

Mrs. Thomas To Be President of Group

Tulelake Past President Is Elected Head of District of American Legion

TULELAKE — Mrs. Marvin Thomas, retiring president of the auxiliary of Tulelake post number 164 of the American Legion, was elected president of the district at a pre-convention district caucus held on July the eleventh at Dunsmuir.

Present for the meeting at which plans were discussed for the coming state convention to be held in San Francisco on August seventeenth and eighteenth were Mrs. Olney Rudd, just installed to succeed Mrs. Thomas as president here, and Mrs. Anna Knoll. Mrs. Thomas will succeed Mrs. Lydia Sission as district president. The installation will be held during the state convention.

Mrs. DeMarco, president of the Epps unit in Dunsmuir was elected first vice president of the district. No other district officers were announced.

Mrs. Sission was elected as delegate to the national convention to be held later this year with Mrs. Thomas as alternate.

Tulelake officers were installed Tuesday night, July thirteenth with Mrs. Beulah Weise, past district president as installing officer and Mrs. Vera Brown, acting sergeant at arms.

Serving with Mrs. Olney Rudd, president, will be Mrs. Dewey Vernon, first vice president; Mrs. Wealthy Johnson, second vice president; Mrs. Marguerite Dayton, secretary; Mrs. Sarah Welsh, treasurer; Mrs. Alice Wilkinson, chaplain; Mrs. George Kurtz, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Frances Mosebar, marshal and Mrs. George Frey, historian.

Mrs. Thomas will continue in office as junior past president. Mrs. Rudd will automatically serve as delegate to the state conference with Mrs. Brown first delegate and Mrs. Thomas second delegate. Alternates for the same meeting are Mrs. Edith Gresham and Mrs. Blanche Sutton.

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Yost were responsible for the attractive corsages of summer blooms presented the retiring and incoming officers installed, the shoulder clusters being made of flowers in patriotic colors.

The annual report of the unit was given by Mrs. George Yost showing a treasury surplus of seventy-five dollars.

PROSPERITY REBEKAHS INSTALL

Prosperity Rebekah lodge No. 104 met in the IOOF hall on Thursday, July the fifteenth, for the installation of officers. They were installed by District President Lucille Helfer and her staff.

They are noble grand, Mary Curtis; past noble grand, Blanche Barker; vice grand, Lora Skinner; recording secretary, Alice Goeller; treasurer, Sadie Mae Rand; wardens, Jeanne Williamson; conductor, Ella Mae Ross; musician, Alma Cofer; right supporter to noble grand, Jennie Hurn; left supporter to noble grand, Martha Baker; right supporter to vice grand, Stella Dryden; left supporter to vice grand, Arola Andrus; inside guardian, Cora Gehrke; outside guardian, Frances Munsell; chaplain, Charlotte Martin.

The noble grand, Blanche Barker, presented each of her officers and committees with a lovely gift. The noble grand, Mary Curtis, was presented with a beautiful gift from the lodge by Lucille Helfer and also a gift by Charlotte Martin. The past noble grand presented the past noble jewel by the deputy president, Lucille Helfer and a gift from the social committee by Alma Cofer and a lovely bouquet was presented by Helen Blanas. Charlotte Martin was presented a gift in appreciation and her officers also presented her with a token.

Dicksey Weed, correspondent, presented a scrapbook with items from each meeting. The vice grand was given a gift from Charlotte Martin and Lucille Helfer was presented a gift from her also. Other gifts were also offered to officers by Mary Curtis and Lucille Helfer.

Following committees appointed by the noble grand and vice grand are: Finance committee, Louise Humphrey, Anna Funk, Lena Molschenbacher; good of the order, Margaret Smith, Mae Curran and Lillian Messer; hospitality committee, Cora Kennedy, Addie Zandelland and Ivy Propst.

Entertainment after the program consisted of a violin solo by Ethelmae Skinner and accompanied by Alma Cofer; a reading by Dicksey Weed, and accordian solo by Margaret Smith and accompanied by Margaret Biden; a solo by Ella Mae Ross and accompanied by Alma Cofer.

The rooms were prettily decorated with summer flowers. Refreshments were served by a committee with Martha Baker in charge.

Marion Bond Marries

Tulelake Girl Is Wed To Sergeant in Reno Ceremony Recently

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bond this week announced the marriage of their youngest daughter, Marian Ruth to Staff Sergeant Eland Tiner of Oakland, California. Sergeant Tiner is now stationed at the Hill military reservation in Virginia.

The young couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bond and Mr. and Mrs. William Bond, also of Tulelake, traveled to Reno for the ceremony on July the tenth. Reverend Buschener, pastor of the First Methodist church of Reno, officiated.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Shirley Tiner of Oakland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress-maker ensemble of blue with deep blue accessories. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

Her only attendant was her elder sister, Miss Patricia Bond of Sacramento. William Bond, brother of the bride, was the best man.

Mrs. Tiner, one of the popular members of the younger set of Tulelake, was graduated from the Tulelake high school with the class of 1941. She has been employed for the past several months at the board of equalization in Sacramento.

The groom will return to his post in Virginia and the bride will continue with her position in Sacramento for the time being.

MRS. McDONALD HAS PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

MERRILL — Mrs. Levi (Bird) McDonald was delightfully entertained in honor of a birthday anniversary at a dinner at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Craven, 1934 Esplanade in Klamath Falls, on Sunday, July the eleventh.

Mrs. McDonald is a native of Klamath county, having been born near Bonanza. For many years with Mr. McDonald she resided on a stock ranch in Langell valley, serving as correspondent for the Klamath Herald and News. Twelve years ago they came to Merrill, purchasing the Lost River hotel which they still manage.

The attractive dinner table at which the guests were seated was centered with a centerpiece of delphinium.

Present for the affair were Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Roderick Smith, Mrs. Stanley Hajeck, Mr. McDonald, Sharon Lee Willis, a granddaughter of the honor guest, and Marcylyn Wiggins.

The evening following the opening of the gifts was spent informally until refreshment time when the guests gathered about the prettily decorated table which was centered with a wedding cake.

Covers were laid for Marge Larson, Phyllis Snyder, Lura Haynes, Harriett Coulson, Patty Gentry, Norma Walden, Eleanor Kandra, Patty McVey, Betty Rhodes, Janice Ott, Jean Jones, Jean Dyer, Pat Johnson, Gerry Gresham, Mardel Long, Natalie Welsh and Joyce Crumb.

The Loyal Order of the Moose will sponsor a card party this evening, Saturday, at eight o'clock in the basement of the lodge building. This is the last game of the series, and the public is invited.

WEDDED

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ralph Griffith were married in a ceremony in San Francisco in mid-June. Mrs. Griffith is the former Maxine Mahaney of Phoenix, Arizona.

WED IN JUNE

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Barret were wed in a ceremony held on June the nineteenth. She is the former Lauralie Burton. —Kennell-Ellis

Community Guild Meets

Tulelake Club Meets At Newton Home on Wednesday, July 7

TULELAKE—The Community Guild met for a pot-lunch "brunch" Wednesday, July seventh at the home of Mrs. Tom Newton.

Mrs. Roy Urbach led the devotionals and roll call as a lead to the highlight of the program was answered with the favorite book of each member. Mrs. M. V. Maxwell presented the interesting book of short stories by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings and the next book suggested for review is "Miz Rawling's Cookery" by the same author.

Mrs. H. T. Street reported that progress is being made on plans for the fire escape from the second story of the annex of the Tulelake Community church and that work will begin in the near future.

A picnic is planned for the next regular meeting, time to be announced later and the event to begin at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. H. T. Street. Mrs. Tom Newton, program chairman for the session, hopes to have Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Klamath Falls authority on flower arrangement, present for the meeting. All who plan to attend are asked to bring blooms from their gardens and containers with which to make arrangements.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. L. Hartzell and daughter, Janice, of Tulelake, Mrs. Wyoming Morgan, Oklahoma who is the daughter of George Smith and is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Leland Barklow, guest of Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, Mrs. Mae Black, mother of Mrs. C. C. McConnell, Dorothy Thomas, Carolyn Ryckman and Ruth Crowther. Mrs. Newton and Mrs. D. P. Reid served ice cream cones at the close of the afternoon.

MRS. DYSERT GIVEN PARTY AT TULELAKE

TULELAKE—Mrs. Donald Dysert, the former Wanda Long, was delightfully honored early this month at a miscellaneous shower at which three former high school classmates were hostesses. Invitations were issued by Yvette Carlisle, Imogene Rowan and Patty Brooks for the party at the home of Miss Carlisle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carlisle.

The evening following the opening of the gifts was spent informally until refreshment time when the guests gathered about the prettily decorated table which was centered with a wedding cake.

Covers were laid for Marge Larson, Phyllis Snyder, Lura Haynes, Harriett Coulson, Patty Gentry, Norma Walden, Eleanor Kandra, Patty McVey, Betty Rhodes, Janice Ott, Jean Jones, Jean Dyer, Pat Johnson, Gerry Gresham, Mardel Long, Natalie Welsh and Joyce Crumb.

The Loyal Order of the Moose will sponsor a card party this evening, Saturday, at eight o'clock in the basement of the lodge building. This is the last game of the series, and the public is invited.

Sweet Magnolia

It's true what they say about Dixie, chum, for here is the sweet Magnolia Queen picked by aviation cadets in Cypress Gardens, Fla. The name is Laurel White Norden.

Livesay to Command Camp White Infantry

MEDFORD, July 17 (AP)—Major General William G. Livesay arrived at Camp White this week to command the 91st infantry division. The former chief of staff of the Puerto Rico department replaced Major General Charles H. Gerhardt, who left for foreign duty last week.

Fort Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wright spent several days last week visiting in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Brown of Crystal return Friday from Salem, where they have spent the past several weeks.

J. Upton Worthington of Paisley was a guest in Fort Klamath over the weekend at the R. S. Dixon and Loren Miller homes.

Alfred B. Castel was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Friday.

Jerry Sisemore is suffering from an attack of pleurisy contracted from an injury received at the rodeo in Klamath Falls on July 4th when his horse became frightened and threw Sisemore, who received two broken ribs as a result of the mishap.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johansen and daughter Barbara, returned Saturday to their home in Sunnyville, Calif., after spending a week here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton and their house guest, Mrs. Clara Beall, who is Mrs. Denton's sister. Mrs. Johansen is Mrs. Beall's daughter, and accompanying the Johanssens on the return trip to California was Delbert Sedlacek, nephew and grandson, respectively, of Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Beall, who returned to his home in Vallejo after spending some time here visiting at the Denton home.

Wednesday shoppers and visitors in Klamath Falls were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dyeche and Mrs. Joe White. While in Klamath Falls, they called on Mrs. Ed Cross, former Fort Klamath resident.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT MALIN SHOWER

MALIN — Honoring Mrs. J. W. George, a recent bride, Mrs. Arnold Kirtley, Mrs. Grant Anderson and Mrs. E. A. Kortum were co-hostesses at a delightfully planned miscellaneous shower at the Anderson home on July the seventh. The bride is the former Georgia Bailey of Kansas and the wedding was an event of June the twentieth.

Present for the affair were Mrs. Orville Wood, Mrs. Jack Cox, Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. Joe Smidt, Mrs. Jack Steyskal, Mrs. Meryll Shogren, Mrs. Leo Stearns, Mrs. Geneva King, Mrs. Donald Dod, Mrs. William Normile, Mrs. Harold Freeman, Mrs. L. Kirtley, Mrs. Liggitt, Mrs. Kamping, Mrs. Fitchler, Mrs. Sadie Szeritski, Katherine Co., Pearl, Ruby and Marjorie Stearns, Lola and Joan Kamping and Pauline Fitchler.

The Midland grange Home Economics club is to sponsor a picnic for families of the group to be held on Sunday, July the eighteenth, at the home of Mrs. Phil Molschenbacher. Games are planned for old and young and lunch will be served at one o'clock.

The Senior circle of the Congregational church met on Friday, July the sixteenth, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Little of Orchard way. A picnic pot-luck luncheon was served on the lawn.

WED IN JUNE

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Barret were wed in a ceremony held on June the nineteenth. She is the former Lauralie Burton. —Kennell-Ellis

Community Guild Meets

Tulelake Club Meets At Newton Home on Wednesday, July 7

TULELAKE—The Community Guild met for a pot-lunch "brunch" Wednesday, July seventh at the home of Mrs. Tom Newton.

Mrs. Roy Urbach led the devotionals and roll call as a lead to the highlight of the program was answered with the favorite book of each member. Mrs. M. V. Maxwell presented the interesting book of short stories by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings and the next book suggested for review is "Miz Rawling's Cookery" by the same author.

Mrs. H. T. Street reported that progress is being made on plans for the fire escape from the second story of the annex of the Tulelake Community church and that work will begin in the near future.

A picnic is planned for the next regular meeting, time to be announced later and the event to begin at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. H. T. Street. Mrs. Tom Newton, program chairman for the session, hopes to have Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Klamath Falls authority on flower arrangement, present for the meeting. All who plan to attend are asked to bring blooms from their gardens and containers with which to make arrangements.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. L. Hartzell and daughter, Janice, of Tulelake, Mrs. Wyoming Morgan, Oklahoma who is the daughter of George Smith and is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Leland Barklow, guest of Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, Mrs. Mae Black, mother of Mrs. C. C. McConnell, Dorothy Thomas, Carolyn Ryckman and Ruth Crowther. Mrs. Newton and Mrs. D. P. Reid served ice cream cones at the close of the afternoon.

MRS. DYSERT GIVEN PARTY AT TULELAKE

TULELAKE—Mrs. Donald Dysert, the former Wanda Long, was delightfully honored early this month at a miscellaneous shower at which three former high school classmates were hostesses. Invitations were issued by Yvette Carlisle, Imogene Rowan and Patty Brooks for the party at the home of Miss Carlisle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carlisle.

The evening following the opening of the gifts was spent informally until refreshment time when the guests gathered about the prettily decorated table which was centered with a wedding cake.

Covers were laid for Marge Larson, Phyllis Snyder, Lura Haynes, Harriett Coulson, Patty Gentry, Norma Walden, Eleanor Kandra, Patty McVey, Betty Rhodes, Janice Ott, Jean Jones, Jean Dyer, Pat Johnson, Gerry Gresham, Mardel Long, Natalie Welsh and Joyce Crumb.

The Loyal Order of the Moose will sponsor a card party this evening, Saturday, at eight o'clock in the basement of the lodge building. This is the last game of the series, and the public is invited.

Sweet Magnolia

It's true what they say about Dixie, chum, for here is the sweet Magnolia Queen picked by aviation cadets in Cypress Gardens, Fla. The name is Laurel White Norden.

Livesay to Command Camp White Infantry

MEDFORD, July 17 (AP)—Major General William G. Livesay arrived at Camp White this week to command the 91st infantry division. The former chief of staff of the Puerto Rico department replaced Major General Charles H. Gerhardt, who left for foreign duty last week.

Fort Klamath

Mrs. Hanks Honored

Recent Bride Honored At Bridal Shower at Kriz Home

Mrs. Kathleen Kriz of 700 Mitchell street was a hostess on Thursday evening, July the eighth, at a miscellaneous bridal shower for Mrs. James Hanks, the former Ramona Myrtle Kester. The wedding took place in Medford on June the twenty-eighth. Both young people are from pioneer Klamath families.

The Kriz home was beautifully decorated with early summer flowers for the occasion.

During the afternoon, Marjorie McCollum entertained with two vocal solos. Pinochle and chinese checkers were later played by the guests. Refreshments were served and the table was centered with a beautiful wedding cake.

A large clothes basket decorated in pink and white was filled with gifts for the bride.

Those who complimented Mrs. Hanks were Mrs. Kate Hogue, Mrs. Lucille Helfer, Mrs. Effie Redkey, Mrs. Nina Beck, Mrs. Mona Downs, Mrs. Jeannie Shiels, Mrs. Jennie Grover, Mrs. Lorene McCollum, Mrs. Winifred Davis, Mrs. Myrtle McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrus, Al-ma Roper, Mrs. Helen Dittman, Miss Joyce Dittman, Miss Edith Crossfield, Miss Marjorie McCollum, Miss Rose Cook, Miss Anita Kester, Mr. Adrian Andrus, Mr. Charles King and the hostess.

Many gifts were also received from friends who were not able to attend.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT MALIN SHOWER

MALIN — Honoring Mrs. J. W. George, a recent bride, Mrs. Arnold Kirtley, Mrs. Grant Anderson and Mrs. E. A. Kortum were co-hostesses at a delightfully planned miscellaneous shower at the Anderson home on July the seventh. The bride is the former Georgia Bailey of Kansas and the wedding was an event of June the twentieth.

Present for the affair were Mrs. Orville Wood, Mrs. Jack Cox, Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. Joe Smidt, Mrs. Jack Steyskal, Mrs. Meryll Shogren, Mrs. Leo Stearns, Mrs. Geneva King, Mrs. Donald Dod, Mrs. William Normile, Mrs. Harold Freeman, Mrs. L. Kirtley, Mrs. Liggitt, Mrs. Kamping, Mrs. Fitchler, Mrs. Sadie Szeritski, Katherine Co., Pearl, Ruby and Marjorie Stearns, Lola and Joan Kamping and Pauline Fitchler.

The Midland grange Home Economics club is to sponsor a picnic for families of the group to be held on Sunday, July the eighteenth, at the home of Mrs. Phil Molschenbacher. Games are planned for old and young and lunch will be served at one o'clock.

The Senior circle of the Congregational church met on Friday, July the sixteenth, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Little of Orchard way. A picnic pot-luck luncheon was served on the lawn.

WED IN JUNE

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Barret were wed in a ceremony held on June the nineteenth. She is the former Lauralie Burton. —Kennell-Ellis

Community Guild Meets

Tulelake Club Meets At Newton Home on Wednesday, July 7

TULELAKE—The Community Guild met for a pot-lunch "brunch" Wednesday, July seventh at the home of Mrs. Tom Newton.

Mrs. Roy Urbach led the devotionals and roll call as a lead to the highlight of the program was answered with the favorite book of each member. Mrs. M. V. Maxwell presented the interesting book of short stories by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings and the next book suggested for review is "Miz Rawling's Cookery" by the same author.

Mrs. H. T. Street reported that progress is being made on plans for the fire escape from the second story of the annex of the Tulelake Community church and that work will begin in the near future.

A picnic is planned for the next regular meeting, time to be announced later and the event to begin at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. H. T. Street. Mrs. Tom Newton, program chairman for the session, hopes to have Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Klamath Falls authority on flower arrangement, present for the meeting. All who plan to attend are asked to bring blooms from their gardens and containers with which to make arrangements.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. L. Hartzell and daughter, Janice, of Tulelake, Mrs. Wyoming Morgan, Oklahoma who is the daughter of George Smith and is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Leland Barklow, guest of Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, Mrs. Mae Black, mother of Mrs. C. C. McConnell, Dorothy Thomas, Carolyn Ryckman and Ruth Crowther. Mrs. Newton and Mrs. D. P. Reid served ice cream cones at the close of the afternoon.

MRS. DYSERT GIVEN PARTY AT TULELAKE

TULELAKE—Mrs. Donald Dysert, the former Wanda Long, was delightfully honored early this month at a miscellaneous shower at which three former high school classmates were hostesses. Invitations were issued by Yvette Carlisle, Imogene Rowan and Patty Brooks for the party at the home of Miss Carlisle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carlisle.

The evening following the opening of the gifts was spent informally until refreshment time when the guests gathered about the prettily decorated table which was centered with a wedding cake.

Covers were laid for Marge Larson, Phyllis Snyder, Lura Haynes, Harriett Coulson, Patty Gentry, Norma Walden, Eleanor Kandra, Patty McVey, Betty Rhodes, Janice Ott, Jean Jones, Jean Dyer, Pat Johnson, Gerry Gresham, Mardel Long, Natalie Welsh and Joyce Crumb.

The Loyal Order of the Moose will sponsor a card party this evening, Saturday, at eight o'clock in the basement of the lodge building. This is the last game of the series, and the public is invited.

Sweet Magnolia

It's true what they say about Dixie, chum, for here is the sweet Magnolia Queen picked by aviation cadets in Cypress Gardens, Fla. The name is Laurel White Norden.

Livesay to Command Camp White Infantry

MEDFORD, July 17 (AP)—Major General William G. Livesay arrived at Camp White this week to command the 91st infantry division. The former chief of staff of the Puerto Rico department replaced Major General Charles H. Gerhardt, who left for foreign duty last week.

Fort Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wright spent several days last week visiting in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Brown of Crystal return Friday from Salem, where they have spent the past several weeks.

Sprague River

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Lake Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vanslyke and Jerry and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vanslyke and family from Hil-debrand.

Bill Smith is here spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Huffman, and Mr. Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Croly and Mr. and Mrs. Tiny Ough were at Odell lake over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Menis Hamblin and Edgar Hamblin drove to Klamath Falls after work Saturday and spent the weekend visiting Mrs. Edgar Hamblin and Lewis, also Mrs. Lucille Sherman who is a daughter. She will be there two weeks visiting.

Mrs. C. G. Evans was called to the bedside of her mother who is very ill, in Oklahoma. She left early Sunday morning.

Mrs. C. G. Evans delivered a message in the Apostolic Faith church in Klamath Falls on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley McWilliams have moved to the Harry Short property recently vacated by P. G. Short.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Short have gone to Wenatchee, Wash., to live. Neva Short is there, as is another daughter and her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dyer and daughter, Geraldine, of Redding, Calif., were visiting in Sprague River Sunday. Mrs. Dyer is a sister of Sy and Bill Pool. They also visited in the Ivan Pankey home.

Ivy C. Clark has moved his ranch house up near the highway. Bob Hadley of Klamath Falls did the moving. This is a much better location and will be easier to add electricity when the wire is available.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Maxwell and daughter, Dolores, Mrs. Lola Pankey and Miss Edith Pankey, Bonanza, called at the Ivan Pankey home Sunday.

Velema Lee and Stanton Pool, children of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Pool, underwent tonsilectomy at the Klamath Valley hospital last Friday. Both are recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wylie and son, Jackie, have moved this week to Eugene where Mr. Wylie will be employed.

Mrs. Paul Fuller and small son left this week to join her husband in Missoula, Mont. Paul is in the air corps.

Mrs. Irene Ough came out Tuesday and will spend the rest of the week visiting friends here. She is staying in the home of Mrs. Lewis Croly.

Mr. and Mrs. Capron of Empire, Ore., are here for a few days. They plan to drive to Susanville and see their daughter, Mrs. Dan Drake, and family before returning home.

Mrs. Vernon Henry of Chemult, Ore., was here spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. L. Lenzi, the first of the week. Phyllis Lenzi came down from Chemult with her sister whom she had been visiting.

D. M. Brown and family have moved here and are now located in one of the C. C. Heidrich cabins. There are other newcomers, too. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are located in Hosely camp. Mr. Miller is the cook for the Morrison Knudson company who is doing some railroad work near here.

Mrs. Francis Schultz underwent an appendectomy at the Klamath Valley hospital Tuesday, July 13. She is improving as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher

W. Lambert of Klamath Falls was in Fort Klamath last week and expects to move here soon on to the Jackson Horton property on Wood river, which he purchased recently from Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Horton of Bonanza.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Denton of Eugene, visited here Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton while en route home from Klamath Falls, where they had been the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Scott for a few days.

will leave Sunday for a brief vacation. They will visit Mrs. Kircher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, of Hood River, Ore., and Mr. Kircher's parents at Silverton, Ore. They plan to be gone a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pearson and Neal have moved to Lakeview, Ore., where Mr. Pearson will be employed.

Mrs. Lucille Sherman is here spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Ted Reams, and brother, Menis Hamblin.

A large number of people from Sprague River attended the funeral of the late B. E. Wolford in Klamath Falls Tuesday afternoon.

Lloyd Bates has returned from Lakeview where he has been employed. He is staying with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Grace Hagan. Mrs. Bates will remain in Lakeview for a while.

Miss Faye Kelly and Miss Sally Zadov were Klamath Falls visitors Tuesday.

Frank Reynolds is employed by Copco and works at the pumping station in Klamath Falls. He spent Thursday and Friday with his wife, Mrs. Grace Reynolds, and little daughter, Janice. These are the days he has off each week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hansen moved to Susanville, Calif., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Drake and children also moved to Susanville.

Mt. Laki

Sylvia and Edwin Keady have spent the past two weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd at Bly.

Ethel and Donna Dixon, accompanied by Ann Stevenson of Olene, left Saturday morning for Girl Scout Camp Wildwood near Canby, Ore., where they will spend the next two weeks. Ethel and Ann will serve on the council staff.

Word has been received here of the birth of a son, born to Mr. and Mrs. Ira DeWitt, at Oregon City, July 6. The little fellow has been named John Lester and weighed six pounds and 14 ounces. Mrs. DeWitt will be remembered as Elvina Byers.

Albert Keady returned home last week from the Klamath Valley hospital, where he underwent an appendectomy operation.

In 1944, it is expected that 30,000,000 synthetic rubber passenger car tires will be available for civilian use.

BROTHER AND SISTER TO HAVE REUNION

SPRAGUE RIVER, Ore.—Receiving a message from a brother whom she has not seen since 1903, Mrs. Dollie Lopez of Sprague River learned that he would visit her during the latter part of July.

The adopted brother, Roy Hall, also expects to stop over in Orange, Calif., to visit another brother, Rev. Edwin Gehle. Neither he nor Mrs. Lopez have seen Rev. Gehle for 40 years. Hall and his family are on their way to Washington from Carlsbad, New Mexico.