office will be closed for remodeling and the moving of Comart studio across the street, until August 1, it was announced.

Van Doren opened the shop in November, 1938. Floyd has operated Comart for the past several years. He plans to conduct a studio and shop at the new location. Van Doren said his future plans were indefinite.

War Times Change Tastes In Books, Say Librarians

War times have changed not only eating and living habits, but have also reversed reading habits, according to a check made with the city and county libraries.

Travel books and biographies are being read by people who want to know more about the countries and people where our fighting men are stationed.

"Escape" literature is high on the reading list, with librarians reporting that many people come in to the libraries asking for any kind of a book but a war story. Escape reading includes western stories, mystery thrillers and other light fiction stuff.

In great demand are books featuring the technical side of the war with army and navy tactics and the mechanics of aviation popular. Technical books are also being read by many preparing for war jobs. Books on carpentry, welding, and sheet metal are included on this list.

Housewives are reading up on feeding the family and the best cooking methods. Victory gardeners are studying up-to-the-minute methods of gardening and are also anticipating results as is shown by the demand for reading material concerning canning and cooking.

The children are also very aware of the war, requests for books on airplanes and submarines running high. A series of books for children on the army, navy, and other branches of the armed forces is also popular.

However, as sometimes reported in other cities, Klamath Falls youngsters have not entirely foregone the old classics. "Tom Sawyer" and "Treasure Island" are getting their requests. Animal stories are also popular as are juvenile books that have been or are being made into movies.

Boys and girls of high school age are reading about the same books as the adults, with a

John McCown Hurt While Boarding Car In Los Angeles

Friends of John McCown, for many years a resident of Klamath Falls when he and Mrs. McCown conducted a dance studio here, will regret to learn that he suffered painful injuries in Los Angeles on July 2. He is now recovering at the family home, 179 North Halstead street, Pasadena.

McCown was boarding a street car en route to a visit with the Wiltsie family, formerly of this city and now in Los Angeles. He was struck by a car, dragged 10 feet and in addition to severe bruises suffered a fractured arm. After treatment at the Georgia street emergency hospital he was moved to the Los Angeles General hospital where he remained for three days. Mrs. McCown is now working on the production line at North American Aircraft company.
