

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

FIELD MASS FOR 15,000 SAILORS—Bishops, priests, and naval officers move in procession to altar on drill field at U. S. naval training station, Sampson, N. Y., for mass in which 15,000 participated. Lake Geneva is in background.

WOOL SUIT—Simple, chic suit in tangerine wool for fall wear is modeled by blonde Anita Louise, film actress. Her legionnaire's cap is of deep brown felt with silk tassels, and she carries an alligator bag to match her slippers.

SCENIC FIRE LOOKOUT—Women fire spotters, being trained by the U. S. Forest Service, survey their territory from a lookout, with Mt. Rainier looming above the clouds.

BOLIVIAN VISITOR—Lt. Col. Luis Alberto Tapia, Bolivian army chaplain and newspaper director, chats with Marguerite Chapman during his visit to a Hollywood movie lot.

FAWN FINDS A FRIEND—Baby Sandra Hademan generously gave her milk bottle to this tiny fawn which wandered alone into her father's garden in Seattle, Wash.

'PIN-UP BOY, PIN-UP GIRL—Pvt. Robert Pusey, chosen by his fellow soldiers at Gardner Field, Calif., as their "pin-up boy," tries his hand at this glamor business. Rita Hayworth is his helpful assistant.

SLUGGER—Nick Etten (above), former Philly first baseman, has taken a new lease on life since shifting to the New York Yankees. His improved all-around performance was highlighted by climbing to the league lead in runs batted in.

CAPTAIN CONDUCTS—Capt. Meredith Willson, orchestra leader now in the Army, rehearses the Los Angeles Philharmonic Symphony in the Hollywood Bowl for one of the season's "symphonies under the stars."

ROTARIAN—Charles L. Wheeler (above) of San Francisco, assumed the presidency of Rotary International July 1, succeeding Fernando Carbajal of Lima, Peru.

HONEYMOONING HERO—Maj. Robert H. LaJole, 27, French-Canadian officer who was decorated by King George VI for his part in the Dieppe raid, and his bride, snapped on their honeymoon at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

MINISTER—Adrien Tixier (above) was named labor minister of the new French committee of liberation in Algiers.

'LEMME OUTA HERE!'—Judy, 7,200-pound elephant being transferred to her new home in Lincoln Park, Chicago, objected strenuously to being taken for a ride. She broke loose and as a result had to walk some 18 miles.

HAMBLETONIAN FAVORITE—Yolo Song (above), owned by Bill Strang, is favored to win the Hambletonian trotting classic, to be run this year at Empire City, Aug. 11.

STARS IN SERVICE

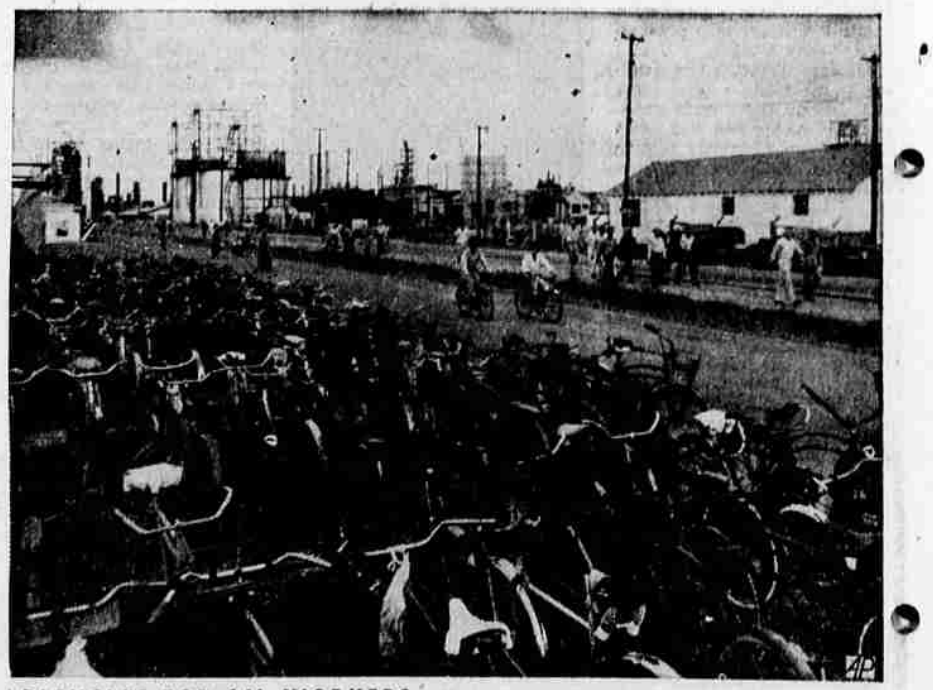

BIRDIE TEBBETTS
DID ALL HIS CHIRPING FROM BEHIND THE PLATE FOR THE DETROIT TIGERS FROM 1936 TO 1942!

ALAN MAVER

BUT NOW HE'S BARKING HIS ORDERS AS LIEUT. IN THE ARMY AIR CORPS

BUY WAR BONDS

U. S. Treasury Department

BICYCLES FOR OIL WORKERS—Workmen at the Baton Rouge, La., refinery of the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana ride these wheels to and from distant refinery units.