RADIO PROGRAM SET FOR WEEK IN BOND DRIVE

Another week's program schedule has been lined up by committees of the BPOW and Soroptimist clubs for broadcast from KFFJ in behalf of July's $300,000 bond drive.

A half-hour program will be presented this evening from 6:30 until 7 o'clock by the Sojourners club and the Catholic Daughters. On Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a talk on bond buying by Mrs. A. M. Collier and on Wednesday afternoon at 1:10 o'clock, Mrs. William Spangler will speak.

A talk by Katherine Walton is announced for Thursday afternoon at 5:10 o'clock, and Friday by Mrs. G. A. Krause on Friday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock. Next Monday evening, July 26, the Commandos will have charge of a half-hour program from 6:30 until 7 o'clock.

The women of Klamath county are making a special effort to bring in the quota this month to purchase ammunition for the Pelican bomber.

KENO VISITED BY BOND SALE WOMEN

KENO, Ore., July 17—Representatives of the Soroptimist club and the Business and Professional Women's club of Klamath Falls were Keno visitors on Wednesday, on behalf of the bond drive. They are looking for a "sweetheart" for Captain Jack, the little rooster of bond fame. Anyone having a good looking little bantam hen which they would like to loan to a good cause may enter his hen in the "sweetheart" contest.

Any hen entered from this community will be counted as a Keno "entrant." Every dollar paid on a bond will count as one vote on the bantam of the purchaser's choice. So here's a chance for Keno to score another victory in bond buying—help furnish the "eggs" which the bomber, "Klamath Pelican," escorted by the "Keno Eagle," and three other Klamath county escort planes, may soon be dropping on the enemy. And it could be one of Keno's choice bantam hens that will have the distinction of traveling with Captain Jack to help raise and keep up the enthusiasm of bond buyers. For it's the "bonds that furnish the bombs."

Last Day Coming For A Gas Book Applications

Local motorists were warned by the war price and rationing board Monday that only one more day remains in which to send in applications for "A" gasoline ration books. All applications must be mailed in, and people should not bring applications directly to the office on the last day, because they will not be taken care of then. Late applications will be taken care of as they come in, but all motorists needing gasoline shortly after July 21, when applications are due, were warned that theirs should be in on time.

An ill-fitting valve cap may result in serious tire and tube damage.

Selfishness

By EARL WHITLOCK
Selfishness—enlightened selfishness—is a wonderful quality. It is at the base of many human actions which we term unselfishness. The mother, for example, who sacrifices herself for her children is giving herself the greatest happiness by giving everything she can to her children.

The man who, deeply in debt, refuses the relief of bankruptcy and, instead, pays off his creditors in full. That, too, is selfish, simply because that kind of man—what a pity there are not more of them—would be utterly miserable owing money he couldn't pay. He finds the greatest joy in paying what he owes and being able to look the world in the face.

Don't think I am decrying these and other fine actions. I am merely putting in a little plug for the right kind of selfishness. Some day, we shall be sufficiently enlightened so that all wrongdoing will cease—for purely selfish reasons. Simply because it is not to any man's selfish interest to do things that might make him sleep less soundly at night.

And doesn't it give you increased respect for the plan under which this old world operates to realize that only the fine and square and decent things of life are worth doing—from a selfish viewpoint?

Next Monday Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral home will comment on "The Rooster's Crow."

Lake o' Woods Bears Have No Respect for Rationing

Prowling bears in the Lake o' the Woods' summer home area have slight regard for the little red stamps that it takes to buy meat these days, and what's more they are woefully lacking in manners, according to reports from that area this weekend.

One brown bear, a week-eaten fellow with plenty of nerve, entered the Henry Conradi cabin on the east side of the lake, gobbled two loaves of French bread, paper and all, pulled pop bottles down from the shelf, broke a towel rack under a row of dishes and laddered over to the garbage pit where he finished off the breakfast hotcakes.

Finds Thimble
While wandering around the patio, the bear dug up the earth and Mrs. Conradi found a gold thimble which a guest had lost over the Fourth of July. A red and white checked linen tablecloth on the out-of-door table, was mauled by the bear who apparently had found a bit of syrup or jelly on the covering.

On his next trip, the bear neatly took the lid off a big pot of spaghetti and meat and licked

Buy a Kid a Ride in a Jeep!

You all want Jeep rides. And the soldiers will be here just to take you. But you have to help the soldiers, too. Jeeps and guns and ships are bought with money from War Stamps and Bonds. So the rides will be given free with each $2.00 worth of War Stamps.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday Soldiers Will Give Rides for Stamps

Frankly, our sale of War Saving Stamps in Klamath, part of the national program to build the aircraft carrier Shangri-La, has fallen sadly under schedule. To stimulate this sale, and bring Klamath up to its full share, the retail merchants committee at the chamber of commerce has arranged to bring soldiers and Jeeps here for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The soldiers will give a free ride for every $2.00 purchase of War Stamps. Two dollars may strain the savings of some youngsters, but it's a small amount if older folks will take it upon themselves to help out. Let's see to it that every youngster in the basin gets a Jeep ride with a soldier.

Grown-ups also are encouraged to ride with the kids. And young folks are welcomed to get as many rides each as they can buy stamps for. Every retailer in town has War Stamps for sale, and has ride tickets ready for you right now.

Please don't embarrass your merchant by asking for tickets except in return for actual War Stamp purchases. He is on his honor to put the drive over, and to see that the tickets go for Stamp purchases only.

With our young men giving their lives each day in Sicily, the least we can do is to make what small sacrifice is necessary to put lots of money into War Stamps. Buy stamps like you never did before!
