Mrs Drury Honored

Moore Home Scene of Tea Given in Honor of Klamath Resident

Mrs. Don R. Drury was complimented at a prettily appointed tea on Tuesday afternoon from three until five o'clock when Mrs. K. A. Moore and Mrs. R. E. Hooker entertained at the Moore home on Leroy street.

About twenty-five guests were invited in for tea for Mrs. Drury who is leaving with her family the first of August for Mexico.

Tea was served on the patio at the Moore home and the tea table was centered with an arrangement of blue larkspur and yellow galardia.

Assisting Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Hooker were Mrs. J. C. Johnston, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Ray Oldenburg, Mrs. Vern Owens and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff.

BLACKS LEAVE TO MAKE HOME IN EUGENE

Friends regret to learn of the departure of Mrs. Neil Francis Black and young Bruce who are going to make their home in Eugene with Mrs. Black's mother, Mrs. Charles E. Hansen Sr., for the duration. They have closed their home on Portland street and already are planning to come back as soon as the war is over.

Mrs. Margaret Ohms of Hildreth, Nebraska, visited here for a week at the Black home, and continued to Eugene to spend several days at the Hansen residence. Mrs. Ohms and Mrs. Hansen are sisters. On July the nineteenth, which is next Monday, Mrs. Black and Bruce and Mrs. Ohms will leave for Sioux City, Iowa, Mrs. Ohms to stop at Hildreth. Captain Black has just recently been transferred from Wendover field, Utah, with a bomber squadron of which he is the surgeon. The Black family will then be together until the captain receives his overseas orders.

Rohm-Reynolds

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the altar of the First Methodist church on Monday, July the twelfth, at five o'clock when Arnold Henry Rohm and Alice Lisa Reynolds, both of Petrolia, California, were married by the Reverend Victor Phillips, pastor of the church. After spending a few days in Klamath Falls, the bride and groom took up residence at Eureka, California, where the groom is on duty with the United States navy.

Summer Visitors Arrive in Town

Out-of-Town Residents Come to Visit Klamath People and Are Honored With Parties

Visitors here for the summer months have arrived and many parties and other affairs are being planned for them while they are here. These parties help to liven up the usually dull days of summer.

Among those who have come to spend a few weeks or months in our town is Virginia Turnbow of Medford. Virginia was a graduate this year of Medford high school and is here visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Victor O'Neill, of Portland street. And to show that our summer guests are not lazy, Virginia has accepted a position in the Klamath Falls city library during her stay here.

Mrs. D. J. Rees and son, Denton Jon, have returned to their home on Lakeshore drive for the summer after spending the winter in Oregon City. While in the north she was employed by the Clackamas county health unit.

Another visitor who has been here often is Rosemary Ward, granddaughter of Mrs. A. A. Ward of High street. Rosemary is here from Alhambra, California, where she attends school and lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward. She plans to remain here for the rest of the summer.

Mrs. Howard Barnhisel and two children, Sally and Peter, have returned from a two weeks' stay in Seattle where they visited since before the Fourth of July holidays with Lieutenant Barnhisel, United States army.

SCOTTS ARRIVE TO SPEND THE SUMMER HERE

Friends are greeting Mrs. Herbert Scott and two children, Ann and Charles, who have arrived from Berkeley, California, to spend the summer months at the old Johnston home on East street. Mrs. Scott is the former Anna Mae Johnston.

This Saturday, Mrs. Scott and her children, accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd D. Gass and sons, Lloyd and Billy, left for a week at Lake o' the Woods where they will remain at the J. Percy Wells cabin.

Mrs. Hilda Hannah, Mrs. Scott's sister-in-law, accompanied her north from Berkeley, continuing on to Seattle after a brief stay here.

Lieutenant-Commander Herbert Scott is with the bureau of ships, United States navy, stationed at Washington D. C.

WOMAN LEADER ARRIVES IN ENGLAND

Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, arrived in England on July the twelfth. Mrs. Whitehurst is a guest of the British government and will make a study of women's activities in the United Kingdom. She will particularly ascertain the progress made in agriculture, industry, nursing, volunteer service, and will note how the British have solved the problems of juvenile delinquency, food rationing, communal feeding, and nursery schools.

Mrs. Whitehurst is not only president of the largest organization in the world, the General Federation of Women's clubs with its over two million members in 16,500 clubs, but she is serving on 29 national war service boards and is the only woman member of the Maryland Council of Defense; the Board of Regents, University of Maryland; and the Maryland State Board of Agriculture.

Summer Visitors Arrive Here

Summer visitors in Klamath Falls this week include Mrs. W. T. McDermott and two daughters, Mrs. Wallace S. Hayden and her two children, Barbara and Stan, and Miss Ola McDermott, all of Eugene. They are guests of Mrs. McDermott's daughter, Mrs. Rolla Goold of 614 Conger avenue. The family expects to leave for Eugene on Sunday.

DALE MOTLEY HONORED WITH BRIDAL SHOWER

Honored at a bridal shower on Monday evening, July the twelfth, was Miss Dale Motley, who is to become the bride of Lieutenant Charles Miner in a ceremony on Sunday, July the eighteenth, at the Presbyterian church.

The affair was given at the new home of the Warner Kimballs in St. Francis park when Misses Lucy and Laura Kimball entertained.

The bride-elect received many beautiful gifts and later in the evening games were played.

Decorations were in pink and white and table favors were small parachutes filled with candy.

Friends who complimented her were Mrs. Forrest Breithaupt, Betty Jane Sanders, Marjorie Botens, Nellie Gardner, Audrey Reed, Marcille Reynolds, Gloria Petersteiner, Peggy Keating, Ruth Pennington, Gale Motley, Johanne Siemens and Mrs. George Cornell.

Mrs. Robert H. Thompson and children, Sue and Robert, have returned from the east coast where they have been for the past several weeks. They visited in Asheville, N. C., with Captain Thompson who has since been transferred with the United States army weather bureau in Salt Lake City.

MRS. DENTON J. REES and son Denton Jon are spending the summer at their home on Lakeshore drive after returning from Oregon City where they spent the winter.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE AT WORK

It won't be long until fall activities fill the air and Klamath Falls Woman's Library club membership committee members are already busy contacting old members and new to make plans for a busy and profitable year.

Members of the committee include Mrs. H. R. Coulam, Mrs. George A. Myers, Mrs. Carleton W. Hornibrook, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. Roland Oakes, Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, and Mrs. Matthew H. Rauw.

Those wishing membership early, may contact any of the above people. Mrs. Roland Oakes, president of Library club, will announce September plans within a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Jackman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Packard, the former Barbara Grafton, received guests from Klamath Falls at the Blue Hills ranch near Malin last Sunday, July the eleventh.

Mrs. Wilmot Crandall has returned to her position at La-Pointe's after a two weeks' vacation. She spent part of her time in Madras, Oregon, with Mrs. A. N. Kelsey, also of this city.

MICHAEL DIXON CELEBRATES ON THIRD BIRTHDAY

A group of little friends of Michael Dixon, and their mothers, helped him celebrate his third birthday on Friday afternoon when the honor guest's mother, Mrs. Howard Dixon, entertained at a lawn party at their home on Lowell street.

A striped play tent from Michael's paternal grandparents in Portland was the center of attraction at the party. Refreshments and the birthday cake were served on a long table built just the right height for little youngsters.

Enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. W. R. Moore and Richard, Mrs. Albert Porter and David, Mrs. John Takacs Jr., with Margaret Ann and Jonelle, all of Tulelake; Mrs. Jack Chapman, Jimmy and Robert, Mrs. David Allen and twin daughters, Nina and Kit, Mrs. Harold Palmer and Patricia, Mrs. Stanley Starkey and Jimmy, Mrs. Oscar Horne and Maryellen, Mrs. Russell Fairchild and Marjorie, Mrs. Virginia Johnson, Mrs. Willard Peyton, Mrs. Dixon and Michael.

ROSEMARY WARD is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. A. A. Ward of High street, for the summer. She is here from Alhambra, California.

Klamath Residents To Leave Here

Prominent Lumber People to Enter Businesses in Other Cities in South in August

News has come during the past three weeks of the transfer of three of the community's leading families. These people have accepted positions in other towns and all are leaving Klamath Falls sometime around the first of August. Many informal parties have been planned for the Don Drury's, the Willard Constans family and the C. L. Hubbles.

Mr. and Mrs. Drury and two children are leaving the first of August for Mexico where Mr. Drury has accepted a position with a company in the southern country. The whole family has been active in community affairs and will be missed by the many friends that they have here.

Klamath Girl To Marry

Ruth Kenoffel to Wed David Gerech in Early Fall Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. John Kenoffel of Klamath Falls and San Diego, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to David Gerech, son of Mrs. E. F. Gerech of Los Angeles.

The engagement was announced at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenoffel in San Diego at a tea given honoring the young couple on Sunday, July the fourth.

Miss Kenoffel is a graduate of the University of California and Mr. Gerech was graduated from Occidental college and received his masters degree from the University of Southern California. He is affiliated with Alpha Kappa Delta national honorary sociology fraternity.

The date for the wedding has been set for early fall.

DOUBLE PARTY GIVEN AT HOME FOR BIRTHDAYS

A delightful event of last Saturday afternoon, July the tenth, was the double birthday party given by Mrs. Frank Birdsall of 643 East Main street honoring her sons, Frank Lee and Donald James, who were ten and eleven years old.

The afternoon was spent in playing games. Prizes were given to the winners of the peanut hunt and word contest.

During the afternoon refreshments of ice cream and cake were enjoyed by Bob and Don Boudon, Jimmy Kreshman, Ronald Woods, Tommy Skeens, Billy Evans, Fred Miller, Dickie Cullen, Forrest Cullen, Jimmy McKinney, Billy Birdsall and the honored guests.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. T. R. Skiens and Elinor Skiens.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Constans and two sons, Bill and Dale, are also leaving soon for Los Angeles where Mr. Constans has accepted a position with the Anglo-California Lumber company there. The Constans family has lived here for about thirteen years and will leave many friends behind in Klamath Falls.

The C. L. Hubble family came here six years ago from Idaho and is well known here. Mr. and Mrs. Hubble and two daughters, Barbara and Shirley, are quite active in affairs around the city and will be missed by their many friends. They are leaving in a few weeks for Sacramento.
