By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—The AAU handbook probably won't list any new broad jumping records established by sports writers in July, 1943, but from here it seems that the boys have made some remarkably long leaps at conclusions about what Branch Rickey would say to Leo Durocher and vice versa. . . . We don't know what "de revolution" in Brooklyn amounted to, nor what Leo actually said about resigning, but anybody who gave the matter a serious second thought realized that Rickey would have to stand back of his manager as long as possible.

SHORT THOUGHT

Rickey was laid up yesterday with indigestion. . . . Wonder if he swallowed some of those stories about the Dodgers? . . . Or some of Durocher's words? . . . Or maybe his own pride?

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

If Gunder Haegg returns to Sweden by plane instead of by tanker, he'll likely make his farewell appearance at Yankee stadium about August 21 instead of at New Orleans. And he may try for a mile record at Princeton as a build-up for the last show. . . . Louis Angel Firpo plans to send his amateur heavyweight, Abel Cestac, to the United States this fall in hopes of building him into a heavyweight title contender. Rancher Firpo says he's had an invitation from Jack Dempsey, but the fight might appreciate it more if he left Cestac at home and shipped a couple of steers instead. . . . New Jersey's Baltusrol Golf club has added 101 more sheep to its menagerie and now has 185 animals on the premises.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Harvey J. Boyle, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette: "That, tumbling to the east is the call of the wild—the wild Brooklyn fans, a measure of whose capacity for denunciation is to be had from the fact that the most flowery term in their vocabulary of praise is 'Our Bums.' What such a dubious accolade born of success will change to in failure will make a fish wife's vocabulary the essence of circumpetition."

SERVICE DEPT.

Ensign Cornelius Warmerdam has been transferred from the athletics department of the Del Monte, Calif., pre-flight school to the military department, where a vaulting pole won't help him much. . . . Sgt. Don Schiffer, who formerly compiled the major league statistics for the Elias baseball team in England and reports that it is leading its league with only one defeat in nine starts. . . . Naturally you could say Statistician Schiffer's team figures to be good.

We cannot afford to relax our efforts for an instant. On the contrary, we must prepare ourselves to meet calmly and steadily the greatest strains to which we may ever be subjected.—WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson.

Navy Athlete

DEL MONTE, Calif.—Highest ranking cadet of the sixth battalion in athletics at the U. S. navy pre-flight school here was Cadet Harry R. "Bob" Waggoner, son of W. R. Waggoner, 920 Grant street, Klamath Falls, Ore. Graduating this week with the sixth battalion, Cadet Waggoner received a grade of 3.90 in athletics. The grade of 4.00 is perfect. Cadet Waggoner attended Klamath Union high school and Oregon State college.

Brazle to Try Heaving For Cardinals

SACRAMENTO, July 15 (AP)—Al Brazle, Sacramento pitcher who recently set a Pacific Coast league record by twirling 40 scoreless innings, will see what he can do to the major league record books.

He will report to the St. Louis Cardinals Monday to fill a gap left in the National league club's pitching staff when Howard Polletie entered the army. President Phil Martelme of the Sacramento club, a Cardinal chain, said that as yet "nothing had been done" about transferring the franchise of the Coast league outfit to Spokane, Wash. He so quoted Sam Bredon, owner of the St. Louis outfit. Reports of an impending transfer had been prevalent in Coast league circles because of expressed dissatisfaction with Sacramento baseball attendance.

Dog racing, a top-ranking pastime to its devotees but otherwise considered a sort of poor relation to horse racing, is doing much better in the Pacific northwest than its more patriotic relative. The major horse racing plant, Longacres at Seattle, didn't even get a season this year. On the other hand the principal dog corral, Multnomah stadium in Portland, reaps a golden harvest. So far the gross betting figure has climbed 50 per cent over the take at this point last year and

Bobo May Go Back to Americans

Newsom to Get Job Pitching St. Louis Browns to Flag; Traded From Bums

ST. LOUIS, July 15 (AP)—Louis (Bobo) Newsom is coming back to his American league alma mater—possibly. If he reports, he'll get the job of pitching the St. Louis Browns to the pennant. That's what Manager Luke Sewell asserts, and Sewell is convinced Newsom will join the club regardless of the ex-Dodger's statement in New York that: "I don't want to play in St. Louis. I won't play in St. Louis!" Sewell just smiles and says: "I believe Newsom will be a big help in winning the pennant." Manager Luke Sewell stoutly avers. "Our hitting is getting better. With a fine pitcher like Bobo in there, we should climb fast."

Bulky Bobo was traded by the Brooklyn Dodgers to the Browns yesterday in return for relief pitchers Fred Ostermuller and Archie McKain. He brings with him an impressive record of nine victories and four losses against a combined record of one win and three setbacks registered for St. Louis by the Dodgers' new properties.

Sewell said Don Barnes, president, and William O. DeWitt, vice president and general manager, negotiated the trade in the east with his full approval. Sewell expects no trouble from Newsom, whose suspension caused the Dodgers' rebellion against Leo Durocher last Saturday, he said.

"I can't say how Newsom will behave with the club because I don't know the gentleman personally. I do know he's a fine competitor and a fine pitcher. We need both qualities. We want to win the pennant. I think we can with Newsom."

New Record—Hole in One Three Times

MILWAUKEE, July 15 (AP)—Bud Fritsch sliced his first two shots into the rough on the 18th hole at Whitnall yesterday. His third was a beauty, straight to the green; so he tried another, and it landed on the green, too. Fritsch then hunted—and found—his two "slicers" but not those that had landed. Then a partner looked in the cup, and there was one ball; another partner found the other in the practice cup. Fritsch wound up with a 104, but his "ace three" was worth 100 strokes to him, he said.

Derby Day in New Guinea

Tearing down makeshift track somewhere in New Guinea, horses are as popular with fighting men as they are at home. There is betting and excitement as 30 steeds recaptured from Japs run in Dobadura Derby. Only nine of 30 starters finish as 21 emulate former owners and leave course in disorder.

Amazed Babe Discovers 20 Grid Players

SEATTLE, July 15 (AP)—Orin (The Babe) Hollingbery definitely is at the helm of the Washington State college football team.

In great pre-season form, the Babe broke out a fresh team of the State college stationery yesterday and got off a letter to a Seattle sports writer in mild (for Babe) rebuke over reports WSC was going to have a one-man football squad this year, what with all the front line Cougar stars on the Washington campus for military instruction. "I have been tremendously encouraged and somewhat surprised to find I have some 20 players on my roster," the veteran coach wrote. "Most are youngsters anxious to start their college careers before entering military service; some are 4-F's and others planning to take specialized work on the campus. In one week I had letters from six such prospects, which leads me to believe we will have a representative squad."

"I have had one or two letters from boys who seemed puzzled and uncertain whether or not we intended to carry on our intercollegiate schedule. I'll appreciate your mention that it is definitely our intention to provide a well rounded schedule in all sports as in the past."

Pelican Baseball Practice Set for Friday Night

Frank Ramsey, manager of the Pelican baseball team, has called a practice for Friday night at the Recreation park field to whip the team in shape for the game with the Bend Elks at Bend on July 18, and the game with Medford at Medford on July 25.

Flat-Foot Frankie Sinkwich, Now 'Boot,' Looks to Career

By BURGESS DAMRON ATLANTA, July 15 (AP)—Flat-foot Frankie Sinkwich, the football fireball, becomes a marine "boot" today, but Frankie still thinks the gridiron is his destiny and he's looking forward to a lucrative professional career at the war's end.

The backfield ace, who galloped and passed his way to All-America fame with Wallace Butts' University of Georgia Bulldogs, takes on marine discipline at Parris Island, S. C., 15 pounds over "playing weight." "I want to do my part to get this war over," declared the shock-haired Sinkwich. "But

Deer Story—The Fish That Didn't Get Away

BEND, July 13 (AP)—The big fish didn't get away. A deer ate them.

Such was the story brought to Bend by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodward, who also provided the names of other witnesses. Two very tame deer have been fed by campers at DeSchutes bridge, and one of the deer, a doe, "ate anything from a disrag to a flapjack," they said.

On Sunday, an angler cleaned two large fish, salted them and placed them on a log. Along came the doe and ate both trout, bones and all. Mr. and Mrs. Woodward reported. They believe the salt on the fish served as an appetizer.

Fireworks Pop in Dodger Camp As Bobo Newsom Explodes When Bounced to St. Louis Browns

By JUDSON BAILEY Associated Press Sports Writer
Fireworks still are popping among the Brooklyn Dodgers and that loud noise you heard last night was Louis Norman (Bobo) Newsom exploding as he was bounced out of the Brooklyn baseball parlor. The latest repercussions from the Dodgers' family feud were a statement by Branch Rickey, president of the club, that he would support Manager Leo Durocher to the limit and an announcement that Newsom, the cause celebre of last week's rebellion, had been traded to the St. Louis Browns for a pair of antiquated southpaws, Fritz Ostermuller and Archie McKain. Newsom, never at loss for words, roared in defiance: "I don't want to play in St. Louis. I won't play in St. Louis and I'm not going to report."

Seattle Men Close In on Fourth Spot

Rainiers But 1 Per Cent Point Out in Coast League Dropping Oaks in Double

By The Associated Press
The upsurging Seattle Rainiers who have long and unhappily languished deep in the second division, today stand but one percentage point out of fourth place.

The Seattle club, in seventh place less than a week ago, capped its rise to fifth position by sweeping a doubleheader from Oakland yesterday, 9-4 and 4-2, as Los Angeles beat down San Diego, fourth place tenants, 8 to 1. The same teams met again today.

The Rainiers captured the nightcap yesterday by scoring two runs in the seventh inning to break a 2-2 deadlock. Catcher Hal Suemo cracked out four hits including two doubles to lead the Rainiers on an 18-hit rampage in the first game. Carl Fisher was credited with the first Seattle victory and Byron Speed with the second.

Portland, in third spot, kept right up with the leaders, piling up six runs in the first two innings against Hollywood and coasting on to win 7 to 1. Pitcher Jackie Wilson allowed the Stars seven scattered hits.

Second place San Francisco kept to the pace by slapping Sacramento further into the cellar with a 3-0 victory fashioned on Tom Seals five-hit pitching.

NO CARS ALLOWED

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., July 15 (AP)—A sign on Doubleday field, where the Chicago White Sox and the Brooklyn Dodgers play the annual Shrine game July 19, says: "Horse and people this way; no cars allowed." For emphasis, a $10 prize will be awarded the driver of the horse-drawn vehicle bringing the most persons from outside the village limits.

SUMMER BASEBALL

SEATTLE, July 15 (AP)—To provide recreation for 2000 navy and marine cadets on the campus, the University of Washington has gained approval from the Pacific coast conference to field a baseball team this summer. Faculty permission now is being sought for Sunday contests. Dorsett V. (Tubby) Graves, the regular Washington baseball mentor, will be the coach.

noon and I offered to buy my release from the Brooklyn club, but was refused." Rickey felt that either Durocher or Newsom would have to go as the result of the insurrection of the players last Saturday, when they revolted because Newsom had been suspended for what the manager later termed "general insubordination" and more specifically described as refusal to follow pitching instructions.

Rickey said he would not have let Durocher resign, even if the manager had wanted to, and that he was right in disciplining Newsom. "No coaches, players, or anybody else can tell a manager how to run his ball club," he asserted.

Western Sports Streamline

By RUSS NEWLAND

PORTLAND, July 15 (AP)—Pugilistically yours: This is reading strictly for boxing fans. . . . The padded mits sports has flipped back into the picture in Portland with a bang. . . . You wouldn't believe it unless you viewed the metamorphosis from a ringside seat. . . .

Joe (Old Salt) Waterman, who can talk shop back to the turn of the century, is chiefly responsible for the comeback. . . . He has had help, of course, but Joe is a hustler from way back. . . . The real owner of the club is bulky Tex Salkeld, whose brother, Bill, is a catcher for the San Diego baseball club.

Tex is an army enlistee, assigned to special service down Palm Springs way, but he retains 51 per cent of the local club. . . . Boxing had died on the vine, however, when Waterman took over. . . . He holds a piece in the venture along with a number of Portland sportsmen. . . . They tossed in a flock of folding money and put Joe behind the wheel. . . .

Portland's war industries provide a tremendous payroll to tax and the city was starved for boxing. . . . Waterman, with the assistance of his fraternity brothers of cauliflower college, put the patient on a steady diet of hooks and jabs and a healthy, husky specimen is the result. . . .

Every show had been a paying one until Waterman decided to stage an outdoor attraction in Multnomah stadium. . . . He matched up Jimmy Garrison, the Kansas City welterweight who has become an outstanding card here in something like nine months, with Rodolfo Ramirez, from Mexico City. . . . The show had plenty of build-up and its 15-round distance enjoyed the added lure of being the first marathon bout here since Joe Walcott and young Peter Jackson went 20 heats to a draw, June 18, 1903. . . . Garrison and Ramirez figured to pull in $15,000, no less. . . . When the last clam shell was counted the gross was $13,400. . . . Waterman and associates had expected a profit of about 10 C-notes, as the boys say, or one thousand dollars if you go to your banker for a touch—instead the partners will cut up $65. . . . Incidentally, we thought Ramirez finished out in front. . . . Referee Ralph Gruman called it a draw. . . . If you had judged the right on the appearance of the principals at the end, Garrison would have lost by four miles. . . . He could have hired himself out to haunt a house with his puffed, bruised face and cut mouth. . . . Ramirez was practically unmarked but the bout was mighty close, anyhow. . . . It was the fifth meeting with the score now Ramirez two, Garrison two, one draw. . . .

This city turned out some corking ring men in early years, much better than the average crop to be found anywhere today. . . . Matchmaker Waterman supplies this data. . . .

The Trambitis brothers, Valley, Alex and John, are kicking around but only Valley is here, working in a shipyard. . . . Valley fought under the name "Jimmy Darcy" and while never more than a light heavyweight, in shape, licked a lot of tophatch heavies. . . . His brothers, Alex and John, smaller men who used their real surnames in the ring, are working in Los Angeles. . . .

Billy Mascot, Joe Gorman and Muff Bronson. . . . Older fans will remember them, are shipyard workers here. . . . Weldon "Toughie" Wing is around but not doing so well. . . . Doc Snell, who was a little terror during his Tacoma days, is another shipyard employe, having sold his tavern here to get into defense work. . . . Bud Ridley is a ship-fitter, first class, in the Bremerton navy yard and Dode Bertotti, the southpaw from Aberdeen, was a game warden in Washington when last heard from. . . .

This is sad news. . . . Mickey Rockson, who came out of Boise to become one of the most popular middleweights on the coast years back, lives in Portland. . . . He is totally blind. . . . The affliction is not the result of his boxing days. . . .

Some American planes have as many as 10 machine guns which together can pour out 200 bullets per second.

Bob Quinn, 14-year coach at Eastern Oregon College of Education, told Nolan Skiff of the Pendleton East Oregonian that he held little hope of a football team this year. Maybe not even a basketball team. Schools of that size don't have enough 17-year-olds and 4-Fs for football and at the moment he isn't sure of enough for basketball.

Training tables have been put in storage for the duration in the Pacific Coast Football conference, Coach John Warren of Oregon disclosed on his return to Eugene from the Coast conference meeting in San Francisco. That's one free ride the athletes and their enormous appetites won't get this year. The schools will continue to supply railroad tickets, he said. Assuming, of course, that there's any space left on the trains.

At Lightner of the Salem Statesman says not to be surprised one of these days if Howard Maple, the Willamette coach, takes over a coaching job at College of Puget Sound in Tacoma.
